Bar-room Murder.

CHICAGO, 27.—The Times says: Two men quarreled in a groggery last night over political matters. One wanted to bet the drinks that three-fourths of the crowd present were in favor of Garfield. Hancock's adherent consented, and taking up the ballots announced that they stood 11 for Hancock and two for Garfield. The other man said the count was fraudulent, and going behind the returns made the result in favor of Garfield. Knock-downs followed and in the melee Hancock lost a vote, his supporter, Henry Pohl, falling dead with a long knife in his side. Three men were arrested.

Immigration Statistics.

The Inter-Ocean's Washington special says: The Secretary of the Treasury has, in reply to an inquiry, given the following information prepared by the Bureau of Statistics in regard to immigration: At parts of the various sections of the country during ten years from June 30, 1870, arrived at the Atlantic ports north of Cape Henry, Va., 2,131,432; at Atlantic ports south of Cape Henry, 2,562; Gulf ports, 47,239; Lake ports, 485,025; Pacific ports, 145,719. Total 2,812,177. The total arrivals of immigrants at Southern ports amounted to 49,501, and constituted 1¾ per cent. of the total immigration.

A Complaint Against our Minister.

The Times' Washington special says: Celsor Cæsar Moreno, late Prime Minister to King Kalakaua, has arrived and has appeared in one of the Sunday newspapers in a paid advertisement. He insists upon Minister Comly's immediate recall. He says if the government does not call Comly home, he has still influence enough with Kalakaua to have the King request Comly's retirement. Ex-Minister Moreno attributes all the trouble in the Sandwich Islands to the presence of missionaries. These men play Sunday and trade on week days. According to the distinguished friend of the King the missionaries take everything they can lay their hands on.

Killed by Burglars.

The decayed body of H. H. Conant was found in the woods surrounding his house, at Cicero, a suburb, Saturday evening. Conant lived a secluded life, and his neighbors, who found the body, had just missed him. As the house was in some disorder, it is supposed he was killed by burglars.

Second Class Matter.

WASHINGTON, 27.—The following statement obtained from the Third Assistant Postmaster General Hazen's forthcoming annual report, shows the amount of second class mail matter, newspapers and periodicals transported in the mails and the revenue derived therefrom during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1880. The weight in tons during 1880, 30,661, increase over, 5,098 tons. The postage collected in 1880, $12,265,452; increase over 1879, 122,267.

The Hill Seduction Dismissed.

The case of Jessie Raymond against Senator Ben Hill in which the plaintiff claimed $10,000 damages for alleged seduction, was dismissed to-day under the rules of the Supreme Court for failure to print and record. Chief Justice Carter in dismissing the case, said to Miss Lockwood, plaintiff's counsel, "the suit never ought to have been brought, since the alleged offense was no cause of action here."

Surveyors Convention in Salt Lake.

Gen. Williamson, Commissioner of the General Land Office, has called a convention of the Surveyors General of all the western States and Territories, to meet in Salt Lake City, Utah, on the 5th of October next. The object of the meeting is to discuss the present method of making surveys, with a view to instituting certain reforms tending to better and more permanent work under the present laws.

Foreign Wheat.

The United States Consul at Byrons, France, informs the Department of State that the cereal crop of France this year will amount to 102,000,000 hectolines, average yield. Nevertheless there will be a large demand for American wheat. In Germany the cereal crop is mediocre, and the one in Russia somewhat of a failure.

Baltimore's Settlement.

The Cabinet has been invited to attend the forthcoming celebration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the settlement of Baltimore. The vessels of the navy, which are to assemble at Hampton Roads for annual review, will be ordered to Baltimore to aid in the celebration.

Irish Republicans.

SARATOGA, 27.—The Irish American Republican Convention met today. John L. Henning was made temporary chairman. Various committees were appointed. Recess.

In the afternoon, a permanent organization was effected. The platform of principles endorses the platform of the National Republican Convention, promulgated at Chicago in June last. The members of the State committee were instructed to enroll Irish American republican voters in their respective assembly districts. Speeches were then made and the convention adjourned.

The platform contains this passage: The republican party in the foreign protection of American industry is entitled to the gratitude and earnest support of every Irish-American in the land, as no people have a greater aversion to the evils which the democratic doctrine of free trade, if once adopted, would bring upon themselves and their families. In this connection the Irish-American citizens without regard to party, are earnestly implored to consider calmly and carefully this vital question, remembering that at the present hour agents of England are traveling throughout the western States circulating specially written documents and expending British gold in their desperate efforts to secure the election of a democratic President pledged to enforce tariff for revenue only and which, if accomplished, will enable the party to flood our marts with products of pauper labor, and will compel American workingmen to engage in competition with the ill-fed and poorly-clad laborers of Europe.

The London Railroads and Oil Owners.

BAYONNE CITY, N. J., 27.—On Saturday night the Standard Oil Company's pipes were laid as far as Newark, when the scene of operations was changed to the Pennsylvania railroad bridge crossing the Hackensack River. The Pennsylvania Railroad company finding the object of the Standard Company was to connect their Communipaw works by pipes with the Erie railroad, refused to permit the pipes to be laid across their bridge. Fearing the bridge would be captured like the Central Railroad bridge at Centreville, the approaches to the bridge have been supplied and the Pennsylvania railroad tug boats are out protecting the bridge by plying streams of water on the Standard Oil Company pipemen. At Avenue C, in this city, the pipes that cross the tracks of the Dummy railroad are unused but owned by the Pennsylvania Railroad. The Standard Company's police are guarding the crossing to-day, fearing the pipes will be torn up by the Pennsylvania Company.

Henry Cadmus, of Centreville, who was shot by belligerent pipemen on Wednesday morning, has commenced suit against the city and Standard Oil Company.

Shipping Men and Hancock.

NEW YORK, 27.—A delegation of 50 gentlemen connected with the shipping interests of this city went to Governor's Island this morning to wait on General Hancock in order to present an address and offer co-operation and support during the coming campaign. In reply, Gen. Hancock said: "I am very highly honored by being waited upon to-day by representatives of the various branches of the shipping interests. I am very glad to receive the address which you now present me. I am much pleased with your visit, if it only be that it has shown me the details of the organization that I was not previously familiar with. I was fearful yesterday that I would not be able to meet this delegation today in consequence of indisposition. I am very glad that I have been able to meet you." The General then was introduced to the gentlemen comprising the delegation.

Report from an anti-Hancock General.

The friends of Hancock have sought to spread the impression that Gen. Webb favored the democratic candidate and that his silence in the canvas should be so construed. He now breaks that silence to say, that while he respects Hancock as a soldier, he does not think that he is fitted for the presidency, and he also lays bare the democratic claim that Hancock deserves the credit for the victory of Gettysburg; but his chief objection to Hancock is that he is a straw candidate of the solid south, which hopes, with the aid of a puppet President and an enlarged Supreme Court to gain more than it lost by the war and to reimburse itself for the cost of the rebellion out of the treasury.

Nihilist Scheme.

A London dispatch says: A dispatch from Glasgow announces that a plot of the Nihilists to blow up the Czar's new yacht Livalia, which was preparing for sea at Glasgow, has just been discovered. The first hint of the plot came from the authorities at St. Petersburg and afterward from the Swiss police. The information was to the effect that the Nihilists had sent members of their order to Glasgow for that purpose, and that three persons had left London a few days ago with two nitro-glycerine clocks, intended to be hidden among the coal. Measures were promptly taken to frustrate the scheme. Constables were stationed on the yacht, and the hotels at Glasgow were watched. All the lodging houses were searched last night.

Murder in a Bagnio.

ST. LOUIS, 27.—The Republican's Vincennes, Ind., special says: Ed. Hogan, an employe of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, went into the bagnio of Jennie Roberts last night and found Douglass Williams sitting in the lap of Kate Adams, one of the inmates of the house. Without uttering a word he approached Williams, dealt him a terrible blow on the head with a large hickory stick, inflicting injuries from which Williams died this morning. Hogan fled and is not yet captured. Williams is a nephew of Hogan's. The brutal and unprovoked murder has caused intense excitement throughout the country, and should Hogan fall into the hands of the people, he will be lynched. Kate Adams is said to be Hogan's girl.

Congratulating Solon Chase.

PORTLAND, Me., 27.—The following dispatch was received by Solon Chase, from General Weaver, the greenback candidate for the Presidency, dated Mount Pleasant, West Virginia, Sept. 23d: "I congratulate you upon your straightforward courage in Maine. The greenbackers of the United States will stand by you.

(Signed) J. B. WEAVER.

Denis Kearney also sends him a congratulatory dispatch, saying that "the victory by the fusionists is a defeat and asking what is the matter with Murch; has the victory turned his head.

Work Resumed.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., 27.—Work at the tunnel was resumed this morning with an extra gang of men. They commenced cutting away the iron plates of the tunnel which prevented the lowering of the caisson. By six this evening that was accomplished and the caisson was lowered 12 feet, when eight bodies were discovered and shortly taken out of the caisson and from there to the morgue. Of the eight, four were identified as the remains of B. Sheridan, Jas. Creavey, Thomas Burns and Michael Broderick. It was impossible to identify the remainder.

Arrested for Embezzlement.

NEW ORLEANS, 27.—James Oliver Wright, cashier, and the late civil sheriff, Gauthreaux, were arrested, charged with the embezzlement of $88,000, in transfer claims due the city and valued at $83,000, also had to answer the charge of having connived in the embezzlement of $24,500, converted by the late civil sheriff, Gauthreaux, to his own use.

Repudiation Defeated.

LITTLE ROCK, 27.—The repudiation amendment is defeated by a direct vote of about 1,500 majority and by a failure to receive a majority of the votes cast, by about 1,000 majority. The total votes cast in the State is about 140,000.

FOREIGN NEWS.

THE PORTE'S OBSTINACY.

No Demonstration Yet, but a Conflict Almost Inevitable.

LONDON, 27.—The naval demonstration hangs fire, and Europe is anxiously watching every movement of the parties struggling over the cession of a wretched Adriatic village, but every one knows it is not the intrinsic value of Dulcigno that has brought the power of united Europe to bear in the matter. What is now happening at Dulcigno is but a sample of what will take place on a larger scale on the frontiers of Greece, an I what may involve the most sanguinary continental war since Waterloo, should the rebellious element stirred up by the Turks to thwart the will of Europe finally break loose from the Sultan's feeble control and spread anarchy and massacre through his dissolving empire, from Scutari to Bagdad. There is not a tribe that is not ready to throw off its allegiance to the Padishah, and the revolt of almost any one of them would cause a disturbance which would vibrate through every nation in Europe. The result of the Dulcigno struggle regulates directly the fate of Janina. Should the Northern Albanians be compelled to yield, probably Greece may obtain peaceful possession of the slice of territory awarded her. If, on the contrary, both Dulcigno and Janina have to be arrested by force, then it is a measurable distance to the time when the two great Slavic powers, Russia and Austria, must move their armies down to settle definitely the future of the Balkan Peninsula.

The Prince of Montenegro in an interview with Admiral Seymour expressed the strongest conviction that his troops could take Dulcigno unaided. The answer of Riza Pasha to Admiral Seymour's ultimatum was most emphatic. The Pasha said his orders were to protect the integrity of the Ottoman territory. He would fire on any force, Montenegro or otherwise. Admiral Seymour informed Prince Nikita of Montenegro that he had a telegram from the British Ambassador at Constantinople saying the affair was now in the hands of the British Admiral and the Prince of Montenegro. At a second conference Prince Nikita assured Admiral Seymour that his troops were ready to march to Dulcigno immediately. It has been arranged that no shot will be fired from the fleet near the town of Dulcigno, but the fire will be opened on Masara and other fortified positions. The Montenegrins have six guns. Signals have been arranged between Admiral Seymour and the Montenegrin divisional commander. Riza Pasha has a well equipped battery of horse artillery. The delay in the departure of the fleet is conjectured to be caused by Prince Nikita who is either unprepared to push things to extremities or has had a pressure put upon him by Russia.

The second note of the Porte to its representatives was issued on the 22nd, which finally refuses to order the surrender of Dulcigno unless the naval demonstration is abandoned. Diplomatic circles consider the Sultan thereby abandons the pretext of resistance by the Albanians, and is determined to oppose the surrender in his own name. It is asserted that the Sultan was led to this change in his attitude by learning the Powers had arranged that after the settlement of the Dulcigno question the ships shall proceed to Volo to coerce the settlement of the Greek question.

The American corvett Nipsic is expected here to support the demand for the trial of the assassins of the American missionary, Dr. Parsons.

Yesterday the Prince of Montenegro received official information that an advance to Dulcigno would be regarded as a declaration of war. He has consequently telegraphed Admiral Seymour that he is not prepared without aid to land the troops of the Powers to attack the Albanians, reinforced as they are by the Turkish regulars and artillery. This step o the Porte must be regarded as a declaration of war against Europe.

The ships which sailed to reconnoitre the Albanian coast have returned to Ragusa. The Albanians are flocking to Dulcigno. The Montenegrins will postpone hostilities until Turkish troops are withdrawn. The Montenegrins are ready to engage the Albanians, but do not wish to fight the Turkish regulars. The departure of the international squadron is said to be suspended in consequence of fresh negotiations started by Montenegro.

The last note of the Porte, refusing to surrender Dulcigno unless the naval demonstration is abandoned, was in great part the Sultan's own composition. It required as a condition for the surrender of Dulcigno not only that the demonstration be abandoned, but that no demonstration shall be employed in connection with the Greek frontier on any other question, and that no other concession in the future shall be demanded for Montenegro.

Count Von Hatzfeld, German ambassador, had a four hours' interview with the Sultan, and vainly tried to persuade him to consent to the peaceful surrender of Dulcigno. The Sultan replied in terms similar to those of the Porte's last note, refusing to surrender unless the naval demonstration was abandoned. Count Von Hatzfeld has invited the diplomatic body to meet to discuss the situation occasioned by the above interview.

The spirit of reckless defiance is becoming more and more intense at the Palace. For several days past the Sultan has refused to listen to any objections, aided by his ministers, to the policy which he has adopted, and has issued an order that any official who shall be heard expressing contrary opinions will be dismissed and exiled. Never before since the time of Mohammed the Terrible has such an order been issued.
