Tilden's Business Talent.

The truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth in regard to Mr. Tilden's connection with bankrupt western railroads, was told by Mr. Hewitt in his brilliant reply to Mr. Kasson, and here it is: .

"Governor Tilden was called rom 1857 to 1860 into almost every broken down railway corporation in the West; while he found them unable even to pay running expen-ses, he took them in hand and so administered them that in every case the bonds, whether first, ultimately went above par; and he enriched the people that were wise enough and fortunate enough to have secured his services. I am personally among the numbers of personally among the numbers of Sale of the Emma Mine. those who were benefitted by his Returned Missionaries. wise and sagacious management; Wholesak Cattle Robbery. and I say, so far from having been The Ontario Mine, Parley's Park. overpaid in any of these transactions, that his legal fees and his ersonal services were the cheapest and most poorly rewarded I have ever known in a long business career, dealing in large transactions in all parts of this country and in Every word of this passage can e corroborated, if need be, by the testimony of men of the same character as Mr. Hewitt. Among the many concerns which Mr. Tilden thus rescued from ruin are the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad Company, the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad Company, and the Chicago & Alton Railroad Company, all three now, even in these times of depression of railroad property, first class dividend-paying corporations, whose stock is a favorite investment with capitalists. Where he received a dollar for his services to these companies, their shareholders gained hun dreds, and not one of them has ever expressed or felt any sentiments toward him but those to which Mr. Hewitt has given utterance. - New
