John Smith of the United States and Statesman.

DEATH OF THE CAUSE.

A remarkable career ended—Death of a great man.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 20.—Frederick Douglass, the great abolitionist, died at his home in Washington, D. C., at 10 o'clock this morning, after a long illness.

Mr. Douglass was born in 1818, and was one of the most prominent leaders of the abolition movement in America. He was a powerful speaker and writer, and his life was a constant struggle for the rights of the colored people.

He was a member of the American Anti-Slavery Society, and his death is a great loss to the cause of freedom. His funeral will be held in Washington on Friday.

Mr. Douglass was a man of great courage and conviction, and his death is a reminder of the need for continued struggle for the rights of the colored people.

His death is a great loss to the cause of freedom, and his funeral will be a great occasion for the people of Washington and the nation.
