Judge O, W. Powers had received carte blanche from Hon. Thomas Kearns to treat the visitors to a substantial break-fast and to take care of their transportation up town. Accordingly the judge had five street cars ready, and as soon as the visitors were seated the proces-sion started for East Temple street to the strains of "Under Fire." It had been the judge's intention to breakfas the visitors at the Vienna, but it was found that that restaurant had been taxed beyond its capacity, and an overflow breakfast was given at Beardsley's Tavern. The tavern contingent, while waiting for their breakfast, which was tot served so promptly as at the Vien

The train which brought in Wyoming delegation made remarkably good time, beating the regular schedule time by something like two hours. It consisted of three Pullman sleepers, a chair car, an ordinary day couch and a ommissary car, and they say that con missary car was a regular magazine of good cheer. Superintendent Park, of the Wyoming division of the Union Pacific, had his special car attached and companied the delegation into Sait

day, January 21, 10 a. m.

Skagway, Jan. 8, via Seattle, Wash., Skigway, Juli, 5, via Schlie, wash, Jan, 14.—Dawson's annual fire occurred on the morning of Jan, 7, three large buildings being burned to the ground with a loss of $50,000. The origin of the fire is unknown. It was discovered in Cribbs & Rogers' drug store on Front criphes & Rogers arug store on Front street and spread rapidly before the de-partment could arrive. The flames caught in the wall of the West building and the Rainier building, on the oppo-site side and it looked for a time as if the town was doomed. The upper floors of the buildings were occupied by law offices, dressmaking establishments and apartments. Tenants saved little of their belongings.
