BASTERN. THE INDIAN WAR

CHICAGO, 3.—Lient, Gen. Sheridan has not received information from the seat of war since Wednesday. General Crook, who arrived at Omaha to-day, telegraphed Gen. Sheridan that nothing was received to the description of the description. ed at headquarters there. Crook thinks Merritt should reach Payne's command by Saturday forences. General Sheridan believes Payne would be able to maintain his command against the Territory, to proceed to Alamosa and thence to Pagosa Springs. Four companies of infantry will be concentrated at Fort Dodge to follow up if necessary.

Washington, 3.—The statement made here by Mr. Riddell, agent of ex-Senator Dorsey, in connection with the mail contracts held by the latter, throws new light upon the Indian trouble in the tite country. The statement is substantially as follows: Ex-Senator Dorsey has the contract for carrying the mails from White River, Colorado, to Rollins, Wyoming Territory, the route passing through the Ute country. Some time ago the subcontractor abandoned bis contract expecting to be able to renew it at mother man. The sub-contractor, in everyor, is reported to have decilined to surrender the route to the new contractor. Finally, in order to protect the contractor, the Post-office Department was obliged to idea of an excursion on a monster issue an order to the postmaster on scale to meet General Grant upon the route not to deliver the mails his arrival in San Francisco, which the route not to deliver the mails to any one except the rightful contractor. The old contractor is reported to have gone over the route burning the grass and fodder for a long distance, killing stock and throwing every possible obstacle in the way of the performance of the contract. He is reported to have depreciations, and the trouble now.

orders in refraining from firing on the Indians until attacked, and that is in strict accordance with the peace policy of the Interior Department. The officers of that department assert, however, that the army, now as always, moves independently of the Interior Department, and would not be likely to consult its policy when attacked by Indians.

He dehounce Mrs. Sprague's trustee and her lawyers as conspirators, and threatens to bring action against them. This attitude will prove annoying to Mrs. Sprague, who will have to fight both her husband and Chaffee, who dislikes her greatly. The affair cannot be settled without further litigation, and all inter-
