The Mexican Grant.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27. — Prominence is given here to certain facts in connection with the Casa Grande Land Company, organized at Cheyenne, Wyoming, recently, with a capital of $5,000,000. Edward Stokes of New York, J. A. Beison of this city and John A. Reavis of Missouri are the directors of the company. The company was organized to improve the Peralta grant, lying between Phœnix and Tucson, in Arizona, and consisting of 5,000,000 acres. The land was originally owned by Don Peralta, an old Spanish settler, who obtained a patent from the Mexican government. Under the stipulation of the treaty of the United States government agreed to respect the old Spanish titles. Peralta died, leaving, his claimed, an only son, the surviving heir to his estate. Many years ago this son went to Spain and died in the Castilian capital. No claimant appeared to the estate until three years ago, when Reavis appeared with a dark complexioned native California girl about 18 years of age whom he had married and whom he claimed to be the granddaughter of Don Peralta and heir to the now very valuable Peralta grant. To strengthen his claims he made a trip to Spain and about six months ago returned, bringing with him an elaborate parchment from the authorities at Madrid, conveying to his wife, who was then recognized as the daughter of Don Peralta, a to the Peralta grant and she was further honored by having the title of Baroness of the Colorados conferred upon her.

The Examiner of this city prints an interview with a resident of Woodland, Yolo County, Cal., claiming that the girl is the daughter of a Missourian named Treadwell by an Indian woman. She worked for a number of Woodland families until married to Reavis. On the other hand director Benson asserts that she is Spanish, and makes the statement that the girl's mother died at San Diego at the girl's birth, and that the latter accompanied Peralta to Woodland where he died, and the girl fell into the hands of Treadwell, who was a sheepherder.

THE PUBLICATION

has occasioned more than ordinary interest owing to the prominence of some of the men said to be interested in the tract, including Robt. G. Ingersoll, Frank Hurd and others.

THE DISCORDANTS.

John Sherman Don't Go Down Easily with Ohio Republicans.

TOLEDO, July 20.—A caucus of opponents of the Sherman resolution was held at two o'clock this afternoon under the lead of Judge West, of Bellefontaine, who nominated Blaine at Chicago, in 1884. It was resolved that this afternoon when the Sherman resolution is offered in convention to offer a substitute. This is to be a tribute to Sherman for his services in the past and will express entire confidence but makes no promises for the future.

IF IT FAILS,

the matter will be fought at every step on the floor of the convention.

The Mansfield delegation, 600 strong, arrived this afternoon, with bands and banners. They marched to the hotel where Sherman is quartered and were received by the senator, who made an impromptu speech, in which he said everything was settled, that the republicans would be this fall united and victorious. Every vote in this State, he said, is for the renomination of Foraker for Governor of Ohio. Sherman further said he believed the meetings to be held to day and tomorrow will be the beginning of a good time, when the republican party will be restored in the nation and state.

THE CONVENTION

met and was called to order at 4:30 p. m. The allusions of temporary Chairman Ryan to Sherman were received with loud applause.

The nam. s of the committee on resolutions were then read. It consists of Dr. Graydon, of Hamilton, Ex-Governor Foster, Hon. John A. Bynum, and Congressmen McKinley and E. B. Taylor. This committee is the center of interest, as the "Sherman resolution" is before it for consideration. When the announcement of the various committees was concluded interest was at once excited by Hon. Charles Grosvenor, of Athens, rising to offer a resolution.

General Keifer at once moved that all resolutions go to the committee without debate. This was adopted.

Mr. Grosvenor then read the following

RESOLUTION:

"Recognizing, as the republicans of Ohio always have, the gifted and talented statesmen of the republican party of other states, loyal and unfaltering in their devotion to the success of the organization in 1888, under whatever standard-bearer the republican national convention may select, they have a just pride in the record and career of John Sherman as a member of the republican party and a statesman of fidelity, large experience and great ability. His career as a statesman began with the birth of the republican party. He has grown and developed with the growth of that organization. His genius and statesmanship are stamped on the records of the party and statutes and the constitution of the country; and believing his nomination for the office of President would be wise and judicious, we respectfully present his name to the people of the United States as a candidate, and announce our hearty support of him for that office."

Immediately, Colonel J. G. Munsen, of Zanesville, arose and offered

of the anti-Sherman men in the following resolution:

"Resolved, That we hereby pledge the united and enthusiastic support of the republicans of Ohio to the nominee of the next republican convention. In this connection, we call the attention of the republicans of Ohio to the eminent service and splendid career of Hon. John Sherman."

The convention then adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow morning. The two resolutions above given are in the hands of the committee on resolutions, which will probably be at work most of the night.

THE OPPONENTS

of the Sherman endorsement offer to support the second resolution unanimously, but declare they will fight the Grosvenor resolutions on the floor to the bitter end.

At 11 p. m. the committee on resolutions passed the first Sherman resolution, the one absolutely and unqualifiedly endorsing Senator Sherman for presidential candidate, by a vote of 18 to 3, which was afterwards made unanimous.

The platform reaffirms the Dow law and favors such additions as seems to be demanded by the enlightened spirit of the age. It takes strong protective ground regarding the tariff and is emphatic in its condemnation of the importation of foreign contract labor. It condemns the democratic party of Ohio in strong terms and on the other themes takes the usual republican position.

Maryland Democrats.

BALTIMORE, July 27.—The democratic state convention to nominate candidates for governor, comptroller and attorney general, assembled in this city to-day. Resolutions were adopted endorsing the administration of President Cleveland, urging their delegates in Congress to work for the reduction of taxation, opposing the introduction of foreign paupers and convicts, and for an election law embodying the features of the Tilden law and such other provisions as will assure the purity of elections. Thus far the names of James Hodges, L. Victor Baughman, Frank Brown, Stevenson, Archer and have been presented to the convention for nomination for governor, but no ballot has been had.

On the sixth ballot Elihu E. Jackson, of Wicomoco County, received a majority of all the votes of the convention and was declared the nominee for governor.

The convention re-assembled at 8 o'clock. Hon. Wm. Pinckney White was named for attorney-general. L. Victor Baughman, of Frederick County, now president of the Chesapeake & Ohio Canal, was nominated for comptroller. The ticket as nominated, it is declared, will heal all dissensions in the democratic party.

The Prohibitionists.

JACKSON, Miss., July 27.—The seventh annual state prohibition convention assembled here to-day. Thirty-one counties were represented by regular delegates and several by proxies—about forty in all. The meeting is composed of representative men.

Crimnal Chapter.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 27.—A mob at Redan to-day lynched Reuben J. Hudson, colored. He had outraged the person of Mrs. James Bush yesterday

NEW YORK, July 27.—The argument to make permanent the stay of proceedings in the case of

was continued to-day before Judge Potter in the supreme court.

CINCINNATI, July 27.—John Neave deliberately murdered his father, Jos. Neave, this afternoon at Falmouth, Kentucky, in a dispute over the division of the crops. A mob is organizing to lynch the son, who has barricaded himself in a farm house.

PETERSBURG, Va., July 27.—Ten days or two weeks ago a brutal assault was committed in Surrey County by Reuben Cole (colored) upon Mrs. Richard Savage. Cole was arrested and jailed. Last night a band of fifty men overpowered the guard and the jailor, took Cole out and HANGED HIM.

CHICAGO, July 27.—Only the petty jobs of the boodle gang were exposed in the trial to-day. The class of evidence was apparently inexhaustible and emphasized the extent to which the thievery was carried.

CHICAGO, July 27.—The trail of McGarigle is believed to have been discovered. The indications are that he escaped by the aid of Doctors St. John and Dell, both of whom are connected with the college of physicians for the county hospital. Dr. Johnson is part owner in the schooner Edward W. Blake, which suddenly discharged her cargo on Saturday, and after the doctor had an interview with the captain cleared immediately, ostensibly for Kingston, Ontario. During Saturday afternoon St. John was at the jail with for several hours. Doctors St. John and Dell were absent from their homes on Saturday and refused to explain where they were. The sheriff has a yacht following the schooner but the result of the chase is uncertain.

The Billiardists.

ST. LOUIS, July 27.—Chas. Schaeffer, brother of Schaeffer the champion billiardist, received a letter from "Jake" to-day dated Paris, July 14th, in which he says he has made a match with Vignaux for $1,000 a side and has deposited $500 forfeit. The match will begin October 15th and will be under the Balke line rules, 400 points per night for six nights.

The Double Daily.

CHICAGO, July 27.—An accident occurred on the Philadelphia and Chicago express on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, caused by a misplaced switch. The express ran into a freight train standing on a siding at York, Indiana, killing the engineer and fireman of the express and seriously injuring the engineer of the freight train. The accident was caused by an attempt to wreck the train, as the switch was known to be in good order half an hour before it was found broken.

STILL ANOTHER.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 27.—The Inter-Ocean's Bloomington, Illinois: A construction train on the C. & A. road, on which were nearly 100 laborers, was run into this afternoon by a freight train. The trains met on Orendorff Bridge near Hopedale, twenty-five miles from Bloomington. The following were killed on the construction train: Morton Bunsets, James Brown, of Hopedale, Illinois; Frank D. Rake, of Petersburg; Piano Barlow, of Ashland; James Kellogg, residence unknown. A dozen or more were seriously injured, but it is hoped all will recover. The responsibility has not as yet been placed.

The Daily News' special from Pekin, Ill.:

TEN DEAD BODIES

have been taken from the wreck of the construction train at Hopedale, and eight men are unaccounted for. It is supposed the missing men are dead in the wreck, in which case the number of dead is eighteen, with the probability that the list will be swelled to make twenty-two by the deaths of those supposed to be fatally injured.

Savings Bank Defaulter.

ST. LOUIS, July 27.—A special from Leavenworth, Kansas, says: The Citizens' Savings Bank assigned this morning, and the cashier

HAS ABSCONDED.

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., July 27.—Considerable excitement was occasioned this morning when shortly before 10 o'clock, the Citizens' Savings Bank closed its doors. A large crowd soon gathered at the front door and word was whispered around that the president of the institution, R. P. Clement, was a defaulter in a large amount and had absconded. Subsequent developments confirmed the rumor. Clement left town Monday night for St. Louis, ostensibly on business for the bank. Yesterday, when W. B. Slosson, one of the bank's directors was examining the records in the county office, he noticed that a large amount of real estate in the city belonging to Clement had to his parents, and his brother-in-law, one Chinery. Slosson suspected something was wrong, and he later in the day consulted with Chinery. The latter confessed that Clement had absconded. Clement left a note for the directors in which he confessed to defalcations, attributing his downfall to speculation in wheat and other ventures, in which he had lost upwards of $50,000. It is reported this afternoon that Chinery has made a complete transfer of Clement's real estate in favor of the bank amounting in all to $20,000. This transfer was obtained through the efforts of Vice-President G. W. Mickle and W. B. Slosson. The full amount of the defalcation is unknown, but it is variously estimated at from $30 000 to $50,000. This afternoon a notice was posted that the bank had made for the benefit of creditors, and John Wilson was made temporary assignee. The directors say the depositors will be paid in full. The aggregate amount of deposits and liabilities is said to be about $1,000,000.

Casualty Cases.

DENVER, July 27.—The Republican's Santa Fe, New Mexico: A. L. Hauck, prescription clerk in Creamer's drug store, was killed this evening by the accidental explosion of a soda water generator. Hauck formerly lived in Philadelphia.

READING, Pa., July 27.—Later particulars of last night's storm indicate it was the severest ever known in this vicinity. The total damage to railroad and private property within a radius of twenty-five miles of this city amounts to fully $150,000.

PHILADELPHIA, July 27.—Last night's heavy rains did at the Falls of Schuylkill. The water rushed down the hilly streets, and at 1 o'clock this morning a roaring stream six feet deep passed down Mifflin Street. On many streets the lower floors of the houses were submerged and a number of small buildings were washed away. The loss will reach over $10,000. At Manayunk the streets were washed out, culverts were broken and houses and mills were flooded.

NEW YORK, July 27. — There were several thunder storms and heavy rains at various places in the surrounding country to-day, and was done to property by lightning and floods and a number of persons were seriously injured by electric bolts.

CHICAGO, July 27.—Armour's new beef house at the stock yards was destroyed by fire this evening, with most of its contents. Loss about $300,000; insurance $190,000.

Persico's Report.

BOSTON, July 27. — The correspondent of the Pilot at Home, cables: The first report from Monsignor Persico, the Pope's representative in Ireland, has been received at the Vatican, and is most laudatory of the Irish people. The English intriguers at Rome expected that Monsignor Persico would see Ireland through the Duke of Norfolk's eyes, and send such a report to Rome as would once for all estrange the Pope's sympathies from the cause of Irish home rule. Their malice has defeated itself. Mgr. Persico is well known in the United States, having successfully administered the diocese of Charleston, S. C., and been bishop of Savannah, Ga. He has successfully conducted many exceedingly delicate diplomatic relations for the Pope, who has unbounded confidence in him.

WASHINGTON POINTS.

The President Wanted All Around—Other Points.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—The Kansas City delegation, which came to Washington to invite the President to visit Kansas City during his contemplated western trip, was accorded a special reception in the east room of the White House about noon to-day. There were 100 in the party, including the leaders. When the President came in the chairman of the party, G. H. Allen, was introduced and spoke at some length regarding the invitation.

THE PRESIDENT

replied, expressing his pleasure at the cordiality of the invitation and its political aspect. He expressed a strong desire to see the west, and said the consideration he had already given the subject and the heartiness and sincerity of his invitation induced him to accept it at once. He could not now fix the exact date, but said that the time would be between the 1st and 15th of October. The President's remarks were loudly cheered, and when the applause had subsided, he turned to Mr. Allen and remarked sotto voce: "If this is any evidence of the way you will treat me when I go to Kansas City, I don't know when I shall be able to leave there." The President then spent some time examining the very containing 21,000 names and invitations, and was then introduced to the ladies of the party, who told him frankly they were not half as desirous of seeing him in Kansas City as they were Mrs. Cleveland. The delegation then viewed the various rooms of the White House, and afterwards went to the apartment where they were photographed in a body.

Commissioner Sparks, of the general land office, in a letter to the surveyor-general of California, has rejected the survey of part of townships 30 and 31 south range, claimed to have been executed by N. L. Berden, United States deputy surveyor, under contract dated Oct. 20, 1879.

THE COMMISSIONER

in his letter to the surveyor-general says: The evidence is on file in the General Land Office showing that deputy Berden made no surveys at all on the townships named and that his field notes and plats are fictitious and his pretended survey fraudulent.

The board appointed to examine the accounts of disbursing officer Yeatman, of the War Department, report everything absolutely correct.

A delegation from Lynchburg, Virginia, headed by Senator Daniel, called on the President and invited him to attend the state fair to be held at Lynchburg in October next. The President promised to consider the invitation.

THE SEAL FISHERIES.

The Secretary of the Treasury has received mail advices from Captain Shepard, commanding the revenue steamer Rush, in regard to his visit in Alaskan waters, and from these reports it appears the schooners Onward, Thornton and Adelaide, captured by the Corwin last summer, are still moored in Alaska. On the 25th of June Captain Shepard boarded and examined the steam schooner Kate and Annie of Portland, Oregon, Captain Sutzen, ten miles north-northeast of St. George Island, in Behring's Sea. The vessel was furnished with a number of small boats and all the necessary implements for taking seal, and the master admitted the vessel was on a

and that he had on board six sealskins which he said were taken before he entered Behring Strait. Captain Shepard informed him that in taking seal in any part of Behring Sea claimed by the United States, or in the Territory of Alaska or its waters, he was violating the laws of the United States, and if he was caught doing so he would be arrested. The vessel was seized, but he promised to obey the law and the vessels parted company. Captain Shepard says he made this report because of the fact that Special Treasury Agent G. R. Tingle, in charge of the Seal Islands of Alaska, has expressed his opinion of the law to be "That vessels manned, armed and provided with implements for and salt for curing the same, found within the waters of the Territory of Alaska, or that part of Behring Sea, claimed by the United States, were liable to seizure, though not found in the act of taking seal, and without other evidence than they had taken the seals in the waters named." "Though the evidence of the intention of violating the law in regard to taking seal when the opportunity is offered," says Captain Shepard, "I understand, I do not feel warranted in seizing vessels or making arrests until I have unimpeachable evidence that the law has been violated." Captain Shepard then details the seizure of the schooners Challenge and Annie Beck, recently reported from San Francisco. Assistant has telegraphed Captain Shepard that the department approves his action with reference to the schooner Kate and Annie, as also the statement that he does not feel warranted in seizing vessels until he has unimpeachable evidence that the law has been violated.
