The Ladies' Pronunciamento!

While protesting against all the old Dentrifices now in the market, the Ladies', with one consent, have adopted the Sozodont as the one thing needful to insure the integrity of the teeth and a fragrant breath. d&s-w

"A man rushed breathlessly into a lawyer's office in St. Paul, and, approaching the legal luminary, excitedly remarked: "A man has tied a hoop to my horse's tail. Can I do anything?" "Yes," replied the attorney: "go and untie it." This was good advice, and only cost the man $5.—Farmington Press.

SELF-MURDEROUS NEGLECT.—To suffer cold to accumulate on cold, or a cough to become chronic, when a few doses of Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar taken at the outset, invariably effect a cure in a few hours. For sale by all druggists.

IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.

It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel.

We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road-bed has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been relaid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is centrally located, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making East-ern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kankakee Line and Pan Handle Routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets on the Old Pioneer Route—

The Chicago and North-Western.

You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information, with maps, time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Offices in the West, or upon personal or written application to J. W. Irons, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City, A. H. Earl, Ticket Agent at Ogden, or to J. H. Mountain, Western Traveling Agent, Omaha, Neb. or to W. H. Stennett, General Passenger Agent, Chicago. d54

If every man had a torpedo planted in his head that would set itself off whenever he accompanied a downright criminal act, what a blessed thing it would be for the age! But then, with such a thinning out among our sensational preachers, Congressmen, Government architects, judges and the like, how could we get along?

EVENING NEWS.

Wednesday, . October 27, 1875.

Local and Other Matters.

THERMOMETER 50 degrees F in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Breezy, cloudy.

Australasian Missionaries.—The missionaries recently appointed to Australia are requested to meet at the Historian's Office, on Saturday, the 30th inst., at seven o'clock p.m.

Post Trader.—Thomas Vollentine, of Franklin County, has been appointed post trader at Fort Cameron, Utah Territory, and his commission has been forwarded, and he is ordered to report for duty.—Omaha Herald, Oct. 23.

Benefit Party.—To-morrow night, at the 5th and 6th Ward Schoolhouse, there will be a benefit party, complimentary to Elder William McLachlan, when his many friends will be out in force.

Next Tuesday evening there will be a concert in the 7th Ward School-house, for the same object.

The American Cabinet-Maker, and Upholsterer, and Furniture Reporter, is a large, illustrated, weekly, devoted to subjects connected with the business from which it derives its name. It contains a number of well written and useful articles bearing upon the furniture trade. Edited and published by J. Henry Symonds, Boston, Mass.

Correction.—In alluding to the operation of amputation recently performed upon Francis Sells, the NEWS correctly stated that Dr. Anderson and the Doctors Richards were present at the time, but incorrectly that the first named surgeon was the actual operator, the amputation having been done by Dr. Joseph Richards, in a manner highly creditable to that young surgeon.

Complimentary Party.—On Friday evening there will be a party complimentary to and for the benefit of Elders Moroni H. McAllister and John D. H. McAllister, in the 8th Ward Schoolhouse. Those brethren will leave to go on missions in a few days, and their friends will be likely to get together on the occasion of the party in goody number.

Sixty Years Old.—Yesterday was the sixtieth anniversary of the birthday of Bishop William Thorn, of the 7th Ward, and, in honor of the event, Smith Brothers' quadrille band went to his residence last night and serenaded him.

Last evening the same band of musicians also serenaded Elder William McLachlan, who is about to depart on a mission to Australasia.

The Last Company.—The company of emigrants which left Liverpool on the 13th inst., arrived safely at New York and left the latter city for the west last evening. The following returning missionaries are with the company—

Bedson Eardley, Francis C. Boyer, Don C. Johnson, Charles E. Griffin, Dirk Bockholt, James Payne, Alex. G. Ingram, Lafayette Holbrook, and ——Johnson.

Elder W. C. Staines will leave New York, for home, on Saturday next.

New Music.—From Church & Co., music publishers, Cincinnati, we have received copies of the following pieces, which are said to possess more than usual excellence and merit, and which the publishers pronounce as the choicest selections from among their recent publications—

"Normal Schottische," by J. W. Shryock; "Down the Stream the Shadows Darken," song and chorus, words and music by Karl Arini; "Under the Lilacs," ballad, written and sung by Ben Dodge; "Julia Waltz," by Miss Nettie B. Howell; and "Under the Wavelets," song and chorus, words by Arthur W. French, music by George W. Persley.

The Contempt Case.—The following is from the New York World, of October 20th, being a dispatch, dated at this City, on the 18th inst.—

"Some months ago Judge McKean made an order requiring Brigham Young to pay Ann Eliza Young $500 per month from the commencement of her suit, as alimony and $3,000 attorney's fees in the suit for divorce pending at the time of issuing this order. The amount of alimony then due was $9,500. The order not being complied with, Brigham was brought before Judge McKean and imprisoned one day in the Penitentiary for contempt in not paying the attorney's fees, which were then settled. Soon after Judge McKean was removed and Judge Lowe appointed, and the latter was asked to punish Brigham Young for contempt in not paying the $9,500 alimony. The decision in the case was that that the order was illegal and invalid, and the case rested there until to-day, when, upon application, Judge Boreman issued an order, which has been served on Brigham, commanding him to appear before the Court on Saturday, 23rd, to show cause why he should be punished for contempt for disregarding the first order."

City Council.—The City Council met last evening, Mayor Wells presiding.

Petition of Sarah Brown and others, heirs and executors of the estate of the late Thomas D. Brown, stating that a certain lot of ground in this city, of which they held possession, and to which there were no adverse claims, had not been filed upon, in accordance with the Act of Congress for the Relief of Cities and Towns, &c., the omission having occurred through the negligence of their attorney and the illness, at the time, of the late T. D. Brown; they therefore asked the Council by resolution to authorize the Mayor to deed to them the land in question; referred back to the petitioners with explanatory note to the effect that the prayer could not be legally granted.

Petition of H. Wagener asking for a remittance of $65 from his saloon license, he having closed business some time before the expiration of the term of the license; referred to committee on license.

Bill of DESERET NEWS for printing and binding revised and compiled laws of Salt Lake City; referred to committee on claims.

Bill of Hanmer Wells, salary for three months, ending Oct. 25th, 1875, $300; allowed.

Bill of Isaac Groo, for eleven months' services as supervisor and watermaster, $1,430, was reported as correct by the committee on claims, who recommended that the amount be placed to his credit and also that he be charged with amounts paid to others for services during his absence.

Petition of Salt Lake City Ladies' Library Association, setting forth the objects, &c., of the organization, and asking aid to enable it to assume a permanent basis; referred to committee on ways and means.

Adjourned till next Tuesday at 7 p. m.

Remarkable.—The other day a very remarkable creature passed off from the system of a twenty-months old little girl, daughter of Brother John Lamb, of the 15th Ward. It is about two and a half inches long and half an inch in diameter, with a head on each end, on each of which are two distinct eyes, and a mouth with a couple of rows of small teeth. It is a most strange looking creature, a kind of reptile, which was probably swallowed in water, by the child, when it was in embryo or egg form.

The child had been sickly for some time, with apparent symptoms of Summer complaint, but Mrs. Judd, who has been treating the little patient, contended that it was either worms or some complaint of that nature, and after taking a quantity of medicine for that kind of disease, the child was relieved of this strange reptile, and has been getting rapidly better ever since.

Storm Approaching.—We learn from Brother A. M. Musser, superintendent of the Deseret Telegraph, that a storm is in progress in Cache Valley, and also west of this City, and that it is travelling this way from both directions, so that we shall probably be having it hereabout within a few hours.

A Smash.—To-day a half-drunken man, who wanted something to lean against, pressed too heavily upon a pane of glass in the window of Morton and Tufts' saloon, breaking it in pieces; damage $15.

Rehearsal.—Mr. George Careless would like to see the members of the Tabernacle Choir at rehearsal, for the forthcoming concert, at the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms, at 7 o'clock, to-morrow evening.

Our Country Contemporaries.

The Ogden Junction, of Oct. 23, says that a frame house, on Franklin St., in the eighth ward, belonging to William Gilbert, was destroyed by fire on Monday; the building was worth about two thousand dollars, and the fire was believed to have been incendiary.

Ogden Freeman, Oct. 26—

There is a man up in Cache Valley who can honestly say that he never opened another man's letter by mistake. His name is John Pfaffelkaeffingarr.

The first train-load of cattle was shipped from Evanston on Friday, about 200 head, belonging to a Mr. Hunter. A train-load will be shipped every three days until one thousand head have been shipped.

A band of Gypsies came from the east recently and are camped near West Weber. They purpose to Winter at that point, we understand. They have been on the road two years.

Beaver Enterprise, Oct. 21—

On Tuesday evening, Mrs. Swindlehurst, a resident of Beaver, died of a paralytic stroke, from which she had been suffering for some days previously. She was well known and greatly respected by the community in general.

Deputy Sheriff Coombs, on Monday last, made a successful haul at Gandy's ranch, twelve miles from Riverside on Beaver river. He had an execution, issued out of the Third District Court, against the notorious Ben Tasker, and proceeding at once to the ranch, in company with officers Florida and Jones, of Salt Lake, levied upon and took possession of ninety head of horses, which Ben had left there for safe keeping. Sheriff Coombs at once turned the animals over to the other officers, who proceeded with them to Salt Lake.

Of all the humiliated nuisances that ever afflicted a long-suffering community, the United States' mail service in Southern Utah stands forward prominently as one of the greatest. The mud-wagons creep in at irregular intervals, behind sickly looking specimens of beasts that might, by the extremely liberal, be denominated horses, but which are really nothing but slow-moving masses of bones and worn-out hide. It is an outrage upon humanity that such animals are permitted to work at anything, much less the drawing of mail vehicles. To cap the climax, the concern came in a long while after dark last night, and brought no Salt Lake sack; the driver knew nothing of it, and it has probably gone to Pioche. We don't like trying to the nerves.

THIS IS THE MEDICINE OF NATURE

For Destroying and Expelling all Kinds of Worms, Cleansing the Body, Blood, &c.

SYMPTONS OF WORMS.

A few of the most Common Symptoms which indicate the presence of worms—Changeable Appetite, Offensive Breath, Pains in the Stomach and head, Grinding of the Teeth during Sleep, Pale Face with Hollow Sunken Eyes, Itching of the Nose and Fundament, Irregularity of the Bowels, a Short Dry Cough, Loss of Spirits, Feverishness and Disturbed Sleep, Rising in the Throat causing Sickness, &c.

DO NOT LET YOUR CHILD DIE.

Shall the bud of infant bloom
Soon be hurried to the tomb?
Mother, you with watchful eye,
Do not let your darling die.
Mark the dullness of that eye,
All irregularity;
Mark that paleness, white and deep,
And the feverish fitful sleep,
See the stomach, full and hard,
And the Bowels still debarred,
Mark the spirit, even low,
All bespeaking pain and woe.

SAVE IT—SAVE IT!

Why has your darling never smiled,
The Worm is in your precious child,
And gnaws its vital powers away,
Sinks it to death and dire decay.
Hear then the really welcome sound,
Save it! a remedy is found.
PLANT'S never-failing Powder and Syrup
A cure most sure and speedy makes;
Kills the death-worm, and the gloom,
Changes to matchless health and bloom;
It never fails, it never can,
It cures the child, the youth, the man;
It's taken, too, with haste,
Not unpleasant to the taste.
Hundreds who have tried it all attest
It is the cheapest and the best.
Try it—try it—try it—try it—
Every parent now should buy it,
Wait not till another day,
Till every chance has passed away;
Make at once the solemn vow
That you will try it—try it now!
Mother, you with watchful eye,
Do not let your darling die.
