

TOO MUCH LIQUOR FINNEY'S UNDOING

While Drunk He Picked Up Big Bank Roll and Lived in Gay Abandon.

GATHERED IN BY DETECTIVES

Out of $5,500 Taken from Hotel Lavatory, He Had $3,000 Left and Was Glad to Be Rid of It.

The truth of the adage that "A fool and his money are soon parted," was responsible yesterday for the recovery by H. E. Klammer of $3,000, all that was left of the original package of $5,500, which he lost in the Wilson hotel lavatory last Sunday morning, and also for the downfall of W. M. Finney, erst-while bartender and sometime gambler.

When Mr. Klammer had just about given up all hope of the return of the money which he had thoughtlessly left lying behind him in the lavatory, Finney was taken into custody, and when searched, $3,000 of greenbacks of the smaller denominations was found scattered through his pockets, and it was learned that he had deposited the $5,000 bill in the Deseret National bank. Although under the influence of intoxicants at the time of his arrest, Finney not only realized the situation, but seemed relieved, admitting that he had found the money, had spent part of it and betrayed the haunting conscience in the words "Take the stuff, I'm glad to get rid of it."

Finney's free spending of money during the past week, after he had been practically penniless and living at the expense of friends for two months past, directed suspicion against him.

During the past week he has been on a protracted spree, spending money lavishly and playing the part of a squanderer. Up to last Sunday he had been in the parlance of his profession, "dead broke," and it was a surprise to his pals and friends, as well as the police who knew him, when he began his money-spending. When asked where he had secured the money he was spending so freely he evaded the question, laughing it off with the remark, "Oh, I've got a lady friend."

Under the direction of Chief of Detectives George Sheets, Finney for the past few days has been shadowed by Detectives Schultze and Janney, and

This is one of the pleasures of life. Another cup of HENRIETTA'S GOOD TEA.

Patrolman Harry Curran. After being convinced that Finney must have been the finder of the $5,500 package, Chief Sheets yesterday directed that he be taken into custody and he was taken to the station by Detective Schultze shortly after 5 o'clock.

He admitted that he had found the money and had spent part of it, but in an extenuating way said that he had known what he had been doing because he had been drunk all the time.

Finney is a man about 52 years of age, of Irish birth, and has been employed as a bartender at the Wilson hotel bar and the Occidental saloon.

DISTRICT COURT NOTES.

A. Lecken & Sons company filed suit in the Third district court yesterday against the Continental Mining company to recover $7,363.42 on material which was furnished the defendants in three consignments.

A. Hauer and Howard Larson instituted suit yesterday in the Third district court against the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railway company to recover $1,655.60. It is alleged in the complaint that the railroad company mistreated a shipment of 3,697 head of sheep which caused a shrinkage in flesh and that they were unable to sell them at the market price. The sheep were loaded at Pueblo, Colorado, and shipped to Omaha, Nebraska.

The John J. Duly company brought suit against M. J. Murray to quiet title to property yesterday in the Third district court. The property involved is described as part of lot 6, block 54, plat 1.

E. D. Hashimoto filed suit against K. Takatsuka to recover $650. The action is brought on a promissory note which was executed on Jan. 11, 1908, in favor of H. H. Nishiyama and became due one month after date.

DIVORCE COLONY RECRUITS.

Mrs. May M. Brown seeks a divorce from Joseph Brown on the charge of desertion yesterday in the Third district court. They were married on Aug. 21, 1907. It is alleged that Brown deserted her within a year after their marriage and that since that time she has supported herself. She asks for no alimony, and there are no children as an issue of the marriage.

Samuel Eastops asks for a divorce from his wife, Mrs. Martha Della Eastops in a complaint filed yesterday in the Third district court. They were married on Jan. 27, 1908. Three days later she deserted him, it is alleged, and that he knows nothing of her whereabouts.

N. J. Torkelsen declares in a complaint for divorce filed yesterday in the Third district court against Caroline C. Torkelsen that he has been treated in an abusive way which has caused him great mental distress. She has accused him on several occasions of murdering her for her money and told him that he was dishonest and immoral.

Torkelsen says that he has conducted himself properly toward his wife and asks for a divorce. They were married in Ogden on March 24, 1908, and have no children.

WISE ONES WIN IN COURT.

After hearing the evidence in the case, which consumed three days, Judge Morse decided yesterday afternoon that the stockholders of the Royal laundry, who were working for the company, had a legal right to raise their own salaries. When he gave this decision he dismissed the case of William H. Kilpatrick, Ray Van Cott, and Harold Van Cott, against Albert Van Cott, Charles H. Miller, William H. Linnell, Caleb W. Chapman, William Lake, S. E. Chapman, John T. Smith, David Gal-Williams and the Royal laundry.

It was charged in the complaint by the non-working stockholders that the defendants, who were stockholders and were employed by the company, had held a meeting without authority and increased their own salaries $10 a week all around.

Two-Thirds of the City Taxes For Payment of Political Debts.

With two-thirds of the general taxes already paid out for salaries, the "American" party intends to increase the wages in all the departments again before election. In this year's budget, the salaries amount to the enormous sum of $452,599.55, while the tax levy on the estimated value of $50,000,000 amounts to $654,999.95. This leaves a balance of $202,400.40 on which to conduct the city's improvements. Of this amount $125,000 is set aside as a sinking fund and the balance to be distributed in the regular funds of $77,400.40.

The administration depends entirely on the estimated licenses and departmental receipts to carry out the improvements. The financiers figured out this year that the city will receive $388,083.53 this year from these resources.

On this bare-faced gamble the administration is steadily increasing salaries on what the city expects to receive. Two weeks ago, the clerk of the board of public works, the land and water commissioner, the seal of weights and measures, the plumbing inspector, the policemen and the firemen asked for an increase which in the aggregate amounts to $3,100 a month. Last week the janitors asked for a raise from $40 to $70 a month and then the teamsters wanted a raise of 50 cents a day, making their wages $5 for eight hours' work. Other lists are being prepared to be submitted in the future.

Before this three or four other batches petitioned for a raise in salary and received it. Among them were Jake Raleigh, street supervisor, and Thomas Hobday, superintendent of waterworks, and a number of others. On account of the enormous payrolls, the improvement funds are always short, and the improvements that are actually needed cannot be undertaken.

Of the entire amount paid out in wages, only $109,000 approximately represents labor of men and teams from which the taxpayer receives actual benefit and the city is enriched. The remainder is paid to the political appointments and officeholders.

At the rate the city is going, the salaries will soon equal half of the city's income. This is to the advantage of the administration, however. As the election draws near, the officeholders and the laborers as well will be asked for contributions ranging all the way from 15 to 33 1/3 per cent of one month's salary for the campaign fund.

Roudolph Alff Develops Into A Regular Financier—Gymnast.

City Auditor Roudolph Alff, plump, rosy and smiling, took the last hitch in his administration suspensives yesterday and closed up the financial gap between the city's "pant" and "vest." His annual report—now four months late—shows a balance on the right side of the ledger. It has been accepted by the "American" party and is now ready for the printer. Someday, perhaps, the dear public will be permitted to figure out how much the city's got and how much it hasn't got.

Before Auditor Alff finally closed up his report, following out the complicated system of book keeping installed by the special auditors at the cost of $20,000 to the taxpayers, he almost ran short of excuses. When asked for the one hundred and twentieth time how long before his report of the city financial affairs would be made public, he smiled a knowing smile.

"It's ready now, but wait," he said. "But you promised it a week ago for sure," replied his interviewer. "Well, what do you want in one day. Look at the weather, the sun shines, the grass is green, the birds sing, the trees look fine and the country's safe."

TROUBLE CAME FAST.

He vows this is his last excuse and that the entire matter is now up to the school, for immorality, was made a ward of the juvenile court yesterday. The mother has been adjudged unfit to have the custody of the girl and the latter will be kept on probation until a home can be found for her.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

Next Monday, May 10, all the students will vote on the question, "Shall the board of regents require each student at the time of registration, to pay a fee of $5 for student activities?" The action was decided upon to make it clear to the board that the students really want it before it is enacted by them.

The R. P. D. club will give its annual dance at the university tonight, when a good time is anticipated. Punch will be served during the evening.

President Kingsbury will entertain the graduates and members of the faculty in the assembly room this evening, when dancing will be indulged in and music will be the feature.

President C. E. Marks of the alumni association has selected his committee of arrangements for the annual reunion of the association June 2. Invitations have been sent out and a large attendance is expected.

The debate between the Utah university and the Colorado college on the question, "Resolved, That tariff shall be imposed for revenue only," has been set for May 19. The negative side of the question will be championed by Carlsson, Hartley and Anderson of the Utah university; the affirmative being represented by Calhoun, Rose and Coit, of the Colorado college.

The newest and rarest acquisition to the university museum will be on exhibition in a few days. This new relic is a gift of Mrs. David Keith and came in form of a beautiful Pompeian vase. It was in a very deplorable condition when it reached the university, and several days' work has been spent in patching it together. It stands three feet in height and is eighteen inches in diameter at the widest portion. It is decorated with the celebrated ancient Greek brown figure work. Such pieces have become very rare, very few of this size can be procured anywhere.

On the first of May the girls' gymnasium classes will hold an open afternoon, of exhibition of their work. A number of national and classic dances will be given together with a display of the exercises that cover the work in the various courses.

FUNERAL AT SUGAR HOUSE.

Funeral services over the remains of Thomas Simons, the 5-year-old child of Thomas H. Simons and Mina Williams Simons, were held in the chapel of the S. M. Taylor & Co. undertaking parlors, under the direction of Bishop Jno. M. Whitaker of Sugar House ward, at 12 noon yesterday. Music was furnished by Earl McGhie, Alice Wheeler and Ida W. Taylor of the Sugar House choir.

The opening prayer was offered by the deceased's grandfather, Elder Thomas Simons, and the benediction by Elder M. E. Pack. The speakers were Bishop J. M. Whitaker and M. E. Pack, who offered comforting and instructive remarks to the family and friends assembled. Interment at the city cemetery, the grave was dedicated by Thos. Simons.

FUNERAL OF J. H. WOODBURY.

The funeral of J. Howard Woodbury, whose death occurred at St. Mark's hospital on Sunday morning, was held in the Granger ward meetinghouse Thursday at 2 p. m., under the direction of Bishop Daniel McRae. The speakers were L. Hemenway, Chas. J. Lambert, F. B. Eldredge, H. J. Walk, Patriarch Harrison Sperry, Elder Johnson and Bishop McRae. They testified to the uprightness and integrity of the deceased, and to his worth as a neighbor and citizen, as well as husband and father, and spoke words of comfort and consolation to the bereaved. The opening and closing prayers were offered by Elders Richard Wilcken and Alexander Hurt. Appropriate music was furnished by the ward choir. About 40 vehicles followed the remains to the Taylorville cemetery, where interment took place, the grave being dedicated by Patriarch Harrison Sperry.

To Clean Your Kitchen Floors

You don't have to scour and scrape and polish—add a heaping tablespoonful of Gold Dust to a pail of hot water. It will make your floors milky white, and save your strength.

Gold Dust cuts grease and dirt, and asks so little ad from you that it's really a pleasure to keep your home dirtless and dainty.

It searches out dirt, germs and impurities in every crack and cranny, cleanses and purifies wherever and whatever it touches—and injures nothing.

An ounce of Gold Dust is worth a pound of elbow grease.

How Old Do You Feel?

It's all a matter of keeping the bodily tissues in good condition. You have the same chance as others to feel perennially young and to enjoy a long, happy, contented life, if you will live rationally and avoid sickness. The air is filled with countless germs, ready to pounce upon a body that is in a condition to receive them. The healthy body throws them off and renders them harmless. There is no better medicine to keep the system in proper condition than

BEECHAM'S PILLS

They begin by cleansing out the poisons that accumulate through a congested stomach or sluggish liver. They act upon the blood and purify it. They energize the nerves and through them, tone up every muscle. They strengthen each cell and make it immune against the germs from without. They prevent disease by making the body strong enough to repel it. For three generations they have been an infallible family remedy, ever at hand, pleasant and efficacious. Take them regularly to guard against constipation and they
