RIVERSIDE MADE A HIT.

Riverside is a popular town with the excursionists. It is in the center the money-making district of the money-making district of the southwest, so far as agriculture and fruit growing are concerned. The mountains that enclose the immense valley are rarely beautiful in that there is an absence of side slopes, the cliffs sceming to rise at a single angle from the valley to the summits, which are over 4,000 feet high, for there are orange trees from which you may be allowed the privilege of ploking the fruit, and flowers in such abundance that the country seems a sort of paradise. With the. country seems a sort of paradise. With this, the warm "northers" blow in from the descret, making a climate that is surprising in its mildness.

STOPPED AT POMONA.

The train of excursionists stopped two hours on route to Riverside at P mona, where they inspected the exte mona, where they inspected the exten-sive orange and lemon groves, and had the pleasure of eating the fruit right off the tree. At Riverside a brass band and a delegation from the chamber of commerce met the party and escorted it to Glenwood tavern. Mere buncheon was served in a dining room furnished in the delightful old mission style. An exchange of speeches followed the me-nu, in which President C. E. Rumsey of the Riverside beard of trade led for California, and C. O. Whittemore for Sait Lake. Mr. Whittemore introduced Gov. Wells, Senator Bamberger and Fisher Harris, who made felicitous ref. erences to the occasion, and its significance.
