A SHOCKING FATALITY

OLD FATHER ENSION FALLS FROM THE TEMPLE WALLS AND IS IN-STANILY KULED. popularly known as the "Old Folk+ Ogden a second time received

About ten o'clock this moraling a frightful accident occurred on the Wm. H. Foster, did a great deal to 29th, 1882, Salt Lake City Temple Block, In this city, by which Brother Stand Ensign, one of the oldest and most trusty and respected of the Caurch employes, lost his life At the time mentioned four of the workmen - W.n. Rufft, John Ryan, Charles Harman and Samuel Easign were engaged in preparing the derricks on the Temple walls for the season's work, they having been taken down at the close of just season in order to make some necessary changes in them. The first three mentioned were in the act of hauling the framework of the "cradle" or case which surrounds the derrick up into position about twelve feet above the surface of the wall, while Brother Ensign was sitting upon the wall drawing in the slack of the rope. He was seated upon a plank about three Inches thick and twenty inches wide, with a beam by hisside upon which his right arm could rest, and around which the rope was rouning which he was drawing in Although his position overlooked an opening in the wall extending down a distance of nearly ninety feet, it was not thought that there was any particular danger about it, especially as he was used to oc upying it. Charles Harmon, who stood near where Brother Easign sat, states that the framework of the rage, as it was being raised from the wall, awang around in the direction of Brother Ensign and struck him rightly on the sille not sufficiently hard to hart balanor to unseat him has he not moved, but P.14 supposed that seetiar at conclug toward him; he thoughtles its shifted his position to synhitt, for as it touched thin he felt and down, down he went, striking or pianlestical prospect the opening in the wall two or three times in hr descent and alighting nearly placty fort blow upon his feet a native of England. and plfcilleg dorward on his face When histohaw workmon who sawhin stall reacted from a moment afterwards,
