

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

FIRST CONCERT.—To-night, at half-past 7 o'clock, the first of the two Concert Entertainments, for Ward purposes, will come off in the 29th Ward School-house. A choice selection of pieces, songs and character sketches will be produced. There is a fine combination of talent on the program, and sufficient variety to insure a full house and a well satisfied audience. Yankee, Chinese, Irish, Dutch, English and Negro specialties, by competent artists, in original productions, will while away a couple of hours in a very agreeable manner. To-morrow night there will be a change of programme, in which all the same talent will appear. Prices, 50c., 25c. and 10c.

EVENING NEWS.

Tuesday - November 27, 1877.

PRICE OF GOLD.

Corrected daily by Deseret National Bank. SALT LAKE CITY, November 27, 1877. Buying at $1.02. Selling at $1.03.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Thermometer 41 degrees F. in the shade at 1 p.m. today. Clear.

High Council.—Those interested are reminded that the High Council meets to-morrow (Wednesday) morning, at the Council House, at 10 a.m.

Successful.—The performances at the 7th Ward concert were excellent and the audience was large. The only fault anybody finds with the entertainment is that it was almost too much for the money.

The Senate.—It will be seen by our dispatches that the Senate has been in session since noon yesterday. Several motions were made to adjourn this morning, for breakfast, but were lost.

Notice.—The regular monthly meeting of the Alert Fire Company No. 3 will be held in the Fireman's Hall, to-morrow evening, November 28th, at 7 o'clock, sharp. All the members are requested to be present.

By order. JAMES WHITE, Foreman. G. W. TIMPSON, Secretary.

District Court—Tuesday, Nov. 27th. Thomas Mitchell vs. A. P. Buntion et al; default of A. P. Buntion, judgment as prayed for.

John McDonald vs. Flagstaff S.M. Co., hearing on injunction continued till to-morrow.

Musical.—Ninety thousand copies have already been sold of Will L. Thompson's famous song "Gathering Shells from the Sea Shore." It is thought that "Drifting with the Tide," this author's last composition, will even eclipse "Gathering Shells" in popularity. Any music dealer will mail either of these beautiful pieces to your address on receipt of 40 cents. Published at M. Gray's Music Store, 103, Kearny St., San Francisco.

Amateur Rifle Match.—On Thursday afternoon, the 29th inst., the Amateurs purpose having their regular monthly medal match, commencing at 8 a.m.

On the afternoon of the same day they will have a match, at which the following prizes will be shot for: First prize—An elegant clock shelf, presented by Mr. Emil Egli. Second Prize—A fine camp stool. Third and Fourth prizes—Two beautiful ornamental brackets. The shooting will take place on the Amateur Rifle Range.

New Tabernacle.—The timbers for the gallery of the New Tabernacle are all in position along the north side of the building. The south wall will be sufficiently advanced by to-morrow to admit of the timbers being placed in that side also. The gallery will slope in two directions, declining gently towards the centre, and from the east end to the west, where the stand will be located. The method of arrangement will bring the stand in full view of the congregation in all parts of the house, and we believe the acoustics of the building will be excellent.

Needed material having arrived, the masons resumed work on the structure again yesterday.

Returned Missionary.—We were pleased to receive a call last evening from Elder O. H. Riggs, who left to go on a mission to England, on the 9th of last July. On reaching England he received an appointment to labor as traveling Elder in the Manchester Conference. He visited the several branches and preached to the people, but suffered somewhat from an affection of the throat, superinduced by the dampness of the climate.

He was released to return home when convenient for him to do so, and before leaving he went to London, laboring for some time among the branches of that Conference, thence to Paris, returning again to London, where he remained until he started for home. He arrived in New York with the last company of this season's emigration, and spent a few weeks visiting relatives in New Jersey, and in Pennsylvania. He was kindly received and treated everywhere. His health has considerably improved on the way home.

The Telegraph Companies.—Arrangements have been entered into for the Western Union, Atlantic and Pacific, and Deseret Telegraph Companies to have their offices in this city in the same building, commencing on the 1st of December.

On Sunday evening Hon. Wm. Orton, President; General Anson Slagter, Vice-President and General Superintendent of the Western Union Company arrived in the city, and left for the west to-day.

C. A. Tinker, Esq., General Superintendent, and J. J. Dickay, Esq., Division Superintendent of the Atlantic and Pacific Company, arrived at the same time, leaving yesterday, also, for the west. Mr. Orton was accompanied by his wife. The entire party are on a trip for business and pleasure combined, and are traveling in the Directors' car of the Union Pacific Railroad.

It will probably be information to our readers to know that the Western Union Company is the greatest telegraphic corporation in the world, having a capital of over $40,000,000. Their New York offices are in one of the finest buildings in that city. We understand the company has over 200,000 miles of wire in operation.

The North.—We learn the following from the Ogden Junction: Alex. Beaushaw, resident of the north part of Cache, was recently committed to jail, by Justice Noble, of Smithfield, on a charge of committing a brutal and gross assault on a little girl.

On Saturday a wagon accidentally overturned on the dugway between Ogden and Hooper, throwing Mr. Robert Todd and a young son of Mr. M. B. Wheeler out, they going under the vehicle, and the team breaking loose and running away. Both parties received serious but not dangerous injuries. They had a narrow escape. The accident occurred in the dark.

Messrs. Keeny and Zeigler, of Ogden, have been shipping Thanksgiving turkeys to Evanston. Stories are being taken toward commencing the construction of the "Central Canal," to take out the waters of the Weber to irrigate the large tract of land situated between Ogden and Kayville, generally denominated the Sand Ridge. The estimated cost of the ditch is $25,000. That's right; "freedom the waste places."

Juryman.—The Beaver Square-Dealer of the 24th instant publishes the following names recently drawn as Grand and Petit Jurors for the term of the Second District Court to begin on the 3rd day of December next. Grand Jurors are to appear on the 3rd and Petit Jurors on the 10th of December.

Country Wards.—Next Sunday, December 2nd, home missionaries will visit and preach in the following wards: Sugar House, Farmers', Mill Creek, East Mill Creek, Hig Cottonwood, South Cottonwood, Union, Granite, Draper, South Jordan, Herriman, West Jordan, North Jordan, Brighton.

The Visitors.—Mr. James Gamble, General Supt. of the Pacific Division of the Western Union Telegraph Co., arrived from the west this morning, to meet President Orton's party. The party took a trip on a special train over the Utah Western to-day, returning in time to start for the west by the regular afternoon train.

Convalescent.—President Angus M. Cannon, who has been confined to his room for nearly a week, on account of illness, has, we are pleased to be able to state, so far recovered as to be around again to-day.

Home Missionaries.—The regular monthly meeting of the Home Missionaries of the Stake will be held to-morrow evening, at 7 o'clock, in the Council House.

Scribner's Monthly for 1877-'78. Without recalling the excellence of the past, the publishers of Scribner's Monthly announce, for the year to come, the following papers:

The Pictorial Side of American Farm Life.—This subject will be treated in a series of separate papers engaged from writers who stand in the front rank among Americans, both in qualities of style and in keen insight of nature. Mr. E. E. Robinson, author of a delightful paper on "Fox-hunting in New England" in the January number, will represent the same section in this series. John Burroughs, whose papers on similar topics have been highly prized and popular feature of Scribner's, will write of Farm Life in New York. Maurice Thompson, the poet-naturalist, will describe the characteristics of Western farming, of which but little has been written.

"Boozy," by Edward Eggleston (author of "The Hoosier Schoolmaster," etc.) This new story will doubtless be the most important American serial of the year. The first number was published in November. It is illustrated by Mr. Walter Shirlay, president of the American Art Association.

American Sports.—Some of the most novel and entertaining of these papers are yet to appear, the scenes of which will be in the west, the Middle States, the South, New England and Canada.

Out-of-door Papers.—By John Burroughs, author of "White Robin" &c., will contain not only articles on birds, but on "Tramping," "Camping Out," and kindred topics. Mr. Burroughs' papers will illustrate the January number, the first being entitled "Birds and Birds," and illustrated by Edella Bridges.

Architecture of Birds.—Dr. Thos. M. Brewer will contribute four exquisitely illustrated articles on birds' nests, which every lover of nature will delight in.

The Saddle Horse.—Col. George E. Waring, with whose excellent work of various sorts our readers are familiar, contributes two illustrated articles on the horse.

Sea Stories.—New stories by this popular writer will be given in early numbers of Scribner's, beginning with "Joe Hale's Red Stocking" to appear in January.

His Interference.—By Adeline Trafton, begun in the Midsummer Holiday number, will be continued nearly through the year.

A Knight of Fortune.—Hjalmar Hjorth Boyens' new novel, the conclusion of "His Interference," will be begun in Scribner's.

The Editorial Departments will continue to supply the shillings per line in America. Besides the specialties above enumerated, the magazine will contain Poems, Sketches, Essays, Reviews, and shorter stories of the highest character. The illustrations of the Magazine in variety and excellence of design and in typographical execution, will continue to be in advance of those of any other popular magazine at home or abroad. Subscription price $4.00 a year, payable in advance to us or to any bookseller. No other rates or other discounts to subscribers. The Magazine is worth all its costs, and its circulation is increasing in a constant and steady ratio from year to year. SCRIBNER & CO. 743 Broadway, New York.

DIED.

November 22nd, in Springfield City, U. S., of puerperal fever, ELIZABETH, wife of Joseph D. Burroughs.
