In a brief editorial in yesterday's News, announcing the Conference at Coalville, the far-seeing compositor overlooked the writer's meaning so far as to make the Stake house "unfurnished," when "unfurnished" was the word that was written. The time it was the compositor, for the proof-reader marked the error very plainly.

On Thursday next Professor Evan Stephens will open a class for instruction in singing, in the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms. The members of this class will be children under fifteen years of age, and the tuition will be 75 cents for a term of ten weeks. LOCAL NEWS.

Celery.—There were placed upon our table to-day two very fine bunches of celery grown by Mr. Wm. Gritton, of the Nineteenth Ward, this city. One is called Hartwell's Perfection, and the other the White Plume. Both were splendid specimens, there being little, if any, choice between them.

W. L. Snow Pleads Guilty.—Yesterday afternoon William L. Snow, of Farmers Ward, was called for trial in the Third District Court. The indictment against him contained three counts, alleging a violation of the Edmunds law. In making his plea the defendant stated that he had lived with his wife during the period of the offence. Sentence will be passed Oct. 1st.

A Kind Friend.—A gentleman of this city, noted among those acquainted with him for a kindly disposition to help those whom he believes to be in need, sent the following, this morning, with the monetary accompaniment named in it:

Editor Deseret News:

As a nucleus to which it is hoped others will contribute for the benefit of Jacob Hamilton's family, I send ten dollars cash, only regretting I cannot send more.

A FRIEND.

Obsequies.—The funeral services over the remains of Elder Andrew N. Macfarlane was held in the 21st Ward meeting house yesterday afternoon, Bishop Allen presiding. The large hall was crowded to excess, the City Council, of which the deceased had been a member, and Z. C. M. I., with which he had been long connected as an employee, were largely represented. The opening prayer was offered by Counselor H. J. Foulger. The speakers, who advertised eulogistically to the life-record of the deceased and instructed to the bereaved and the congregation generally, were, Elders John Nicholson, James Sharp, H. J. Foulger, Apostle Heber J. Grant and Bishop Allen. Benediction was pronounced by Bishop McKee. The singing exercises were rendered by the ward choir, led by Brother Thomas McIntyre. The dedicatory prayer at the grave was offered by President Monroe S. Eldredge.

JONES AND TRESEDER.

ON TRIAL FOR ALLEGED ATTEMPT AT BRIBERY—THE WORK OF GETTING A JURY.

The case of the United States vs. N. V. Jones and F. M. Treseder was set for trial in the Third District Court yesterday. The charges against them is that they attempted to bribe Deputy Marshal E. A. Franks to give information of the intended arrest of parties accused of polygamy and unlawful cohabitation, that the latter might escape. An order had been granted by Judge Kane that Treseder should have the privilege of consulting with his attorney and co-defendant, Charles R. Brown, and that the State Marshal would not allow the consultation except in presence of an officer, so last evening Mr. Brown, for the defense, asked the Court for more explicit instructions to the Marshal. These were given, and when the attorney asked that Treseder might go to his office, the judge remarked that they did not want any more such trouble, and they had to get the custody of Treseder. Just what was meant by this remark would be difficult to understand, in view of the fact that when Treseder went away last spring, it was his bondsmen and co-defendant, and not the officers, that had been in any trouble in the matter.

When the case came up to-day, Mr. Brown demanded a separate trial for Treseder, as a matter of right under the territorial statute.

The prosecution opposed the separate trial, and the application was denied by the Court.

A demurrer to the indictment against Mr. Jones was made and overruled. Both defendants then pleaded not guilty.

Mr. Brown renewed his application for a separate trial for the defendant, and requested that, if this was denied, the case be continued until Monday.

Mr. Dickson opposed both requests, which were refused by the Court.

The following were called: R. W. Crane, Wells Clark, Thomas Davis, Charles Shells, Edward Berry, Frank J. L. O'Georrie, Bowman Cannon, Wm. McKay, Joseph Foreman, J. M. Harvey and George Schill.

George Schill had formed an unequal opinion and was excused. Wm. McKay was disqualified by having been on the grand jury which found the indictment. J. M. Harvey, Bowman Cannon, R. W. Crane and Wells Clark were excused for cause.

Joseph Foreman was challenged on the ground that he was not a taxpayer. Challenge denied by the prosecution.

Mr. Foreman stated that he had not paid taxes for a number of years, but owned some household furniture. The challenge was overruled, and an exception taken.

Mr. Brown elicited from Foreman that he was on the grand jury which considered the case. He was then challenged by the defense for having formed an unequal opinion, and was excused.

Joseph Foster, J. B. Wilson, R. P. Martin, S. C. Pascake, Albert Fischer, George Morrison and James Winchester were called. All of these but Geo. Morrison had an unequal opinion and were excused.

The next called were I. C. Underhill, George Mullett, Louis Bamberger, Alfred Thompson, H. M. Bynon and M. Dusenberry.

I. C. Underhill was excused on account of ill health.

Alfred Thompson, George Mullett, M. Dusenberry and E. M. Bynon were called.

Louis Bamberger was challenged by the defense. Challenge denied by the prosecution. Defense renewed the challenge, for actual bias. Overruled.

A special open venire was issued for 20 jurors, returnable at 3 p. m., and court took a recess.

H. P. FOLSOM.

GOES TO THE PENITENTIARY FOR SIX MONTHS.

This morning Hyram P. Folsom was called to receive judgment in the Third District Court. He had formerly entered a plea of guilty to a one count indictment charging him with living with his two wives.

When the defendant came forward he was asked by the court whether he had any assurance to give that he would obey the law in the future.

To this Mr. Folsom replied that he had nothing to say, and would prefer not to make any promise of the kind referred to.

The Court then inflicted the full penalty of the law—six months' imprisonment in the penitentiary, and a fine of $500 and the costs of the suit. The prisoner to remain in custody until the fine and costs are paid.

Arrest at Lake View.—Yesterday afternoon's train from the west brought in Marshal Steele's minion at Tooele, and James I. Steele, his family and a number of neighbors, from Lake View, or Pine Canon, Tooele County. Mr. Steele was under arrest, a complaint having been filed against him by D. W. Rench, charging him with unlawful cohabitation with Mrs. James I. Steele and Isabella or Ann Baggers Steele. In answer to Commissioner McKay's questions, Mr. Steele said that his first wife's name was Sarah Wilson Steele, and the second Ann Bayless Steele. He had lived with both of them, in the same house for 30 years.

Mr. Steele stated that he wished to go before the grand jury, where he would make the same statement, and the family might be spared the trouble and mortification of being taken into the presence of the inquisitors. Mr. Dickson objected to this, but the Commissioner assented, saying he wasn't going before the grand jury in any more cases where the defendants were allowed to testify against themselves. Mr. Dickson had his own way for the time being however, and the witnesses were excused. The defendant was released on $1,000 bonds and was instructed to make his statement to the grand jury on Monday afternoon.

A little later, Commissioner McKay, notwithstanding that Mr. Dickson had assured the defendant that his family would not be disturbed if he pursued the course indicated, issued subpoenas for the grand jury, and for commanding them to be in attendance on the grand jury on Wednesday.

Joe H. Dean Convicted.—Shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the jury in the Dean case returned a verdict of guilty against the defendant. Mr. Dean had gone out of the court room when the jury retired, and not expecting them back for a half hour or so did not return in time to hear the verdict when it was read by the clerk. This event caused Mr. Dickson to appear very anxious, and the defendant had begged, and was granted only a few minutes delay before the time allowed by the statute, until Monday at 10 a. m.

Police Court.—John Keels, charged with drunkenness, and profanity, was fined $10.

J. B. Slate, accused and disturbing the peace, entered a plea of guilty and was assessed $30 for his indignance.

R. A. Groves, charged with assault, drunkenness and disturbing the peace, denied the soft impeachment, but a trial fixed the thing for him and he was committed in $5.

E. Scott, drunk and profane, was required to put up $20.

Wm. Jones, for an assault, was fined $20.

An auction sale of horses took place in front of the stables of Grant Bros. & Co. this afternoon.

In the suit of Samuel E. Alden et al. vs. A. M. Munser, in the Third District Court yesterday afternoon, judgment was given by default in favor of the plaintiff.

GOOD MILK COW would be taken in exchange for Furniture. Apply at Dinwoodey's.

THE SECOND DISTRICT COURT.

BEAVER, Utah Territory, September 25, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

At the opening of court to-day the court house was densely packed with spectators. Maria, Sadwick's case, was postponed for the term. R. Macer, for libel, was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs. William Robinson was indicted a year ago for polygamy and cohabitation, but the prosecution could not find important witnesses. Robinson pleaded guilty to cohabitation, and the indictment for polygamy was waived. He was sentenced to four months in the Utah penitentiary and fined $100 and costs. George Hale, Thomas Scofield and James Farrar were each sentenced to four months and $200 and costs. Sadwick (two convictions) sentenced to four months and $300 and costs for each.

The Judge courteously asked the brethren if they intended to keep the law in future, but they respectfully declined to make any promises. They will start at 2:30 p. m. for the pen, with Gleason and Oulbree in charge.

MOONSHINE.

Growing Worse.—Miss Zella Webb, the young lady who was so badly burned at Provo, by the breaking of a lamp, a few days ago, is reported as growing rapidly worse. Her condition at present is very dangerous.

The Livingston Case.—Yesterday afternoon the case of the United States vs. Charles Livingston, against whom there are three indictments charging unlawful cohabitation, was called for trial in the Third District Court. The defendant and witnesses were present, but the case was continued for the term, on motion of District Attorney Dickson.

Information Wanted.—George Slamaker, of Brockland Cottage, Brock Street, Basingstoke, Hants, England, is anxious to hear from and learn the whereabouts of his brother, Frederick who, on January 10th, 1886, was in Los Platte County, but has not since been heard from. The information is urgently desired and will be thankfully received.

Sudden Death.—Last evening Mrs. Sarah E. Jones, wife of William X. Jones, plasterer of the Fifteenth Ward, was stricken down by an attack of apoplexy. All efforts to resuscitate her were in vain, and this afternoon she passed from this life. She was highly respected by those acquainted with her, and leaves a large family.

U. S. vs. Homer Duncan.—This case was called up in the District Court to-day. The defendant was arraigned on Wednesday last, charged with having unlawfully cohabited with his wives, one in Iron County and the other in Salt Lake County. A demurrer to the indictment was filed by counsel for the defense, on the ground that Iron County, where the cohabitation with one wife was alleged, was in the Second Judicial District, and therefore the offense was not committed within the jurisdiction of the Third District Court. The argument on the demurrer will be heard on Monday next.

The "Pinafore" Revival.—Those who estimated "Pinafore" by its "chestnut" formation would have been surprised had they attended the Theatre this afternoon and seen one of the largest matinee audiences that ever gathered there. The place was crowded almost to the suffocating point, especially down stairs, and following so closely upon the heels of the circus this seems almost wonderful.

The old, familiar music, followed by the well-known songs, was admirably proved, in most respects—were brought before an audience most of whom knew by experience what was coming next as well as they know that sunset this evening precedes sunrise to-morrow morning. But they realized it all, and this, to repeat, shows that "Pinafore" has not lost the hold it gained in the days ago.

The public are already familiar with the cast, and we have not time to make detailed mention of the Ethel Clawson who so severely afflicted with a cold that the choicest features of her part had to be omitted; Miss Hawley was likewise afflicted, but not to the same extent. Everything, however, passed off smoothly, and will doubtless be improved this evening, when, of course, there will be another tremendous house.

DR. ELIAS R. SHIPP'S class in obstetrics will begin on Friday next, October 1st, at her office, no. 18 Main Street. Those who desire to attend should communicate with her at once. The lady has been very successful in her labors, and deserves well of the people generally.

CULLED FROM LATEST MECHANICS.

—Last Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Bridget McCabe shot her neighbor Michael McCabe, in the thigh, at Centerville, near Butte. There had been considerable trouble between them, mainly over pecuniary matters, and both of them had been drinking freely for some days.

A petition signed by about 40 citizens, some of them men of prominence, has been presented to the City Council of Provo, asking them to enact an ordinance licensing the sale of liquor. The petition urges the impracticability of prohibition in that town.

—Last Monday Joseph Clark, superintendent of the Mountain Mining Company, Butte, was apprised of the fact that some persons were about to cut their large "ricks" of cord wood which were piled up ready to be hauled away to the city.

Brown's Gulch. Mr. Clark was seen yesterday and the following facts were ascertained about the fire and the company had considerable wood up in Brown's Gulch, and on account of the scarcity of water they had been making use of the same down the gulch, but the wood had been rained up in "ricks" on the bank of the Burne, and was being down next spring. Sunday night two wood choppers, whose cabin is about 20 yards from the rick of cord wood, went to bed as usual and noticed nothing wrong. One of them, by the name of Moore, happened to hear the alarm on the clock, which by some unforeseen accident went off at 1 o'clock. Moore jumped out of bed, expecting it was five o'clock. What was his horror to behold a bright light in the sky and a cabin. He awakened his partner at once and started for the fire. They saw at once that the rick of cord wood had been fired in three or four different places. They could not do much themselves, so they started for the mouth of the gulch where some thirty men were working, while the other one had to cut the fire off from extending the entire length of the rick. When help arrived the men worked with a will, and the part of the wood and last night they had the fire confined, but not before about 400 cords had been consumed, besides about 500 feet of the same. The loss is estimated at about $10,000 which is only partially covered by insurance. Mr. Clark offers a reward of $500 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the parties who set the wood on fire, as there is no doubt that it was the work of an incendiary. Yesterday the ground was examined where the fire started, and tracks were found of two horses, one of which was shod with heavy work shoes, while the other one had light shoes. Evidently there were two in the party, and they were within a distance of two miles in Telegraph Gulch.—Montana Star.
