Representative Cale from Alaska Tells How He Was Elected-Some Instances of Northern Henesty, Special Correspondence.

Washington, D. C., March 16 .- has frequently been noted by the "old timer" around Washington that the house of representatives has been sadly lacking in recent years in legislative characters.

John Finnerty and "Richlieu" Robinson who twisted the tail of the British lion regularly twice a week twenty odd years ago, have no counterparts today. James Belford, "the red headed rooster of the Rockies," ceased to gesticulate and shout for the opening of the valits of the treasuries consid-erably more than a decade and a half ago. Tim Campbell, who pathetically asked, "What's the Constitution got to do wid a matter betune friends?" has gone to his fathers. "Pansy" Bul-ler, who design d an American flag with a field full of pansies instead of stars, with a staff entwined with a rattlesnake, is selling patents out in lowa. Rowland Mahany, who swung Harvard college for Blaine while the faculty was practically a unit for Cleveland in '84 and who thereby won a post as United States minister in Ecuador, has left his party and is now an assitsant to Attorney General Jack-son in New York. Tabor, of Colorado, who served thirty days, wore $250 night gowns and married his own wife over again to afford a holiday for "society," of the vaults of the treasuries consid-again to afford a holiday for "society," ears ago practically a pauper. Frank Lawler, the Rochester letter car-rier, who won his way to Congress from one of the Chicago districts and is said to have ordered a dozen lobsters for a light lunch, has also passed to his re-ward.

LIVED UP TO PRIVILEGES.

LIVED UP TO PRIVILEGES. Omar Madison Kem, of Nebraska, who came in on the Populist wave, served three terms, lived like a messenger, saved two-thirds of his salary and all of his mileage and stationery allow-ance, is no wilving on a $20,000 ranch in Colorado, paid for out of savings of six years' salary. "Howdy" Martin, of Texas, who blew out the gas in his boarding house be-fore he had been in Congress a week, is said to be occupying a mansion up above where artificial light is un-necessary.

Miles Crowley, who tramped from Boston to Galveston, where he got a job as a stevedore and afterwards be-came chief-of-police, and later a mem-ber of the house, was shoveling coal on a Yukon steamer at last accounts. "Calamity" Weller, the Iowa apostle of pessimism, left no successor when he passed to the great beyond. Singleton, of Illinois, was a "char-acter" because he generally took every-body in the house in tow on the last night of the session and when prop-ently primed he would object strenuous-ly to turning back the clock in order by to turning back the clock in order to lengthen out the day a few minutes Holman, of Indiana, the great "ob-jector." has an understudy in the person of Mann, of Illinois, but the Indianan's fame is still undimmed.

IN CLASS BY HIMSELF.

But while there is a great change the peculiarities of members of the Mopular branch of Congress as a body, the "old timer" has to admit that Tom Cale, of Alaska, is in a class by Tom was born in Vermont ancestry. He began life as a Suffer? If you suffer pain from any cause, Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills will relieve it -and leave no bad aftereffects. That's the impor-tant thing. Neither do they create a habit. More often the attacks become less frequent, or disappear altogether. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills have no other effect except to relieve pain and quiet nerv-

My husband and son, arged 15 were always subject to sick headache until we began using these Pills, and they have broken them up entirely. Don't think they have had to use them for six months. I recommend them to every one. A few weeks ago I heard an old lady friend was sick. I went to see her. She was down with LaGrippe, and nearly crazy with awful backache. I gave her one of the Anti-Pain Pills and left another for her to take in a short time. They helped her right widhout them again. Last winter my husband was taken with pluerisy on both sides, and I know he would have died if it hadn't been for the Pills. In less than half an hour he was sweating, and went to bed and slept." But it often happens that part-ners who share the same blanket for years never learn each other's last names. Bill and Jack. Bob and Sam. sen and myself. He was of Swedish parentage and 1 of Irish extraction. "After we split up on our partner-ship we didn't meet again for years. In the spring of 1906, after I had been nominated for Congress, I journeyed down the Yokon to Nome, thence to Seattle, where I took steamer for Skag-way and from there over the pass to the headwaters of the Yukon, down that stream again to Dawson and then to Circle city. Nelse was freighting from Circle to Birch River and I hadn't seen him for years. When we met you may rest assured we were dee-lighted. "Whatherell are you doing here Nelse?" I inquired, 'I'm electioneering,' he re-plied, 'and why are you in this camp?" 'I am electioneering, too,' I responded, 'but who are you for?" 'Jack Ronan, up on the Birch asked me to do everything to help elect Tom Cale to Congress, and that's why I am here,' was Nelse's reply. 'And who are you for?" he add-ed. "I told him that I also had an inter-reply. 'And who are you for?' he add-ed. "I told him that I also had an inter-est in the election of Tom Cale and that it was in the interest of that statesman that I had just made a circuit of some seven or eight thousand miles. The de-light of my former partner was empha-tic and genuine when he discovered that once more our interests were mu-tual. He seemed so surprised that I asked (knowing well what the answer would be): 'Did you ever meet Tom Cale?' Cale'

" 'I wouldn't know him from a Kodiak bear, but Jack Ronan says he's all right and that's good enough for me,' replied Nelse

"Then I told him that I was Tom Cale and the subsequent proceedings almost exhausted the supply of hootch almost exhausted the supply of hooten and other liquid refreshments. All of which goes to show that it don't make any difference what the last name of your partner may be, so long as he is square and on the level—in Alaska." "When I first came out," continued the grey whiskered pioneer, "I told the boys here of the delight of the citizens of our glarious territory over the fact Real Contest Between French and German Cars in Nebraska-Events at Savannah.

Los Angeles, March 19 .- The route of the New York-to-Paris automobile race has been changed and the competing cars will come through this city. E. L. Thomas, who is here to arrange the details of the finish of the transcontinental part of the round-the-world run, made this announcement today.

Nev., this morning, it is hoped that the American car will reach Dag-gett tomorrow. From Daggett the car will travel to this city over good roads via San Bernardino. All along the way a reception will be given the American driver, who will be given the American driver, who will be met by Mayor A. C. Harper of this city and President Allan Hancock of the Automobile club of South-ern California. The car is expected to reach Los Angeles Saturday morning and after a short rest the driver will set out for San Luis Obispo. The change in route is said to be but the miles longer and will save two hours in time.

EVENTE AT SAVANNAH, Savannah, Ga., March 19.—Perfect weather conditions and a crowd of spec-tators larger than any previous race day, among them the governor of the state, as a special guest of the city, marked the opening of the last day of the auspiciés of the American Automobile association. The event of the day was the 260 miles race for the Savannah challenge trophy, valu-ed at $5,360, in which there were eight starters. The cars were driven by Her-bert Lytle, Louis Strang, F. I. Tone, H. Michener, William McCuil, A. A. Poole, F. W. Leland and M. Newsetter. They were sent away at 10 a. m. in the order named at intervals of ninety seconds and were to make twenty circuits of the eighteen-mile course. McCull's car was overturned on a curve and he was forced to withdraw from the starce. EVENTE AT SAVANNAH.

tcenth Round of Fierce Fight. The fight between Bert Danford of Smithfield and Billy Hamp of Logan last might was a fierce affair. The fighters are old time rivals and Danford has defeated Hamp, but last night the Logan boy got even and gave Danford a severe beating. In the ninteenth round Dan-ford's seconds threw up the sponge in token of defeat. The Logan boy had all the better of the fight from the start and at the end of the strenuous milling he had scarcely a mark on him. The fight was refereed by Prof. W. S. Langton of the Agricultural college.

Nearly every woman would feel better for a Cascaret every day. Women exercise less than men. That's why they need help most.

A woman moved into a new flat with a bath room, and she said to a visitor: "You don't know how anxious I am for Saturday night. I want to take a bath."

That's what some of us do with our bowels.

We get into the habit of periodical cleansing. And we never realize how much better it is to give a little help every day.

That's the reason for Cascarets.

To give you a convenient vest-pocket laxative, the action of which is as natural and gentle as the action of laxative foods.

They are not like the old-time physics—castor oil, salts and cathartics. We took them only when we were forced to. We let matters run until the bowels were clogged, and we were miserable.

Today we keep at our best.

The way is to take one Cascaret just as soon as you know that you need it. The results are as pleasant as the dose. Those who exercise enough, and eat coarse food and plenty of fruit, don't need them. All others do need them. Cascarets do just what Nature does for those who live in a natural way.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure you get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet. The price is 50 cents, 25 cents and

Then in '97 he joined the throng which swarmed into the Klondike region. At Dawson he picked up a partner whose name was Nelse. That is, his first name was Nelse. Tom never inquired the last name of his "pard." Such an inquiry waan't always ethical in the upper Yukon region ten years ago. They know each other as "Tom" and "Nelse" for three long years. Their luck was poor and at last they separated. Tom tried a hundred different prospects but Fortune declined to yield her charms to his persistency. But he kept on trying. of our glorious territory over the fact that the right of franchise had been ex-tended at last to the Seward purchase. I incidentally referred to a Swedish American who walked 60 mies into the Fox river precinct and when he reached the poiling place said 'Ai tank ai vant a Cale and Vaskey dicket,' and then, after having cast his ballot, pulled out his 'poke' full of gold dust and, opening it, inquired 'Ow mooch ai owe?' "Now let me give you another exam-ple of the innate honesty of the Alas-kan: Last September, after a visit to my home in Fairbanks, I came down the Yukon to Nome, to take steamer to Seattle and to travel thence to Wis-consin, where my family still reside. The steamers carrying passengers and freight between Seattle and Nome are compelled to anchor several miles off shore at Nome and freight and passen-gers are transferred by lighters and launches. It was a cold, raw day when I got there, and I had no overcoat han-day out to the steamer I took out a plug of tobacco and bit off a chew. Inadvertently I dropped the plug into Seim's overcoat pocket and forgot all about it, until about two weeks ago. I sent the overcoat back to the launch and a few days later Seim found it. He couldn't rest until he had returned that plug and he traveled 7,600 miles to bring it to me, and here it is," added the booster of Alaskan honesty, as he heid up a tooth-marked plug of "navy," and turning his face to the man be-hind the mahogany counter he said: "Til take a little Sheboygan on the side."
