AN ENJOYABLE EVENING.

Entertainment for Benefit of Company H Highly Successful.

A delightful entertainment was that provided last night at the national guard armory for the benefit of company H A fairly large crowd was present, and A fairly large crowd was present, and after the completion of the program they danced until midnight. The feature of the program was the rendering of several anthems of the recent contest, among them being "Throned Amidst Her Mountains," "I'll Sing Thy Name, O Utah," "Land of Our Home," and "Utah, We Are Proud of Thee," Following the anthems, a set of tableaux was given, in which successful, and rejected anthem writers were depicted, a football team was shown, and a number of military poses were shown. John Milton rendered a dramatic reading, while the anthems were read by Prof. F. A. Metcalf, The entertainment was in charge of Mrs. Kate Bridewell Anderson.

NO WRONG INTENT.

Terry Brothers Brought Back From Plain City to Settle With Landlady.

Deputy Sheriff Andrew Smith, Jr., went to Plain City. Weber county, yesterday and brought two prisoners back to this and brought two prisoners back to this city. The men are Alfred and James R. Terry and they are wanted here for attempting to jump their board bill amounting to $12,75, which they owed to Mrs. Jeanetta Brown. As soon as they arrived in the city they settled the bill and paid the costs and satisfied the woman that they had no intention of defrauding her.

CARDS FOR CHILDREN.

Clerk Judd of the board of education has received 200 pretty Christmas cards for distribution among the kindergarten children of the city school with the com-pliments of B. A. McMillen, the school furniture and supply dealer. The cards have been turned over to Primary Super-visor Miss Pollock, who distributed them at the school exercises today. THESE WILL RECEIVE.

STUDENTS DID WELL.

Those of All Hallows' Present "The Miser" in Splendid Style.

The assembly room of All Hallows' college was well filled last night, on the occasion of the dramatic entertainment presented by the students of the col-lege, and the entire comedy of "The Miser" was given with a faithfulness to the spirit and the letter of the play that was much enjoyed by the many patrons, friends and students of the institution present. An agreeable fea-ture of the evening was the music fur-nished by the college orchestra under Prof. Pedersen, an organization that has made remarkable progress during

After the close of the entertainment, President Guinan congratulated the students on the work of the term, and called on Rev. Ryan of London, who is visiting the Marist fathers here, for a few remarks. The visitor praised the boys for the dramatic ability they had displayed, and the creditable work accomplished during the term,
