CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Pinchback's Case.

WASHINGTON, 16. — Edmunds spoke at length against the admission of Pinchback and denied the legality of the legislature which elected him. McDonald says it is not in the power of a state nor a senate to settle the question of the legal existence of a body choosing a senator. This case must be determined upon its merits, and the law governing it was plain enough. It was well known that if it had not been for the interference of a federal judge, the persons composing the legislature which elected Pinchback would never have been in a position to elect any one. He denied that there was any prima facie case on which Pinchback could be admitted.

Howe next proceeded to address the Senate in favor of the admission of Pinchback and of the legality of the legislature which elected him, but before the end of his speech he yielded for an executive session, after which the Senate adjourned till seven thirty p.m.

On reassembling in the evening, Howe finished his speech, and Logan followed on the same side, and predicted that murder, crime and confusion would be the result in Louisiana if the Senate refused to seat Pinchback.

At 9.45 Morton rose to close the debate. He said it was manifest that the democrats had made this a party question. He argued that every vote against Pinchback would be, in effect, to demoralize the republican party in Louisiana, disturb the peace of the State and produce bloodshed; if he was rejected it would be a declaration that he was not elected by the legislature of the State, and calling upon the President to recognize it. If the Senate refused to recognize the Kellogg government now, what ground would the President have to stand upon? The democrats well understood this, and saw the trap into which the republicans were walking.

At the end of Morton's speech, the question being on Edmunds' amendment to insert the word "not" in the resolution, so that it would read, "Resolved that Pinchback be not admitted, &c.," West said there had been such a variety of contrary opinions developed that he was unwilling to trust the question on the admission of his colleague to the vote now, and he moved to postpone its further consideration till the second Monday in December.

Thurman said that the Senate had been told often that the public interest demanded action on the resolution, he therefore opposed its postponement.

West's motion to postpone was agreed to, 33 to 30, as follows—yeas, Alcorn, Allison, Boutwell, Bruce, Burnside, Cameron, of Pa., Cameron, of Wis., Clayton, Conover, Cragin, Dawes, Dorsey, Ferry, of Mich., Frelinghuysen, Hamilton, Hamlin, Harvey, Howe, Ingalls, Jones, of Nev., McMillan, Mitchell, Morrill, of Me., Morrill, of Vt., Morton, Oglesby, Paddock, Patterson, Sargent, Sherman, Spencer, West, Windom, 33; nays, Bayard, Bogy, Booth, Caperton, Christiancy, Cockerell, Cooper, Davis, Eaton, Goldthwaithe, Gordon, Hitchcock, Johnson, Johnston, Jones, of Fla., Kelly, Kernan, McCreery, McDonald, Maxey, Merriam, Norwood, Randolph, Ransom, Saulsbury, Stevenson, Thurman, Wallace, White, and Withers, 30. Edmunds and Robertson not voting. When the names were called of Anthony and Wright, who would have voted yea, they were paired with Wadleigh and Dennis, who would have voted nay. Logan said he would withhold his vote, as he did not desire to vote against all his friends, but he thought they were making a great mistake. When the name of Ferry, of Ct., was called, Eaton announced that his colleague was paired with Cameron, of Pa., but that the Senator had already voted. Eaton supposed that Cameron had voted by mistake; Cameron, of Pa., said he voted intentionally, and he was paired with Terry upon the question of admitting Pinchbeck, but not on this question.

Frelinghuysen offered a resolution that the Senate approve the action before taken by the President of the U. S. in the protection of Louisiana from domestic violence, and are of opinion that he should continue to recognize in that State the existing government; several democratic senators objected to its present consideration and it was laid over till morning. The Senate at 1.50 a.m. adjourned.

EASTERN.

McKean's Successor Nominated—Black Hills Expedition to be Prevented—After U. S. Commissioners, &c.

WASHINGTON, 16.—The President has nominated Isaac C. Parker, of Mo., for chief Justice of Utah, vice McKean; J. B. Allen, for U. S. Attorney in Washington Territory, and Oliver A. Patten, of W. Va., for register of the land office at Salt Lake.

The Secretary of War has addressed a communication to General Sherman, saying that all expeditions to the Black Hills country must be prevented as long as the present treaty exists.

Mr. Lyman, chief of the civil service board of the Treasury Department, reported to the Secretary of the Treasury, to-day, that in accordance with instructions, all the sub-boards had been abolished.

The report of the House committee on the expenditures of the Department of Justice, shows that A. F. Perry, of Ohio, received $10,000 as counsel against the Union Pacific Railway, under the act of Congress. The committee believe that hereafter, Congress, in authorizing the employment of special counsel, ought always to prescribe some limitation to the amount to be paid for the service. The committee say that, in the case of North Carolina, it was in evidence, and we think is undeniable as to that district, and doubtless as to others, that much of the amount paid the commissioners was for warrants issued and hearings upon warrants in frivolous cases, the controlling motive with many of these commissioners is no doubt to make business for the purpose of getting fees, and this conduct on the part of these commissioners not only enhances their fees and makes a charge on the government, but likewise creates an additional charge and a much heavier one in the arrest of prisoners and the cost of keeping and transportation, and in the fees to the deputy marshals and the mileage of the district attorneys. Notably has this been the case in the western district of Arkansas and in western North Carolina, and perhaps in other districts where these large expenditures have been made in payments of the fees of commissioners. The attention of the respective judges of the several districts named, and of the judiciary of the country being now thus publicly called to these facts induces your committee to hope that a recurrence of these abuses in future may be prevented; hereafter, however, with guards and restraints imposed by new law, much if not all this fraud can and ought to be checked. The committee is confident, as touching these expenditures, that if this law be faithfully administered, and strictly carried out, there can be no fraud with collusion of judges, clerks, marshals and district attorneys.

Senatorial Protest.

NEW YORK, 16.—Senator Sargent and Jones called on the commissioner of the general Land Office to-day, and made a strong verbal protest, and outlined the points of a written argument which they intend to file within a few days against Sutro's application to have his tunnel royalty clause inserted in patents for all mines in districts near the Comstock lode. They stated that they would produce a copy of Sutro's original map, showing his own declination of the Comstock lode, and argued, that as the question of what constitutes a lode was necessarily a mere matter of opinion, the burden of proof must in any event be thrown on Sutro to establish, affirmatively, that any particular mine is in that lode and subject to the royalty provisions.

Poor Woods Place Hunting—An Unjust Judge Removed at Last.

The fight against Governor Axtell of Utah originated, and has been promoted by ex-Governor Woods, in hope of being reinstated; Woods is also making efforts to obtain either the superintendency of the San Francisco mint, or some foreign mission, but he is regarded as an impecunious place hunter, without chances of success.

Sargent, to-day, had an interview with General Bennett, chief of ordnance, as to the issue of new arms for the militia of California, made possible under the late law authorizing the States to be credited with such arms as were faithfully disposed of during the war of the rebellion. He told Bennett that a portion of them were burned in the Sacramento armory, and represented California's claim to a new issue. Bennett said he would, in a few days, write to the Governor of California, reciting the law and requesting detailed information of what was done with the old arms. If this information is promptly furnished before the appropriation is exhausted by other States having similar claims, California will get a new supply without difficulty.

The nomination of ex-Congressman Parker, of Mo., to be Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Utah, involves the removal of Judge J. B. McKean, but does not indicate any change in the policy of the administration regarding the question of polygamy. His removal, and that of the present register of the Land Office in Salt Lake are caused by what the President deems fanatical and extreme conduct on the part of these officers, as evidenced by their violent attacks on Gov. Axtell and on certain senators who recommended his appointment, and by several acts of McKean, which are considered ill advised and tyrannical, and in excess of his powers as judge.

Bridge Swept Away.

SCRANTON, Pa., 16.—The magnificent bridge spanning the Susquehanna at Pittston was swept away by a flood to-night, about ten minutes after the passenger train passed over, the river riding rapidly and full of immense cakes of ice; it is feared that the two passenger bridges lower down will be destroyed.

Strike Ended.

FALL RIVER, Mass., 16. — The mill operatives' strike is ended; the mills will open on Thursday.

Jagger Elected.

CINCINNATI, 16.—The standing committee of the diocese of Southern Ohio voted unanimously against the confirmation of Dekoven as bishop of Illinois. Twenty-three dioceses, so far, have voted for the confirmation of Dr. Jagger as bishop of Southern Ohio, which confirms his election.

The Full Vote in New Hampshire.

CONCORD, N. H., 16.—The full vote of Cheney is 39,225; for Roberts, 39,163; White 754. The democrats elect the congressmen in the first and second districts; the republicans the congressmen in the third.

Steamer Burned.

ST. LOUIS, 16.—The steamer W. J. Lewis, while coaling at Chester, Ills., to-day, took fire and was burned to the water; the watchman, colored, the fireman and five deck passengers were drowned, and another fatally scalded; loss $50,000, insured $33,000.
