DR. C. W. HIGGINS:

Dear Sir.—I feel and know now that I am gaining rapidly all the time, and I know not how to express my gratitude to you for relieving me of pain and misery. All doubt of you as a successful doctor, with me, disappeared with the neuralgia and catarrh in my head. Before I called on you I had been under the care of several other good doctors, but I got no relief whatever until I took your medicines. I have suffered several years with my diseases, but did not know what ailed me until you told me. I feel thankful for the cure that your medicines have given me, and willingly recommend you to all others that suffer with any chronic disease. I am your friend forever,

NOTICE!

MONEY can be forwarded from Salt Lake City to Liverpool as late as the middle of September for the company that will leave that port on or about the 14th of October, which will be the last company this season.

ALBERT CARRINGTON,
President of P. E. Fund Company.

Settled.—The case of the female combatants who fought so fiercely on Franklin Avenue the other day, was settled this morning. Both parties were so much in fault, according to the evidence, that the police judge had a hard job to tell "which was t'other," so he fined them $10 each.

Woman's Exponent for Sept. 1, contains "About a Utah Lady," "Youthful Experience," "R. S. Reports," "Woman, Her Sphere," "Hints on Education," "A Word to the Sisters," "Address to the Payson Relief Society," "Floral Hints," "Putting Off," "Household Hints," "Hygienic Notes," "Woman's Voice," "Make the Best of it," "Language of the Future," etc.

That Street Railroad Extension.—We are pleased to learn that the proposed extension of the street railroad from the Valley House along South Temple Street to the vicinity of Mr. DuRell's residence, thence northward to Wall Street and eastward again, will soon be commenced, probably within the next four weeks. The company have already a quantity of iron on hand with which to begin the extension, and they will have no difficulty in procuring the remainder.

Fatal Accident.—Yesterday afternoon or early this morning a young man named Fletcher, son of Jasper Fletcher of the First Ward, was accidentally killed while quarrying rock in one of the Canyons adjacent to the city. It appears that a blast had been fired, which did not go off as soon as anticipated, and the unfortunate youth went up to the spot to examine it, when it exploded, injuring him so severely that he soon expired.

An inquest was to be held on the body of the deceased this afternoon, by Coroner George J. Taylor and a jury.

Returned.—This morning Mr. C. R. Savage and Dr. J. M. Benedict returned from a trip westward. They went as far as San Francisco, but stopped at numerous points by the way. Mr. Savage brings back with him about thirty splendid views of scenery from such delightful spots as Lake Tahoe and vicinity, Lake Angeline, and Lake Mary, which latter is on the summit of the Sierras. The two gentlemen named had a most pleasant time during their absence from the City. Mr. Savage contemplates a professional trip eastward in a few days.

Lost His Horses.—Night before last a man named John Bowker, who has been engaged during the summer freighting between this City and Ophir, camped on the City Hall lot with a wagon and two span of horses. When he awoke yesterday morning one span of his animals was minus, and he has been unsuccessfully hunting them ever since. It is more than probable that the horses were stolen. Mr. Bowker is a blacksmith, and hails from American Fork.

Since writing the above we learn that Bowker recovered his horses to-day.

"Much Ado About Nothing."—Last night there was a big hullabaloo on Commercial St., arising out of a little. A young man bought a pair of pants for one dollar from a woman who lives in that locality, and after he had paid that sum she refused to give up the unmentionables, because of a previous debt owing by the young fellow, of two dollars. Then ensued a struggle between the two for the possession of the pantaleons, during which the female combatant got thrown upon the floor, but, with the tenacity for which her sex is proverbial, she held to his underpinning. He relieved her of a quantity of "capillary substance from the summit of her cranium," but this didn't hurt her, as it was not indigenous to her scalp. The two were finally brought up before Alderman Pyper, who fined the male belligerent $5.

A Bad Case.—Mr. W. W. Williams is building a large brick house on Third East Street, and has lately been his own watchman and slept on the new premises. He was awakened last night by a couple who had entered the house for immoral purposes, who had got into the same room and were only a few feet from him. On finding they were discovered the guilty pair immediately made their escape, but in the hurry the young man left his vest. In that article of apparel was the card of a bookkeeper of a mercantile house of this city. This morning Mr. Williams took the vest and card to him, which he admitted to be his property. On finding out, however, how matters stood he concluded that somebody had purloined his vest and tried to get him into a horrible scrape. On going to his trunk he discovered the vest was not his, he having one of similar color and material, however; besides the one found belonged to a young man of stouter proportions although of not much larger stature. Now Mr. Williams says he has no use for that vest, and don't want to keep it, and he is therefore desirous of returning it to the owner, who will oblige him by calling for it. By the way, it is a blue vest, of corded cloth, some of the buttons a little loose.

Going East.—We understand that in about a week the County Coroner, Geo. J. Taylor, purposes taking a trip eastward as far as Omaha, and perhaps Chicago. Those who contemplate suiciding will please take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

For Tooele.—A couple of U. S. deputy marshals left this morning for Tooele, and it is confidently asserted that they carry with them an order of Court, issued by Judge McKean, commanding the county officers of the people to deliver up to those marshals the county seal, records and papers. The Judge, McKean, has been called the champion habeas corpusser, but he will soon be entitled to stand in the front rank of mandamussers.

A Good Man Gone.—This morning William Francis Stockdale, late foreman for Messrs. Morris & Evans, of this City, who, it will be remembered, broke a blood vessel, from which he never recovered, after a sickness of eleven months, breathed his last at his residence in the 6th Ward. He was a native of Cornwall, England, and was born December 18, 1810. He was much respected by all who knew him. His funeral services will take place on Sunday morning, at 10 o'clock, in the 6th Ward school house.

The trade is expected to attend in their masons' regalia.

BY ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

Salmon.—Hon. A. P. Rockwood called this morning and showed us a letter, dated Washington, D. C., Sept. 3, from Hon. Spencer Baird, U. S. Fish Commissioner, informing him that Mr. Stone, Deputy U. S. Fish Commissioner, who expects to obtain a large supply of salmon eggs from the Sacramento river, would furnish Mr. Rockwood with any number of them that he desired for the purpose of further continuing his experiments in salmon culture in this Territory. Mr. Rockwood says that he has apparatus down at the Co-operative Fish Farm for hatching fifty-thousand salmon eggs, and that, with an outlay of fifty dollars he can fit up for hatching fifty thousand more. This outlay will be made, and he will send for one hundred thousand eggs from Sacramento. He has already fifteen thousand young salmon in the streams at his fish farm, and fifteen thousand doing well, in the Jordan and other rivers.

Theatre.—Another large and delighted audience assembled in the Theatre last night, and were kept in the best humor by the capital acting of the "Vokes" family in their funny specialty of the "Wrong Man in the Right Place." We did not see anybody among the audience who manifested that he was in the wrong place, everybody seemed to be so immensely tickled.

The comedy of "Won at Last" was nicely played by Messrs. Chaplin, Margetts, and Thorne, Misses Walters and D. Clawson, Mrs. B. Douglas, and the company.

This evening is the last appearance of the Vokes, previous to their return to London. They will present their highly attractive nautical extravaganza of "Fun in a Fog," Mr. Fred. Vokes appearing as "Percival Posthtlethwaite," Fawdon as "Dan," Miss Victoria as "Grace Gaybird," Jessie as "Ella Hamilton," Rosina as "Janet."

The performance will commence with the beautiful comedy of "Won at Last," in which Misses Walters and D. Clawson, Mrs. B. Douglas, and Messrs. Chaplin, Margetts and Thorne and the company appear.

By permission of General John E. Smith, a portion of the 14th regiment band, from Camp Douglas, will play the Regimental Overture and the Red Cloud Overture previous to the performance, and Lieber und Lieber an I the Sylvestre Overture during the intermission.

This is the only remaining chance of seeing the Vokes on the Salt Lake stage.

To-morrow evening "Nick of the Woods."

Superior Wines and Liquors.

HAVING lately tasted some Wines and Liquors, imported by Messrs. Wilton & Sangio, and professing to be a competent judge in these liquids, I can truly say that they cannot be equalled by those of any store in the city. I was particularly pleased with their splendid French Claret. Families and all lovers of a reliable beverage desiring to secure the genuine article and other pure Wines and Liquors would do well to call at the Old City Liquor Store.
