Examination of Passananti.

Examination of Passananti. ROME,20.—Passananti, the would-be assassin of King Humbert, man-ifested the most perfect unconcern and brutal self-assurance at his pre-liminary examination. When the magistrate expressed horror at the deed, the prisoner said, "It seems to me you are getting too excited." On being asked if he had not ob-served that fhe people would have torn to pieces but for tge police, he replied, "The people are fools, they always act that way." To the question whether he had intended to kill the king or merely wound him, he answered: "My in-
