

claiming the principles of the everlasting gospel of the Son of God, to a dark and benighted world, with their voices, we will do it through the press; and we will not cease our exertions, until the knowledge of salvation shall go forth from the valleys of the mountains, to the ends of the earth; until all the elect of God receive it, and be gathered home to Zion; then we hope to be instrumental in spreading the knowledge of true and holy principles among them, (should it not be our happy lot to bear the gospel in person to the nations of the earth) that we may be prepared for the glorious reign of peace which will soon be extended over the whole world.

We tender to our illustrious guests our heartfelt thanks for the honor they have shown us, by their presence on this occasion. May the richest blessings of heaven and earth always be upon them; may they ever enjoy the light of the Spirit of Truth and Wisdom, that by their skillful direction, we may be enabled to employ our time, talents, profession, substance, and lives, in a proper manner. And may we all receive a reward in the celestial Kingdom of our God.

A blessing being pronounced upon the food, by Pres. H. C. Kimball, at 3 o'clock the company sat down to dinner.

After discussing the excellencies of the board, while yet the cloths were not removed, and the seats still occupied, next in order came the

REGULAR TOASTS.

The Kingdom of God—May its subjects increase, and its dominion extend, that soon this little earth may become naturalized, and join the assemblage of redeemed and celestialized worlds.

The First Presidency—Firm for the truth, guided by wisdom, powerful in spirit, and mighty in faith; may this people be led by their righteous counselors, until the earth shall be circumscribed with that truth and righteousness which emanates from God, through them.

The Twelve Apostles—Shining lights to the world, and ambassadors for the King of Glory; may their brilliancy be seen by the nations; and may they fill their consulships with honor to themselves, and glory to their Sovereign.

The Seventies—Messengers of salvation, and heralds of peace; may they proclaim the glad tidings of joy to the ends of the earth, and enjoy the fruits of their labors, when they shall have completed their work.

The Fair Daughters of Israel—Pure and noble, virtuous and beautiful; may their days be happy, and their blessings numerous; may they rise with their companions in the scale of being, and assist in the great work of restitution and regeneration, while the wicked, through their own corrupt degeneracy, shall sink into oblivion.

The Spirit, the Pen, and the Press—The Spirit to dictate, the Pen to indite, and the Press, with the truth, to the world shall give light.

The Press—The greatest preacher of righteousness in the world; makes its thousands of proselytes where man can make but one; may the time speedily come, when every nation, kindred, tongue and people, will have such a minister, conducted by the saints of God, within their midst.

The Deseret News—The trumpet of the valleys, which sounds the true notes that every saint understands, and is a silent preacher in every habitation; may it continue under the same conductor, guided by the same Spirit, the type set by the same hands, and perused by all the world, in time, and in eternity.

The Bee-Hive State—The Kolob of the Union; in her centres the greatest wisdom; round her all other States will have to revolve; from her receive their light. Happy the people who will seek the greatest glory.

Home Manufacture—The bulwark of independence; prosperity to every man who will put forth his means to establish home manufactures in the valleys of the mountains.

Our Mountain Home—Dearly bought, and dearly loved.

The First Presidency—A trinity, emblematical in knowledge, holiness, and power, of that which abides in the heavens.

The Seventies—Farmers of the world; with their seed sown broadcast, may they reap such harvests as shall abundantly repay their toil.

Our Martyred Seer—Having finished his work on the earth, he has ascended on high, to set in order what is wanting for the salvation and exaltation of his brethren in the mansions above.

TUNE—"Praise to the man."

Truth—"Crashed to earth, will rise again; Th' eternal years of God are hers; But err'd, wounded, writhes in pain, And dies amid her worshippers."

The World—Full of arts, science, and philosophy, yet ignorant of the principles of life and salvation;—eligible candidates for promotion in that happy land "beyond the bounds of time and space."

TUNE—"We're travelling home."

Deseret—Strong in her infancy, and forward in her childhood; may she grow to maturity, and eclipse her elder sister, States, and give birth to sons that shall rule the world.

The Body Typography—"Though last, not least."

A few Volunteer Toasts followed:

The Deseret News—May its subscription list increase ten-fold annually; and may all its subscribers pay for the paper.

Geo. A. Smith.

The Printers of Deseret—May our brethren the printers ever continue to publish the principles of life and salvation; setting in order the great truths of the gospel; distributing knowledge and intelligence to the world; composing practical rules for the benefit of mankind; pressing light into the dark corners of the earth; rolling forth the Kingdom of God, until the tokens of its universal triumph over the superstitions of monks, friars, and devils, and all the delegated powers of darkness on the earth, shall be displayed in the eyes of the nations; and men shall know that God is the Lord.

PHINEAS H. YORKE.

The Card of Invitation to the Printers' Festival—A beautiful specimen of workmanship, and proof of their attainments in the "Art preservative of all arts."

PHILIPS.

The tables were cleared away, and the sweet sounds of the thrilling music gave indications to all, that the hour had come for a social recreation in the dance.

Having spent a happy hour in "tripping the light fantastic toe," the following song, composed for the occasion by J. McKnight, was sung by the "Glee Club," aided by the company:

THE MOUNTAIN STATE.

TUNE—"Old Granite State."

We have come to the mountains,
Where the silvery, sparkling fountains
Flow abundant from the bounties
Of fair Freedom's Mountain State;
We're a band of brethren,
We are Zion's freemen,
And we're called Mormons,
But we're chosen ones, and great.

We have fled from oppression,
And by practice and profession,
We are, buldly, for secession
From a false and fickle world;
And we seek no alliance,
And we scorn all compromise,
And we fear no defiance
To their malice, at us hurl'd.

Here we shall become a nation,
Unto whose exalted station,
Kings shall journey for salvation,
In the day of mighty power;
For the time's approaching,
When man's pride and boasting
Shall be changed to mourning,
In a dark and gloomy hour.

Saints, arise, put on your armor,
Spurn the intrigues of the chamber;
Stand where Israel's unfurled banner
Waves in grandeur and alone;
Mark it proudly waving,—
To the truth denoting,
That the truth's promoting
Saints to occupy the throne.

Let our hearts, then, be united,
And our vows to each be plighted,
That we never shall be divided,
Come prosperity or woe;
And we'll swell the chorus,
To the heavens o'er us,
And the loved before us,
Who're assembled with us now.

We have come to the mountains,
Where the silvery, sparkling fountains
Flow luxuriant from the bounties
Of fair Freedom's Mountain State;
We're a band of brethren,
We are Zion's freemen,
And we're joined in union,
And we fear no tyrant's fate.

Scotch Reels and Cotillions being next in order on the "Bill of Fare," each joined in his turn with gladness heart; and

"All went merry as a marriage bell."

A song, "Farewell to Deseret," by PARLEY P. PRATT, relieved the weary ones, and the dance was again resumed, with as much zeal as before; which was continued, interspersed with the songs, "Come, Come away," by P. P. PRATT, and a comic piece, the "Tee Song," until half past nine, p. m., when Supper was served out.

An Address from President Huber C. Kimball followed the supper. He remarked:

That this was an occasion of no ordinary interest to himself, and also to those present. He looked back upon scenes past, when the church was encompassed by enemies, and the saints persecuted, driven from their homes, forced to seek shelter in dens and caves of the earth, inhumanly slaughtered by those who thirsted for their blood; and when their beloved Prophet and Patriarch were martyred for the testimony of Jesus; upon those scenes he turned to gaze a moment, and contrasted them with what he now beheld, and his heart was filled with gratitude and thanksgiving to God, for his goodness to his saints. It was meet that praise should ascend from every heart, in that we were so happily situated, and surrounded by all the comforts, and even the luxuries of life, as the hills abundantly indicated.

There was nothing that he could see, which was inappropriate or unbecoming this occasion; on the contrary, order, simplicity, harmony, peace, and the Spirit of God eminently characterized and pervaded the whole assembly; and at no festival in the Valley had he enjoyed himself better than on this evening.

Let us be faithful to our trusts, said he, and live humbly, and walk uprightly, and deal justly before God, and no power on earth can ever war our peace, or disturb our prosperity, in these quiet valleys of the mountains.

He closed his remarks by expressing his feelings of regard for the Fraternity; and having blessed the congregation in the name of the Lord, took his leave for the evening.

President Young then arose and pronounced his blessing upon us, and also departed.

The songs, "Fine old Irish Gentleman," "Old Adam was a Gentleman," and "All Alone," were sung with great zeal during intervals between the dances; together with a So-Lo, by President W. Richards. And the whole was concluded by the following song, composed for the occasion, by Jas. Bond, in which the guests joined in full chorus:

THE VALS OF DESERT.

TUNE—"Rose of Alandale."

Let freedom reign and peace abound,
Our thanks to God be given;
The hills with gladness songs resound,
While we create our heaven.
For hearts are glad—joy lights each face,
When saints and friends are met;
For Zion's found a resting place—
The Vales of Deseret.

Here truth shall lead, and wisdom guide,
And righteous laws go forth;
Ours shall be all our pride,
While we remain on earth.
God is our King—and precious pearls
Are in his kingdom set;
The heavenly standard here unfurls—
The Vales of Deseret.

The peace of heaven with us abides,
With words of love we're led;
The chosen of the Lord presides,
For Brigham's at the head.
Though hell may rise, and devils rage,
No fears our souls shall fret;
In freedom's cause we'll here engage,—
The Vales of Deseret.

Then while we form our infant State,
In God we'll put our trust;
For truth and righteousness dictate
The counsels of the just.
If honest men, from fear and doubt
And trouble, wish to get,
Here is the place the Lord points out,—
The Vales of Deseret.

Invitations were extended only to the Presidency, and those of the Twelve in the Valley, besides the Typographic corps of the city, on account of the limited room. The whole number present was upwards of 75; and a murmur company we never saw assembled.

The feast provided, was an honor to the valleys of the mountains. It would indeed be difficult to set a more splendid table, at this season, in the States, where luxuries abound.

The music was superb; and the soul that was not moved by such concord of sweet sounds, as Shakespeare says, is "fit for treason, stratagem, and spoils."

It may be said, to the honor and credit of all connected with this Festival, that neither hot nor intoxicating drinks were used;—the pure, sparkling water being much more invigorating. Everything passed off with the utmost satisfaction of all present, as was plainly manifested in the cheerful countenances and happy expressions of the guests;—

"And when they all do meet again,
May we be there to see."

PHILADELPHES.

G. S. L. City, March 5, 1852.

MARRIED.

By the editor, Feb. 26, at the house of elder Franklin D. Richards, in this city, Mr. JARED C. ROUN-
DY and Miss LOUISA JENNE.

May their table ever compare with the bounteous richness of the cake received.—[Ed.]

In North Canyon Ward, on Sunday, Feb. 22, 1852, by bishop John Stoker, Mr. ROBERT TELFORD and Miss REBECCA R. STODARD.

At the same time and place, and by the same, Mr. CHARLES H. STODARD and Miss ANN TELFORD.

Also, at the same time and place, and by the same, Mr. JOHN D. TELFORD and Miss SARAH M. COLTRIN.

To those who are to love inclined,
We say, just keep two things in mind:
One is,—when you th'above have read,
Contrive to follow where they've led;
And, while you spend the honey moon,
Keep up, and do as they have done,—
Enclose the printers their just fee,
So you'll have bliss eternally.

On Sunday evening, by bishop John Stoker, Mr. NATHANIEL P. WORDEN and Mrs. HARRIET SESSIONS.

TO THE SEVENTIES!!

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE.—The Seventies, belonging to the 33d Quorum, are requested to meet at the house of Joseph Cain, in the 14th Ward, on every Monday evening, commencing on the 8th of March. The brethren are requested to be punctual, as the business is of the greatest importance, to the members of the Quorum in general.

By order,
JAMES BOND, Clerk.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given to the members of the 33d Quorum of Seventies, to meet on every Sabbath, at the house of A. N. Hill, in the 14th Ward, and further notice shall be given. We wish all those who cannot attend to send us their names, when and where born, residence, occupation, when baptized, when ordained, and who by, immediately, so that we can report to the General Clerk of the Seventies.

ISAAC LEANY,
DAVID MOSS,
Presidents.

A HINT IN SEASON.

THE SAINTS throughout the valleys of the mountains will no doubt recollect the covenant they made at the General Conference on the 10th September last, that they would tithe themselves and pay one tenth of all they possessed, in addition to the tithing they then owed.

Since that time very many have obeyed that covenant: have paid their tithing in full, and have got their certificates to that effect. They have realized too, that blessings follow obedience; and so far as their tithing is concerned, they have the answer of a good conscience toward God.

There are, however, many who have not yet paid their tithing; not perhaps because they do not intend to do it, but are delaying their settlements in consequence of being so busy in their farming operations and other business. To all such, this hint is thrown out: the April Conference is drawing very near, at which time the clerks in the General Tithing Office, will be required to report to the Conference who and how many have paid their tithing, and who have not. There is yet time for the brethren to make the settlements, and we have no doubt they will do it before Conference. A hint to the saints is generally sufficient.

EDWARD HUNTER,
Presiding Bishop.

Davis, late of Davis County, in the Territory of Utah, deceased, to appear at the next July Term of the First Judicial District Court of said Territory, to be held at Great Salt Lake City, and show cause, if any there be, why the proceedings of John S. Fulmer, hereinafter appointed Receiver, of said estate shall not be approved, and the real estate of which the said Daniel C. Davis, died possessed, should not be sold to pay the debts against the estate.

TANNER and Currier, would inform the citizens of Deseret, that he is now locating his Tannery in G. S. L. City, 19th Ward, one block south of the Bath House.

Having served a regular apprenticeship in the State of Vermont, and carried on business quite extensively in Clinton Co., N. Y., he flatters himself that he will be able to give satisfaction to all those who will patronize him with their Best Hides and Tan bark. He expects to commence operating in the business about the first of March. He will give the highest prices for Beef Hides, Horse Hides, Calf Skins, Sheep Skins, &c. A cook stove and a yoke of oxen will be given in exchange for Tan bark; and you sawyers that have green logs at your mill, hew off the bark and save it, for it will be better than the California gold dust in exchange for leather next fall; Pine and Hemlock bark is the right kind.

AN ACT

IN relation to Marks and Brands:

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the Governor and Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah, that the General Office for recording Marks and Brands shall be kept at the Seat of Government, and the Recorder thereof shall be elected by the Legislative Assembly, and his term of office shall be four years and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 2. There shall also be an Auxiliary Recorder's Office in every other county in this Territory, the duties of which are hereby devolved upon the county Clerks of their respective counties.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Recorder at the Seat of Government to keep a fair and faithful record of all Marks and Brands in a Book suitable for the purpose, which shall be free for the inspection of all persons interested. Said Record shall show the name of each owner of the Mark or Brand so recorded, together with their place of residence; and it shall be his duty to define and designate the particular Mark or Brand to be used by each individual applying therefor.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Recorder to consult the convenience of each person applying for a Mark or Brand; provided, the Mark or Brand so applied for has not previously been given or recorded to some other person, and to furnish to any person desiring it, a certificate of his or her Brand. Provided, also, if a character is wanted for a Brand for which there is no type, the person applying therefor shall pay the extra expense thereof.

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the General Recorder to furnish printed copies of all Marks or Brands to the Clerks of the different counties where such auxiliary office is established, to the amount that shall be applied and paid for at the rate of twenty-five cents for each printed sheet so printed, of common writing paper, printed on four sides.

Sec. 6. Whenever any person wishing to obtain a recorded Mark or Brand, application therefor shall be made to the General Recorder's Office at the Seat of Government; and if said applicant resides in any other county than the one in which the Seat of Government is located, said application shall be made to the Auxiliary Recorder in said county; and it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the county Court in such county, to report said application, if there shall be any on hand, once a month, to the General Recorder's Office, and when said Mark or Brand is received, to make an entry thereof in a book, suitable for the purpose, to be kept in his office, free to the inspection of all persons interested; and upon the reception of a certificate of a Brand, to deliver the same to the said applicant; he shall also keep, free to the inspection of all persons, a copy of all the Marks and Brands recorded in the Territory, which shall be furnished him by the General Recorder. Copies of all the recorded Marks and Brands shall be furnished said county Clerks, or upon the completion of every succeeding sheet.

Sec. 7. Any person finding cattle or any animals, having recorded Marks or Brands, in any enclosure or other place where they may be doing damage, shall immediately secure and take good care of the same, and search diligently for the owner thereof, and restore the animal or animals to said owner if the same can be found, and the owner shall be liable for all reasonable costs and damages. And if said owner cannot be found after diligent search, said animal or animals may be driven to the Stray Pounds.

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of every person selling or disposing of any animal having a recorded Brand to reverse the same on said animal; but if any person shall alter or deface any recorded Brand on any animal, or place or cause to be placed his own or other Brand on any animal not belonging to said individual, any person so offending shall be subject to any or all the penalties of this Act, together with further punishments, applicable to felonious offenses at the discretion of the Court having jurisdiction.

Sec. 9. Whenever any animal or animals having recorded Brands are put into the Stray Pound, it shall be the duty of the overseer or keeper of the Stray Pounds, to use due diligence to ascertain the owner or owners of said stock, both by reference to the record of Brands and otherwise, and to notify the owner or owners of the same if known, or publish the same with the Marks or Brands in four public places in the county, or some newspaper having general circulation in said county within three days from the time said stock are put in the Pound.

Sec. 10. It shall be the duty of the Pound Keepers, and it is also required of all Public Officers of the Territory in their respective counties or precincts, to examine all trains and droves of cattle passing through their respective counties, and if they shall find any such animal or animals having recorded Brands, which said Brands do not belong to the individual purporting to own said animal or animals, and the same has not been reversed thereon; to take the said animal or animals into their custody as stolen property, and advertise the owner of said Brand thereof, who shall be liable for all expenses and damage so incurred, if it shall appear that he has disposed of said animal or animals without reversing his Brand.

Sec. 11. The Clerks of the Auxiliary Offices in their respective counties shall receive and forward a fee of fifty cents to the General Recorder for each Mark or Brand applied for, as also twenty-five cents for each sheet of copies of printed Brands required; and he may receive the sum of twenty-five cents for his own fee for every Brand applied for through his office, which shall be in full for his services.

Sec. 12. The Brands now recorded, and hereafter to be recorded, shall be arranged for distribution to the several counties, under the head of their several counties, so that all Marks and Brands owned in one county, shall be classed together, distinguishing at the head of each list the name of the county in which they belong.

Sec. 13. The Pound Keepers in their respective counties shall gather up all strays thereon, and after complying with the requirements of this Act in relation to seeking diligently for the owner, shall take a true description of, and value each stray remaining in his custody, and after advertising the same as herein required, devote all such strays, or the proceeds arising from the sales thereof, to the benefit of the Emigrating Fund, the company of which shall pay over the appraised value of such strays to the owner of said strays, if found, after deducting all expenses and reasonable charges incurred.

Sec. 14. Any officer or individual violating any provision of this Act, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than one dollar, nor exceeding one thousand dollars, at the discretion of the Court having jurisdiction thereof.

Sec. 15. All acts and parts of acts heretofore passed in relation to Marks and Brands, are hereby repealed; provided, Marks and Brands heretofore recorded shall be and remain valid.

Sec. 16. Nothing herein shall be so construed as to interfere with peaceable animals running on their accustomed range, unless they are known to be strays, irrespective of any Mark or Brand.

THE THIRD TERM of the Parent School of Deseret University commenced on Monday, Oct. 27, in the 13th Ward School House, where an opportunity now offers for persons to qualify themselves for teachers in common schools, or for improvement in the educational branches which render the duties of life pleasing. The terms are, for the common branches, $5.00, one half in advance.

Professor Pratt having been engaged to assist in the services of the School, Astronomy, Mathematics, Algebra, &c., will be taught. As the school is not calculated for more than 75 or 100 scholars, early attention will secure a privilege for those who may wish to improve in knowledge.
