LUCAL DRIL

It is freely predicted by the weatherwise that next month will be a very rough one.

Arthur Pratt, the census supervisor, is still engaged in perfecting his plans for the work in Utah, and when the same are approved at Washington, will announce the deputy enumerators.

The few nights of light frost which have come of late were gladly welcomed by the loe men, and although the amount of loe garnered as a result is comparatively small, it was eagerly taken care of.

A number of Republicans are discussing the plan of electing delegates to the national convention at the State convention to be held here shortly for the purpose of nominating a candidate for elegate to Congress.

There were many tourists taking in the sights yesterday. Groups were in-terestedly viewing the Temple and Tabernacle and the Pioneer monument; and wherever the visitors were seen a camera or kodak was always in evidence.

The funeral of the late Mary Belle was held at the First Congregational church yesterday afternoon, Rev. C. T. Brown officiating. The pall-be were chosen from the clerks at Walker Bros. store, where the deceased had een employed. The interment took place at Mt. Olivet.

Mrs. Henry N. Campe, wife of the well known young assayer, who is with the Union Assay company, died at midnight. It is only a few days since the lady gave birth to a child, and on Saturday the little one was buried. The ther now follows it to the grave. Mrs. Campe was only 19 years of age.

A plan is on foot to give Salt Lake a strong salaried baseball team this year. The promoters think that with Athletic grounds at Saltair and a fine field in the city this summer, a strong team will be a paying proposition. This plan is to be carried out whether intermountain league is established or

Now the claim is made that a number of lady teachers in the public schools complied with the order of the Board of Education requiring vaccination by lizing old scars. It is asserted that they found physicians gallant and unscrupulous enough to certify that they had been vaccinated and that it had taken, which was true enough, even if the scar were ten years old,

San Francisco Examiner : Harriet I. Keller has been granted a divorce from Hermann A. Keller on the ground of desertion. She testified that while in Salt Lake two years ago she had her ankle broken, and that after he went to San Francisco he telegraphed "Good-bye, you'll never see me again." This proved to be true. He went to Port Said, Egypt, and at present is in Jo-hanneaburg. Africa, His income is about $1.000 a month. Mr. and Mrs. were married in Denver, October 22, 1888.

Secretary Williams, of the local civil service commission, will hold examinations here on February 6th and 7th, for the positions of assistant ethnlogical H brarian of the Smithsonian institution. and for record clerk in the United States penitentiary service. The examination for the first named position requires an acquaintance with French German, Italian and Spanish. On Februnry 15th and 16th an examinatio scheduled for assistant and expert in forestry, department of requiring a knowledge of French and German.

Bishop Empey of the Thirteenth ward entertained the officers of the ward and the members of the choir at his home on Saturday evening. During the evening a pleasing program was carried out and delicious refreshments were served, musical selections being rendered during the repast. Miss Lucy Grant, Apostle Grant's daughter, who has gained prominence among local singers, sang several choice selections, and Mrs. A. W. McCune entertained the company with a humorous recitation his way home.

to Chicago. He has been visitin Salt to som Lake and made his home at the Knutsford during his stay here.

A.C.Nelson, superintendent of Sanpete county schools, is a visitor here. M Nelson is a member of the State board of education and is here in the interests of State educational matters.

Hugh D. Bowker of Chicago, who hustles paper orders for his firm in the windy city, is at the Knutsford. Mr. Bowker's visits to Salt Lake in his present business date from 1868.

It has been demonstrated repeatedly gled free. in every State in the Union and in many foreign countries, that Chamber lain's Cough Remedy is a certain preventive and cure for croup. It has be come the universal remedy for that dis-ease. M. V. Fisher of Liberty, W. Va., only repeats what has been said around the globe when he writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for several years and always with perfect success. We believe that i who professed love for the live that it is a sure cure for croup. It has child and yet would see it hewn in two, saved the lives of our children a number was not the mother of the child. The of times."

that when the schools do reopen,

Dr. Turngren Robbed and Brutally Assaulted-May Lose an Eye.

Dr. Daniel Turngren 'was attached and robbed by a couple of thugs just before last midnight. Dr. Turngren is proprietor of the Lion drug store, and was going home from his place of business when the assault took place. It is believed that the robbers saw him leave the store and followed him. They doubtless an-ticipated a big haul. When at a point ust below Sixth South street. is usually quite dark at night, two men jumped at Turngren and proceed ed to go through his pockets. The doc tor resisted the attack as best he could but was struck three vicious blows i the face with the butt of a revolver His face was beaten in a horrible man ner and it is likely he will lose one eye it is so badly cut. There are also two ugly wounds on his forehead. The thugs secured $5 in cash and a gold watch and chain, valued at $150. Dr. Turngren endeavored to make his way home, but he was so dazed that he way none, but he was so careed that he could hardly walk. Some street car men found him and took him to the residence of Dr. Witcher, where the in-jured man was cared for.

Henderson filed his complaint with officer Randolph who hunted up the aleged assailant and took him to jail The young man gave his name as G. Hurst, and swore that he did not "strike" Henderson. He told so many different stories, however, that he was compelled to put up $10 bail.

Having a Great Run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Manager Martin, of the Pierson drug store, informs us that he is having a great run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sells five bottles of that nedicine to one of any other kind, and li gives great satisfaction. In these days of la grippe there is nothing like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to stop he cough, heal up the sore throat and ungs and give relief within a very whort time. The sales are growing, and all who try it are pleased with its prompt action.—South Chicago Daily all. Calumet
