Councilor E. Snow presented a Bill for an act concerning chattel mortg ges. The bill requires that such mortgages shall be duly acknowledged and recorded and shall not be made for more than a period of two years and prohibiting the sale of personal property which has been mortgaged, unless the mort-gages has been notified thereof and given his consent. Referred to judiciary committee and ordered printed.

The committee on judiciary re-ported back the bill for an act to mend section 1444 of the Compiled Laws of Utah, and also one to amend section 2383 of same. Report accepted.

The bill for an act to amend see tion 1444 of the Compiled Laws was then presented and read. This bill is an act to amend the exemption laws so as instead of exempting from execution the entire wages of a debtor for sixty days next pre-ceding the levy to only exempt the sum of $50.

Councilor Snow said the bill was ntended to cover such cases as oc curred at Silver Reef last summer Men who had been working for amounts such as $100 per month, and had had credit from dealers there, instead of paying their bills, quietly pocketed their money and walked off snapping their fingers at garnishments or executions as the exemption laws protected them. He did not want to protect dishonesty or to oppress laborers. Councilor Thurber moved to amend by exempting 75 per cent of uch meney unpaid. Cauncilor Thatcher said this would exempt more than the $50

The amendment was lost.
Councilor Thatcher, moving to amend by inserting after the word "levy," "not exceeding $50," the bill passed its second reading and was referred to the committee on enrolling and engrossing. The bill for an act to amend sec-ion 2883 of the Compiled Laws was then taken up. This was in reference to overcharges of sheriffs in collecting mileage on processes sent to them for service by mail. The bill was read the second time, assed and referred to the committee on enrolling and engrossing.
