Wired from Washington.

WASHINGTON, 25.—In yesterday's cabinet meeting, after a short discussion of the rules of the Civil Service Commission, a copy was given each member for examination.

There was some discussion of the question whether the National Board of Health or the Maine Hospital Service should direct and control the expenditure of the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention and suppression of epidemic diseases, but no conclusion was reached.

Secretary Chandler has issued instructions to Rear-Admiral Baldwin, commanding the United States naval forces on the European station, to proceed with his personal staff to Moscow, to attend the forthcoming cyronation of the Czar.

The Secretary of the Interior has received a joint letter from McCullom, deputy collector of customs, and John F. Malo, member of the Canadian Parliament, under date of Turtle Mountain, Minnesota, April 14th, in which they say the Turtle Mountain band of Chippewa Indians are in a starving condition, and unless they be relieved, few of them will be alive to meet the Commissioner of Indian Affairs in June, as they now anticipate doing. The Acting Commissioner has directed the Indian Agent at the Lake to use every effort to provide for these Indians at once.

The Hill investigation is again postponed, Robinson's place on the Commission being yet unsupplied.

Upon the recommendation of the Civil Service Commission, the President appointed D. R. Randolph Kein of Pennsylvania, Chief Examiner of the Commission, and W. W. White of Atlanta, Georgia, clerk of the Commission.

The sale of Otoe lands in Kansas and Nebraska will occur May 31st, as the day first appointed was Decoration Day.

The Deadly Cyclone.

NEW ORLEANS, 25.—The Times-Democrat special gives the following complete list of deaths in Beauregard from the cyclone: Mary A. Mitchell, Anne Classing, Mrs. Huber, George White, Ernest Baker, Mrs. Westerfield and infant child, John W. Ross, Miss E. Terrell, Jerry Mercer, colored, J. A. Williams and W. Langford, Eula Benton, Wm. Parker. Louis Parker, a child of Julia Scheratt aged ten, Milton Story, Captain Lamkin, Dr. Luther Jones, wife and two children, Georgia Mitchell, Rev. J. Green of Crystal Springs, W. A. Heating of Wesson, John S. Terrel, Sandifer and wife, Joe Harst, colored, Caleb Ellis, a child of Melissa Bush, and a child of Freeman Easterling. At Beauregard to-day all was bustle and confusion. Gangs of men are at work getting out goods from the wrecked stores and scores of teams hauling recovered property. The homeless people were gotten together with what was remaining of their effects and the people were moving them in wagons and carts. A construction train was moving the debris and broken box cars. A relief committee, headed by L. O. Bridgewell, is systematically at work issuing rations and distributing clothing. Doctors Lesman and Fitz are also assisting the wounded. Assistance also came from Jackson, Utica, and other points. In the rounds among the wounded, sad scenes were witnessed. Their groans and moans are heartrending. It is particularly touching to see little children, a number of them scarcely more than babies; scarcely a murmur is heard from the little ones, and none complained. One little girl of three years wanted "Mamma tome and fix arm;" poor, battered and bruised little arm, no one could fix it but "mamma," and mamma was in the next room all unconscious of her baby, hurt unto death. There was a five-year-old boy whose face was bruised and battered, and whose head was mashed by an ugly wound. He was unconscious, but even with his brain clouded and not knowing where he felt pain, he moaned and rolled in bed. The little boy is still unconscious to-night.

Wounded at Beauregard: I. Bloom a little girl, name unknown; Miss R. Hamilton, H. Shoope, Alice Benton, Jennie Benton, Mrs. Eveline Benton, Belle Cato, John Tweeks, Chas. Dunbar, Mrs. H. N. Carter, Ruth Higdon, Mrs. H. Nichols, Mrs. Pelle Sobrett, Mrs. Wm. Parker, Mrs. Lampkin, Henry L. Lampkin, a youth, Mrs. Ferguson and four children, Mrs. Frank Thomas and daughter, John Ross and wife, Morgan Jaynes, M. Daniels and son, Mr. Turnbull of Brooklyn, John Halloway and wife, W. E. Wilcox, telegraph operator, A. B. Fergerson and family of ten, Dr. Pierce, wife and child, Henry Clay, Mr. Lawson, Chas. Eldridge, Chas. Lane, J. E. Robertson, Miss Cata Hamilton, Mr. Moody and wife, J. F. White and wife, L. Dunn and wife, Mrs. Peets.

Times-Democrat special from West Point: Two cyclones passed over Clay County, Sunday, one about 12 o'clock, over the western part of the county, the other about 1 o'clock, over the central and southern part. Both were terrific in the extreme, leveling houses, fences and trees to the ground, and spreading death and destruction in their path. Near Hohenlinden 30 persons were reported killed, and near Point Bluff 17 are reported killed. A number were killed in different parts of the county, but how many is not known. In West Point the court house, law buildings, Central Hotel, and several stores were unroofed. Deads were found in the country that had been blown fifty miles. The afflicted and distressed are being provided for by the more fortunate. No estimate can yet be put upon the property destroyed. It was intended to start a mill at Wesson to-day, but there was so much sorrow in town, and so much misery that the hands could not be gotten together. The town is quiet and a Sabbath calm prevails. In the ruined district out on Peach Orchard street, some families this morning were searching among their ruined homes for bodies and clothing; but as the day advanced they left the scene and it was almost deserted from noon till night.

Killed at Wesson—Sallie Ford, Mrs. Wilhelm and son, Wm. Blackburn and child, Sam. Bincen, Nathan Loftus, child and four nephews, J. T. Gibson, Mrs. Dunbar and child, Mrs. Chancery and child, Ann Claudine, James Smith, colored, John Hunter, colored, Willie White, three negroes, names unknown, Geo. Halloway and child, Mrs. H. F. Carter.

Wounded at Wesson—partial list—Mrs. Duncan and child, William Blackburn, Mrs. Ford and daughter, Mrs. Benton, Mr. Lee and wife, Henry Nixon, Mrs. Beard and daughter, Mrs. Radford and daughter, Mrs. Henderson, A. T. McMillans, a little daughter of Mrs. McManus, Geo. Williams and baby, Turner Gibson, Mrs. Finch, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Tabor, Mrs. Drane, Mrs. Lewis, Miss Walter, Mrs. Hurst, Mrs. Keating, Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Mary Shields and two sisters.

Wesson, Miss., 25.—In its course of seventeen miles northeast from Beauregard and sixteen miles from Hazelhurst, the first town reached by the cyclone of Sunday, was Georgetown, a small village on Pearl river. Many residents of that town and vicinity were assembled at the Methodist Church, quarterly circuit being in session. The cyclone struck the church, and one of the side walls fell in upon the congregation. The minister, Rev. H. B. Lawis, had his skull fractured; slight chance of recovery. Mr. Savage, who rushed out of the building, was instantly killed, falling limbs breaking his neck; Joe. Horncathing, slightly injured; Mrs. Allen, seriously hurt, and Mrs Steele slightly injured. The others in the large congregation had a miraculous escape. As the cyclone struck the edifice, all fell upon their knees and the benches shielding them they escaped with trifling injuries. A negro church near by was also visited by the destroying wind, and it succeeded; three worshippers were killed outright and eight or ten were injured. Residences and stores were levelled to the ground. John U. Crawford, wife, daughter, grandchild and servant were instantly killed; Mrs. Crawford was blown 3,000 yards, and the entire family so crushed and mutilated as to be hardly recognizable, and presenting a horrible appearance. The children of John Beasley and those of Mrs. Ryan were killed. Mrs. Fowles and her three grown sons and daughter were instantly killed; Mrs. Fowles was carried 150 yards and thrown into a tree, and from thence carried by the wind into another tree, receiving such external and internal injuries that she died from the effects. All struck in the path of the cyclone were killed, being crushed to death by flying timber. Billy Parker, wife and child were killed; also a daughter of W. Ryan. Opposite Georgetown, Simpson County, Jas. Bass' residence was demolished and one member of the family killed.

New Orleans, La., 25.—Picayune's Aberdeen, Miss., special: A cyclone passed through Monroe County on Sunday, killing some persons, wounded many colored citizens seriously and carrying away a house at Frier's Bridge and everything else in the way.

Atlanta, 25.—Great damage was done by the storms in Clay County. A negro was killed and two persons fatally injured.

Reports from Crawford show considerable damage by the storm. Many houses were blown down, many persons injured by lightning and falling houses.

Charleston, S. C., 25.—A cyclone in Barnwell County, yesterday, cut a path three-quarters of a mile wide through Salkahatchie swamp, as if the timber had been felled for a railroad. Many houses were swept away.

Atlanta, 25.—The family of Josephus Coot, Carroll County, were drowned in the Chattahoochee by Sunday night's freshet. A man named Root is also missing. It was an unprecedented overflow in Carroll County, and much damage was done to crops.

New Orleans, 25.—Picayune's West Point special: By the cyclone near Thomson, Clay County, Louis A. Ferguson's and Mr. Birchard's houses were blown down. A little daughter of Mr. Fisher was killed.

In Henryville, Clay County, the parish house was blown down.

Hohenlinden is reported completely destroyed.

Two churches were demolished and several persons killed at Abbott.

Jackson, Miss., 25.—The cyclone struck the town of Harrisville, Simpson County, killing ten persons.

Seven persons were killed near Morton; names unknown.

Raleigh, N. C., 25.—On the Western North Coast-line Railroad seven land-slides are reported; many trestles are washed away.

New Orleans, 25.—A special to the Picayune from Tuscon reports the killing of ten persons and the destruction of Crawford's residence near Rockport. Mild weather today, very warm. To-night overcoats are in use; fires comfortable. Governors Lowery and Barksdale go to Beauregard and Wesson to-morrow. Liberal subscriptions are made by Vicksburg for the sufferers.

Picayune Natchez special: The storm Sunday, so destructive to property very near Natchez, it appears had its origin in the Red River country and passed northeast. It blew down a gin house and cabins on the Surgles Ashley place, Concordia Parish, wounding seven or eight persons, principally children. One woman was killed. It also blew down a gin house on Green's place, crossed the river twelve miles below Natchez, passed two miles below Natchez passed two miles beyond, wrecked the fair grounds, buildings and seven houses on Hutton's place, and some in Morgantown, and wounded many colored persons. The storm which passed near Natchez does not appear to have been the same that visited Wesson and Beauregard, as it occurred at 10.30 a.m. The Board of Aldermen today appropriated $300, and citizens subscribed a large amount for the relief of Beauregard and Wesson.

Atlanta, Ga., 25.—B. J. Roop, a prosperous farmer and miller, lived on Hallohoochie Creek, six miles from Franklin. The creek rose rapidly Sunday night, and lifted the building, which started down stream with all its inmates, Roop, his wife, three children and a negro servant. The house finally struck a tree and went to pieces. A flash of lightning just then enabled Roop to see his family sink. He grasped a mattress and floated down until he struck another tree, in which he remained till morning. Two of the bodies are recovered.

Accounts from the interior, away from railroads and telegraphs, report the storm destructive to life and property. In Lincoln county, near Anderson's mill, the home of Tom Brooks is a wreck by the storm, his wife killed, and his son and himself probably fatally injured.

The Catalogue of Crime.

WASHINGTON, 25.—The President has appointed Postmaster, James Kirkpatrick, at Dillon, M. T.

Assistant Secretary New, chairman of the Hill investigating committee, has received a long letter from ex-Representative Murch, explaining his position with reference to the pending investigation. The letter is for the present withheld from the press, but Murch makes several objections to the management of the investigation. Of these the most important is that Assistant Solicitor Robinson, who Murch asserts is partial to Hill, is allowed as a member of the committee. When this objection was made known to Secretary Folger, he at once conferred with Mr. Robinson on the subject. The latter said while he felt sure he could act justly and conscientiously in the investigation, he was heartily willing to withdraw if there was the least reason for such a course. Secretary Folger says that a substitute for Mr. Robinson will be selected in a few days, not because he feels the slightest doubt of the latter's perfect integrity, but in order that no charge of favoritism can possibly be made against any member of the commission.

Ex-Representative Murch of Maine said to an Associated Press reporter to-night, in explanation of his position in the matter of the investigation of charges against Supervising Architect Hill of the Treasury Department, that he had no personal feeling in pursuing the investigation, and that he would take no part in pressing the charges before the Treasury Committee, unless it became evident that the inquiry would be a fair one, and unless he were allowed counsel and fees and expenses of witnesses. In the event of a failure to secure a fair investigation and the presence of the necessary witnesses, he proposed to lay charges of conspiracy to defraud the Government against Hill and others before the grand jury of the district. Mr. Murch said further, that the charges he had preferred were drawn up by Secretary Folger himself after he (Murch) had stated in his speech in the House of Representatives that the Architect's office of the Treasury was rotten throughout. The Secretary said he had written to him after that speech, asking for specifications, and these he had furnished. On the strength of the allegations therein made, Secretary Folger had appointed an investigating committee. The personnel of the committee was not satisfactory to Mr. Murch, and he has asked the Secretary to put at least one outsider upon it.

Philadelphia, 25.—The following letter bearing upon the charges against Supervising Architect Hill has been forwarded to Washington:

Philadelphia, Pa., April 24.

To John C. New, Chairman of the Investigating Committee, Washington:

DEAR SIR—In Mr. Hill's reply to our charges in regard to contracts for fire proof shutters, etc., for the government building at Cincinnati, he places the responsibility for not investigating said charges on us, viz., attempted bribery, declining at last our shutters, when the government had $21,000 to make and nothing to lose, and the final award of the contract was with the Secretary of the Treasury, not with himself. Such being the case, and under the circumstances of the present investigation, we shall decline to answer you in detail and shall not press our charges at this time.

Respectfully,
MANLEY & COOPER,
Manufacturers.

Milwaukee, 25.—T. Wright, Assistant Postmaster at Racine, is brought here by the Postoffice Inspector, owing to a shortage of over $5,000 in his accounts. Wright is of the best families, is about 32 years of age, and stood high in the estimation of Racine people.

Galveston, 25.—News Corpus Christi special: Two Mexican horse thieves are lynched.

New York, 25.—Frank Larkins, aged 27, of Brooklyn, went home drunk, shot his wife and cut his own throat after failing to shoot an officer. Larkins and wife are fatally injured.

Cleveland, 25.—Oakland special to the Leader: During a quarrel today, L. Ward shot and killed Harrison, and it is supposed mortally wounded his brother, Geo. Harrison. Ward is arrested; lynching is threatened.

Little Rock, Ark., 25.—Near Cedar Glades, Yell County, on Saturday, Wm. Potter was murdered while working in his field by Riley Blocker and Jack Daniels, in whose possession some of Potter's hogs were found. They were taking him to the woods to shoot him when he hallooed to his wife, and then they shot him and fled to the mountains and joined several other desperadoes. The sheriff and posse are searching for them, and a bloody encounter is expected.

Chicago, 25.—Thomas Shine, while leaving a disreputable house on Pacific Avenue at one o'clock, this morning, became embroiled with three strangers, one of whom killed him by stabbing him in the neck. The tragedy is thought unprovoked. No arrests.

Rome, Ga.—25.—At Rock Run, Furnee, Ala., B. O. Bass killed Butler Sparks, who was shielding a boy Bass wished to chastise.

New York, 25.—Judge Barratt, of the Supreme Court, refused to admit Owney Geoghegan to bail, pending his appeal. He holds that Geoghegan was rightcously convicted for allowing minors to frequent his notorious resort.

Edwin P. Raynor, of the firm of Raynor & Cusick, was shot dead to-day, falling down stairs with a gun.

Washington, 25.—The following telegram was received at the Indian Office to-day:

SAN CARLOS, April 25, 1883.

To Price, Indian Commissioner: There appears a change for the better in affairs that have caused the late excitement. Indications point to the return of the Rangers to their homes, well pleased with the prospects of restored quiet. The Indians are returning to their farms. They have behaved admirably under the circumstances the past four days.

(Signed.) WILCOX, Agent.

The Irish Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, 25.—At 8:15 the convention resumed business. The names of the lady delegates were loudly cheered, [also the names of John Devoy and Redpath.]

Secretary Hynes read his general statement of what the League had accomplished in the year. [Received with much applause.]

An explanation was asked why the lecture expenses of Davitt, Redmon and Parnell were paid by the League. It was stated by the Secretary those gentlemen had given all the receipts of their lecture to the League Central Committee, which though it only pays that their expenses be paid. Father Walsh, general treasurer of the League, also explained why the lecture expenses of Parnell Davitt and Redmon were paid.

Father Walsh then read his report and also made a statement in regard to certain moneys sent him for the widow of Walsh, the Irish mother one whose sons has been hanged and others sentenced to penal servitude for life.

A dispatch purporting to be from the Pope, caused much amusement. It threatened to excommunicate any Irish-Catholic attacking England during this convention, on the grounds of England's liberality to all nations.

A motion that each State and Territory send its own committeeman, was carried.

Recess for that purpose.

On convening, the committee was announced, as follows:

Arizona—Jas. Redpath.
Connecticut—Jas. Reynolds.
Georgia—Col. J. F. Armstrong.
Illinois—Rev. Morris Dorney.
Indiana—John S. Allen.
Iowa—M. V. Grannan.
Kentucky—Matthew O'Doherty.
Louisiana—T. Marony.
Maryland—Col. E. T. Joyce.
Michigan—Rev. Dr. Charles O'Reilly.
Minnesota—C. McArthur.
Missouri—Dr. Thos. O'Reilly.
Massachusetts—Rev. Father Connelly.
Minnesota—Jno. A. Gallagher.
New Hampshire—W. H. Gorman.
New Jersey—John D. Sanderson.
New York—D. C. Feeley.
Nebraska—Jno. Fitzgerald.
Ohio—Major Jno. Byrne.
Pennsylvania—Rev Thos. Berry.
Rhode Island—Col. F. L. O'Reilly.
South Carolina—M. M. Kennedy.
Vermont—Wm. Mallon.
Virginia—Patrick McGovern.
District of Columbia—Arthur Rooney.

The report of the secretary shows during the year 83 new branches reported to the central office; now on the roll, 550 branches, of whose existence the central office has official knowledge, and 289 not known officially. Of the 550 branches, New York has 128; Massachusetts, 140; Connecticut, 49; Pennsylvania, 41; Iowa, 23; New Jersey, 19; Ohio, 14; Missouri, Michigan and Rhode Island, 13 each; Illinois, 11, and New Hampshire, 10. Total amount of money received by the society from April 12th, 1882, to April 20th, 1883, $79,038; expenses of the year, $7,466, and amount remitted to Ireland, $66,657, balance on hand, $1,915.

Upon motion of Father McKenna of Massachusetts, the report of Col. Collins of Massachusetts of the committee appointed to wait on President Arthur at the last convention, to inquire into the conduct of Minister Lowell, was accepted. Colonel Collins said, "Pending diplomatic negotiations, President Arthur said he could not give any answer, but when the time for action came the President would be found on the right side."

Father McKenna moved that President Arthur be censured for lack of good faith and dishonest conduct. He thought if President Arthur ever came up for re election, he should not have the vote of Irish Americans, and this should be the sense of this convention.

Ruled out of order.

Pending the report of the conference committee. Thos. Brennan, Secretary of the Irish National League, addressed the convention.
