Workingmen's Political Organizations.

PHILADELPHIA, 11.—A meeting of workmen was held to-night in the Caledonian hall to concert measures to form a new political party through which the workingmen of America might exercise their collective influence. Nearly all the trades were represented. The meeting was private, and all reporters were excluded. After the meeting it was announced that the following preamble and resolutions had been adopted:

Whereas, the lamentable state of affairs existing in this country having been brought about by undue power granted to corporations, capital, by partial legislation in its favor, by destructive laws through which associated laborers are deprived of all right to regulate their own affairs, and by total alienation of government and representatives in legislatures and congress from the people who have entrusted them with their interests and protection; and,

Whereas, all efforts having heretofore failed, which have had for their object the emancipation of the working classes, owing to the man-ifold divisions in the ranks of labor; and,

Whereas, the destruction of industries of the country and the pauperizing of its labor must be the inevitable consequence of partial legislation on the part of our lawmakers, therefore, we, the undersigned, do hereby recommend the organization of workmen for political purposes, to be called the Protective Labor Party, having for its object, first, the immediate protection of labor, and second, direct representation of workingmen in municipal and State legislatures and Congress; third, the repeal of all oppressive laws against labor; fourth, the enactment of just laws for the protection of labor.
