MAJOR SCOFIELD

Placed His Blankets on the Floor, Laid Down and Then Shot Himself

San Francisco, Aug. 6 .- Maj. and Paymaster William B. Scofield, son of the late Lieut. Gen. Scofield, U. S. A., retired, committed suicide at his residence at 492 Twenty-third street, some time between noon and 6 o'clock today, by shooting himself in the left temple. He left a note addressed "To whom it may concern," reading: "This is deliberate suicide. No one is to The discovery was made by his wife, who upon returning home at 6 clock this evening went to her husband's room and found him lying dead on the floor with a pistol in his hand. He had ta in off his coat, vest, collar and cuffs, un iled his army blankets on the floor, iaid down on them and apparently fired shot with deliberation

The reason given by his family for the deed is worry over his ill-health as the result of service in the Philippines in addition to an attack of locomotor staxia and that he would become a burden to his wife. Maj. Scoffeld contracted dysentery in the Philippines and went to Japan early in the year. Not improving very rap-idly, he came to San Francisco last April and entered the general hospital at the Presidio. Just before he sailed from Nagasaki he was informed by ca-ble of his father's death in Florida.

After spending some time in the general hospital he became somewhat im-proved and was granted a three months' leave of absence and has been residing with his wife.

Maj. Scoffeld was 46 years of age and formerly a teller in the Nevada Nation-al bank in this city and also for a time in the New York branch of the bank. He entered the service in 1598 as ma-jor and paymaster of volunteers and served through the Philippine and Peerved through the Philippine and Pein campaigns. When the army was reorganized in 1900 he was made captain and paymas-ter in the regular army and a year lat-er was promoted to the rank of major. Two years ago he was married in the Philippines to Miss Laura Eager. He her her her Bickmand major and has one brother, Richmond, major and quarterinaster in the army, who is at present stationed in Manila, and a sis-ter, Mrs. W. D. Andrews, the wife of
