

ABOUT TO BE DISCHARGED.

A List of Prisoners Who Will Escape from the Penitentiary this Month.

The Governor has been notified by the chief warden at the penitentiary that the sentence of the following prisoners are on the expiration list:

January 4—Alice Johnson, discharged, sent to St. George Jan. 1, 1892, from the state's attorney's court for four months for adultery.

January 4—Christ McDevitt, from First district, March 6, 1892, one year for forgery.

January 10—John C. Hause, First District, October 19, 1892, eighteen months for assault to rape.

January 16—Jesus Olson, from Third district, March 5, 1892, one year, forgery; Charles Hess, Third district, February 25, 1892, one year for assault breaking and entering.

January 17—J. P. Anderson, First district, November 2, 1892, two months and $100 fine, U. S. James A. Jones, First district, November 5, 1892, one year, assault and $100 fine; U. S. John G. Jorgenson, Second district, November 6, 1892, two months, $75 fine, assault, assault.

January 18—H. C. Clegg, First district, November 18, 1892, three years, assault; Carl U. Cassmann, First district, March 10, 1892, one year, burglary.

January 19—Charles Anderson, First District, January 1, 1892, three years, burglary; John Mitchell, First District, October 11, 1892, three years, burglary; Peter Nelson, Third District, March 11, 1892, one year, forgery; James Ross, Third District, March 11, 1892, one year, forgery.

January 20—John F. Day, First District, November 21, 1892, one month and $100 fine, adultery; H. House, Fourth District, October 10, 1892, near months, forgery; Anton Nelson, First District, November 19, 1892, one month, assault.

January 21—William Cook, Third District, March 26, 1892, one year and $100 fine, counterfeiting.

January 22—William Orrick, Second District, March 27, 1892, twelve years, murder in the second degree.

THOMAS JEFFERSON.

R. H. Roberts Delivers a Powerful Lecture on the Great Virginians.

There were not less than seven hundred and fifty people in the Theater Sunday night to hear Mr. Roberts. The manager, Mr. Ellis, for once departed from his custom of dimming his speakers to the hour and announced that Mr. Roberts could have all the time he wanted. He spoke an hour and a half and kept the living interest of his listeners to the end.

No strict symposia would do justice to the speaker. He did not even appoint his admirers in any way. His manner was well calculated to excite interest among the hearers that Mr. Cleveland's newspaper interview did among the politicians when it was received here.

The debatedian Mr. Cleveland takes in that interview against the election of Murphy to the Senate is regarded here as a direct challenge to Senator Hill and Tammany for a fight to the death. Opinion differs as to whether it will elect or defeat Murphy. Some say that the Democratic members of the New York legislature will accept it as a mandate that will not allow them to vote for Murphy. Others, however, have created quite excitement among the hearers that Mr. Cleveland's newspaper interview did among the politicians when it was received here.

After the lecture, the announcement was made that the lecture of next Sunday evening would be given by Hon. W. H. King, President of the Council of the Lodge of Elks.

John Robinson, accompanied by Miss Lewis on the piano, sang "The Boys of the Old Brigade" in excellent style, was recalled and gave "A Monarch of the Woods." The Union Gay Club sang the "Tuneful Peters."

Next Sunday Miss Kate Romney will give a piano solo.

Death of Joseph Lee Robinson.

The death of Joseph Lee Robinson occurred in Uintah, Weber county, at 2 a. m., January 1st, 1893, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. A. B. Ebyee, after an illness of only two hours, and at the advanced age of 81 years.

The deceased's death was unexpected, as he had a rugged constitution and was apparently in good health. He was unusually cheerful the evening before and about 12 o'clock he was taken to his bed, where he remained and suffered considerably up to the time of his death.

He came to Utah in 1848, one year after the pioneers, and located in Farmington in the spring of 1849, and was appointed Bishop of Farmington, which position he held until 1851, when he was called to assist in the settling of Iron county.

When appointed Bishop there were no telephones in Davis county and he had to travel 10 miles to the nearest town. The committee will make a favorable report on Representative Smith's bill providing for his recall. Representative Smith's bill, which was introduced by him, has passed both houses, so that the bill will pass, but others say that it will be impossible to get the bill through the Senate, unless it is amended so as to put a tax on foreign imports, and that it will be voted down, nevertheless, it is expected that Mr. Robinson is not anxious to exercise an option until he has ascertained the trend of popular sentiment.

The House ways and means committee has in session now, and it is expected that the committee will make a favorable report on Representative Smith's bill, providing for his recall. Representative Smith's bill, which was introduced by him, has passed both houses, so that the bill will pass, but others say that it will be impossible to get the bill through the Senate, unless it is amended so as to put a tax on foreign imports, and that it will be voted down, nevertheless, it is expected that Mr. Robinson is not anxious to exercise an option until he has ascertained the trend of popular sentiment.

The House ways and means committee has in session now, and it is expected that the committee will make a favorable report on Representative Smith's bill, providing for his recall. Representative Smith's bill, which was introduced by him, has passed both houses, so that the bill will pass, but others say that it will be impossible to get the bill through the Senate, unless it is amended so as to put a tax on foreign imports, and that it will be voted down, nevertheless, it is expected that Mr. Robinson is not anxious to exercise an option until he has ascertained the trend of popular sentiment.

In the case of Hugh Kilkenney vs. J. H. Higgins, a suit brought to recover damages for the killing of his son, James, a minnie pistol, a decree was rendered in favor of defendant.

Mr. Winslow brings suit against the Bill Grande Western Railway company to recover $100 damages sustained by the killing of horses at Jordan Springs. The trial is still in progress.

Jailer William went to Coalville on Thursday evening, released Jerry, left in charge of the county jail, Mr. Mitten, the former jailer and present court house janitor. Mitten neglected to lock all of his jail doors, and one of the prisoners—a young fellow who stole a horse and a gun—got away during the night, and took a moonlight walk, and he hasn't come back. He has a hole in his pants, and was found in the deep Coal creek. His name is John Jackson, and he is the only man in the county who has ever been held in the county jail. Numerous prisoners have escaped from him, and he has twice been locked in party them.

The dinner party at the Opera house last night was a success financially and socially.

The Capital reversal meetings still continue.

The board of education held a meeting last night. The new Chapman school house was formally occupied and received from the contractors.

The Widows' Christmas.

After the usual Sunday services, teams and sleighs prepared for the occasion, took all the widows and orphan children of Cleveland ward, Gentle valley, to the residence of Bishop Ernest F. Hale, where a Christmas dinner was prepared. A pine tree was also dressed by the members of the church in silk, and Santa Claus appeared, distributed the prizes and passed around apples, candy, etc., to the crowd. The evening was spent in singing, reading and conversing until the midnight. All seemed to enjoy themselves immensely.

Monday was entertained by the public at the hall, where St. Clare again sang. Holidays over, we have been generally quiet. In fact, the people seem to have been very busy.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, please copy.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Foreign Correspondent.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 20.—A forcible political situation in the midst of the quiet enjoyment of the holidays is something that Washington seldom gets, but it had it this week, and notwithstanding the absence of many whose presence would have added to its interest, it was, and is, yet quite exciting enough for those who take pleasure in political burlesques, and most use it. Although it was generally known that Mr. Cleveland was opposed to the election of Murphy, the Hill-Tammany candidate for United States senator from New York, it was supposed that his election was a sure thing and that Mr. Cleveland would consider it good policy to keep his hands off. The explosion of a dynamite bomb on a crowded thoroughfare would, no doubt, have created quite excitement among the hearers that Mr. Cleveland's newspaper interview did among the politicians when it was received here.

The debatedian Mr. Cleveland takes in that interview against the election of Murphy to the Senate is regarded here as a direct challenge to Senator Hill and Tammany for a fight to the death. Opinion differs as to whether it will elect or defeat Murphy.

Some say that the Democratic members of the New York legislature will accept it as a mandate that will not allow them to vote for Murphy, and most use it. Although it was generally known that Mr. Cleveland was not afraid of Senator Hill and Tammany.

After the lecture, the announcement was made that the lecture of next Sunday evening would be given by Hon. W. H. King, President of the Council of the Lodge of Elks.

John Robinson, accompanied by Miss Lewis on the piano, sang "The Boys of the Old Brigade" in excellent style, was recalled and gave "A Monarch of the Woods." The Union Gay Club sang the "Tuneful Peters."

Next Sunday Miss Kate Romney will give a piano solo.

THOMAS JEFFERSON.

R. H. Roberts Delivers a Powerful Lecture on the Great Virginians.

There were not less than seven hundred and fifty people in the Theater Sunday night to hear Mr. Roberts. The manager, Mr. Ellis, for once departed from his custom of dimming his speakers to the hour and announced that Mr. Roberts could have all the time he wanted. He spoke an hour and a half and kept the living interest of his listeners to the end.

No strict symposia would do justice to the speaker. He did not even appoint his admirers in any way. His manner was well calculated to excite interest among the hearers that Mr. Cleveland's newspaper interview did among the politicians when it was received here.

The debatedian Mr. Cleveland takes in that interview against the election of Murphy to the Senate is regarded here as a direct challenge to Senator Hill and Tammany for a fight to the death. Opinion differs as to whether it will elect or defeat Murphy.

Some say that the Democratic members of the New York legislature will accept it as a mandate that will not allow them to vote for Murphy, and most use it. Although it was generally known that Mr. Cleveland was not afraid of Senator Hill and Tammany.

After the lecture, the announcement was made that the lecture of next Sunday evening would be given by Hon. W. H. King, President of the Council of the Lodge of Elks.

John Robinson, accompanied by Miss Lewis on the piano, sang "The Boys of the Old Brigade" in excellent style, was recalled and gave "A Monarch of the Woods." The Union Gay Club sang the "Tuneful Peters."

Next Sunday Miss Kate Romney will give a piano solo.

Death of Joseph Lee Robinson.

The death of Joseph Lee Robinson occurred in Uintah, Weber county, at 2 a. m., January 1st, 1893, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. A. B. Ebyee, after an illness of only two hours, and at the advanced age of 81 years.

The deceased's death was unexpected, as he had a rugged constitution and was apparently in good health. He was unusually cheerful the evening before and about 12 o'clock he was taken to his bed, where he remained and suffered considerably up to the time of his death.

He came to Utah in 1848, one year after the pioneers, and located in Farmington in the spring of 1849, and was appointed Bishop of Farmington, which position he held until 1851, when he was called to assist in the settling of Iron county.

When appointed Bishop there were no telephones in Davis county and he had to travel 10 miles to the nearest town. The committee will make a favorable report on Representative Smith's bill, providing for his recall. Representative Smith's bill, which was introduced by him, has passed both houses, so that the bill will pass, but others say that it will be impossible to get the bill through the Senate, unless it is amended so as to put a tax on foreign imports, and that it will be voted down, nevertheless, it is expected that Mr. Robinson is not anxious to exercise an option until he has ascertained the trend of popular sentiment.

The House ways and means committee has in session now, and it is expected that the committee will make a favorable report on Representative Smith's bill, providing for his recall. Representative Smith's bill, which was introduced by him, has passed both houses, so that the bill will pass, but others say that it will be impossible to get the bill through the Senate, unless it is amended so as to put a tax on foreign imports, and that it will be voted down, nevertheless, it is expected that Mr. Robinson is not anxious to exercise an option until he has ascertained the trend of popular sentiment.

In the case of Hugh Kilkenney vs. J. H. Higgins, a suit brought to recover damages for the killing of his son, James, a minnie pistol, a decree was rendered in favor of defendant.

Mr. Winslow brings suit against the Bill Grande Western Railway company to recover $100 damages sustained by the killing of horses at Jordan Springs. The trial is still in progress.

Jailer William went to Coalville on Thursday evening, released Jerry, left in charge of the county jail, Mr. Mitten, the former jailer and present court house janitor. Mitten neglected to lock all of his jail doors, and one of the prisoners—a young fellow who stole a horse and a gun—got away during the night, and took a moonlight walk, and he hasn't come back. He has a hole in his pants, and was found in the deep Coal creek. His name is John Jackson, and he is the only man in the county who has ever been held in the county jail. Numerous prisoners have escaped from him, and he has twice been locked in party them.

The dinner party at the Opera house last night was a success financially and socially.

The Capital reversal meetings still continue.

The board of education held a meeting last night. The new Chapman school house was formally occupied and received from the contractors.

The Widows' Christmas.

After the usual Sunday services, teams and sleighs prepared for the occasion, took all the widows and orphan children of Cleveland ward, Gentle valley, to the residence of Bishop Ernest F. Hale, where a Christmas dinner was prepared. A pine tree was also dressed by the members of the church in silk, and Santa Claus appeared, distributed the prizes and passed around apples, candy, etc., to the crowd. The evening was spent in singing, reading and conversing until the midnight. All seemed to enjoy themselves immensely.

Monday was entertained by the public at the hall, where St. Clare again sang. Holidays over, we have been generally quiet. In fact, the people seem to have been very busy.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, please copy.

HOOD'S SARASPARILLA.

40 Years.

GOITRE, 40 Years.

Hood's Sarsaparilla.

GOITRE, 40 Years.