little Chinese children, to 13 years old, appeared in the Liberty Park and First Methodist churches yesterday under the direction of Miss Carrie Davis of the Chinese home in San Francisco. They created a profound impression, particularly when one of them, a girl, played the big organ in the First church. The children recited and sang in English, as well as giving the Chinese national hymn. The singing of "America" by the little visitors and the congregation was a most inspiring incongregation was a most inspiring in-cident of the occasion, the singing being conducted by one of the little

SERVICES AT TABERNACLE.

Interesting Discourse by Elder Orson F. Whitney on First Principles Of Salvation.

Weish Cefebrate Tonight—At this evening's St. David's Day relativation in the Odron Postmaster A. L. Thomas will be the speaker. There will be an elaborate numbeal program, an old fashioned Weish tea party, and a pleas of the gospel. He read the follow-The speaker at yesterday's tabernacle service was Elder Orson F, Whitney of the council of the apostics, who dising verses from the second chapter of the acts of the apostles: "Now when Walker of the state fish hatchery showed 150 Murray citizens over the harchery yesterday afternoon. Fish varying from half an inch to 11 inches long were shown to the satisfaction ren, what shall we do? Then Peter said unto them, repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is unto you and to your children and to all that are afar off, even, as many as the Lord thy God shall call." Following is a short synopsis of Elder Whitney's remarks:

These words form the concluding portion of the features. men d

tion of the first gospel sermon preached in the meridian of time, after the cruci-fixion of the Messiah. The commandtion of the Messiah. The command-ent of the risen Redeemer was that in gospel should be preached in all its world, and it was said by the great nouncinter that all who believed could be saved, and those who did it believe should be danned.

It might be presumed that the gos ondemnation, yet the message is in-inded for the salvation and redemp-on of the human family. The most sportant man, in the world at any given time is he who can best answer the question. "What must I do to be saved?" At the time that Peter proclaimed the quoted words, he and his coteris were the only ones able to give groper answer to the momentuous ques-lon, abeit the world was full of poets, miniers, philosophers and scientists. What benefit was there in the accomwas starving for soul salvation e plainness and simplicity of the gos-of Christ is the very essence of its inity. It must needs be simple and idlike, for it was intended to save

When John the Baptist heard of the miracles of Jesus he sent two of his disciples to ask if He were the promised Messiah, and they returned with the simple answer: "Tell John that the gospel is preached to the poor." The Savior did not limit the gospel to the poor, but He did intend that the John to understand that the gospel He preached was for all men, rich and

There are reasons underlying the fundamental principles of the gospel as to why men should repent of their sins, be buptized for remission of sine and receive the Holy Ghost. The first and receive the Holy Ghost. The first requisite is that men have faith in God. Aithough the sinner may repent, his sins will cling to him until they are washed away by baptism. Not that the water of itself can cleanse from sin, but obedience to the commandment does bring the remission of sin. The great-est blessing promised by the Savior was the gift of the Holy Ghost. How to ob-tain eternal life is the greatest thing-that God can bestow upon His children. It is not sufficient that man should be good, honest and char-itable. These things are all right so far as they go, but they do not go far enough. There is much that man can not do for himself, that God has done for him. From his good works alone dience to the commandment does m. From his good works alone cannot enter the kingdom of a. The proper attitude of man he comes before God is not to extol his own virtues, but to ask, "Fa-ther, what shall I do to be saved?" Mormonism claims that the gospet as been brought to earth again. For oph Smith we claim that he was ction, because he could best answe emtion, because he could best answer the question, "How can we approach our Heavenly Father?" Joseph Smith brought back a correct understanding of the personality of God, of the idea of parent and child. The Scriptures give a true conception of the personality of God, but the world had departed from it. Men had come to look upon Deity as impersonal. Joseph Smith declared that he saw the Father and the Son and that God spoke r and the Son and that God spoke re of a man. re of a man.

Another great dectrine brought back carth was the salvation of the gosdi. It is not a gospel of damnation ordenmation comes only from a rection of the gospel. Mormonism aches that man had a pre-existence that his spirit lived in the eternal oriel before coming here. There was the one way of man's spirit gaining a thermatic, and that was through the of Adam. To balance the scale sernsele, and that was through the lof Adam. To balance the scale d take way the deth that came by am and Eve, came One who was under the ban of death, namely us Christ, the First Begotten of Eternal Fisther. Man fell into a when he came into this world, and riend came to the top of the pit and down a ladder, with the injunction, limb, and you can save yourself." lamnation, and this is Mormon-idea of the gospel of the Son of ft teaches that in the Pather's

Was it not time that God should in the different degrees of glory will be found for all, even those were under condemnation.
