Deaths from Consumption

Would be as rare as cures of that disease are now, if every cough, cold, or other affection of the breathing organs were promptly treated in the right way. The specific in such cases is HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR. In less than three days a cough is silenced by this agreeable preparation. Take it early, before the lungs have become congested, if possible. But even when the complaint has made serious inroads, and life is threatened, there is safety in this genial preparation.

Children's Teeth

Ought not to be neglected. Ask any dentist, and he will tell you that the quality of the second set depends upon the care taken of the first. So rub away with SOZODONT on their little grinders, and they will thank you for it when they grow up. ds&w

Our Daily Food.

Adulteration prevails in our daily food. Food is a most important necessity, and it should be wholesome and nutritious. If all articles that are used were as pure and healthful as Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, we should escape many of the ills of life. 1

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Missionary Meeting.—The Home Missionaries of this Stake are requested that the regular monthly meeting will be held at the County House on Wednesday evening, the 24th inst., at 7 o'clock.

High Council.—The members of the High Council are requested to meet at the Council House, at 9 a.m. on Wednesday morning, the 24th inst., at 10 o'clock.

WM. W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

District Court.—Monday morning, April 22d. Benjamin J. Rayvs. J. M. Smith et al; E. D. Hoge sworn and examined for plaintiff. Adelaide Smith, Charlotte Smith and Christian W. Madsen entered.

Painful Accident.—On Saturday afternoon, while out shooting, in the vicinity of the State Road, James Irvine, a bar tender, by the accidental discharge of his gun, lost the middle and index fingers and a portion of the palm of the right hand blown away. The injury was dressed by Dr. Benedict.

Farmville.—Henry Emerson writes from Adamsville, Beaver County, that the Y. M. M. I. A. of that settlement is in excellent condition, much interest being manifested in its proceedings by the young, among whom it is accomplishing a good work. Recently it received a visit from Brothers Horace McDonough and White, who gave some timely instructions. Most of the crops are in the ground, and there is a good prospect for an abundant water supply. A new rock meeting-house, 25 x 40 feet, is in the course of erection.

Musical Improvement.—Yesterday Musical Improvement Associations for young men were organized in the 2d, 3d, and 4th Wards of Ogden. An organization of that nature was already existing in the 1st Ward.

A board of officers, as a central organization for the associations of the Weber Stake, was also elected, as follows:

President, Joseph West; Councilors, Alonzo C. Brown and L. A. Herrick; Secretary, W. Jenkins; Corresponding Secretary, Charles C. Rich, Jr.; Treasurer, Z. Ballantyne.

Weber Stake has 17 associations of this kind. Ogden City is completely organized, and has an aggregate membership of 200.

Brigham City.—To-day we met with Judge Samuel Smith, of Brigham City, Box Elder County, from whom we learn that the new factory is ready for the iron roof, which is daily expected from the east, where it was ordered. The structure is being made as nearly as practicable fireproof. The lower story is of brick and the upper of brick, with cornice of the latter material.

The machinery, which is of a style in advance of that formerly in use, is all upon the ground and ready to be set up.

It is confidently anticipated that the new factory will open business on or about the first day of July.

Not only the main structure, but also the dye house and other outbuildings will be constructed principally of non-combustible materials.

The factory will be a credit not only to Brigham City but to the Territory, and will be a monument of the indomitable will, power, unity and courage of the people who reared it on the ashes of its predecessor which was destroyed by fire. The rapid repair of the loss goes to prove the financial vitality of a people whose material affairs are conducted on the co-operative, mutual interested system.

A Political Thief.—Several months ago a person giving the name of Eugene Bonner arrived in this city. He is a polished and oily address and pleasing manner, he succeeded in insinuating himself into favor with a number of respectable citizens. He made high professions of religious and moral character, but his subsequent conduct proved him to be a cheat and a fraud. By gunning art and subtle trickery, he succeeded in getting, from a well-known citizen, a sum of money amounting to, we understand, in the vicinity of $1,500, and absconded with it at the first favorable opportunity, a few days since.

Bonner, to our view, is the "beau ideal" of a "confidence man," and we insert this notice in the hope that it may be the means of preventing people in other localities from being duped by his wiles.

The conduct of Bonner should be a warning to the community against taking suddenly to adventurers of mushroom growth. The genuine, honest man comes not in such pretentious style as did this human vulture, whose only occupation we believe to be scheming to first mislead, and then defraud his fellowmen.

He is a young man of dark but pale complexion, with black hair combed rather low over his forehead, dark mustache, grey eyes, slender and tall figure, his knees having an inward tendency. He has a rather cold, and, on the whole, somewhat sneaky look. In manner he appears to be constantly on his guard, and is very deliberate in answering questions, and evidently calculates the effect of his answers before venturing to give them. Notwithstanding this, to the less observant he appears to have an air of genuine frankness, which, as the poet says, is "child-like and bland."

"Juvenile Instructor."—We have the latest number of this ever welcome, useful periodical. Some of its contents are: Ancient Jerusalem, illustrated; The Gospel Principles; Joseph Smith the Prophet; Incidents of a Mission; Sunday Schools; Editorial Thoughts; The Elephant, illustrated; The Bible, as a History; Travels in India; Mexican Children; Our Useful Earths; Never be Late, with music; Sunday Lessons.

Theatre.—Miss Adah Gray, the celebrated "society" actress, will appear at the Theatre next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The great plays of "Whose Wife" and "Miss Multon" will be presented with a full cast. The lady is justly celebrated for her rendition of emotional characters, and will have full scope for her powers in these two pieces.

Cedar Springs.—Brother Benjamin Stringam arrived to-day from Cedar Springs, Millard County, where he resides. There has been a good deal of sickness there of late, but no cases have proved fatal. The health of the people is now improving.

Call and Get It.—There is a message at the Western Union Telegraph Office for Mrs. J. C. Garrison.

LONDON, 22.

Shock of Earthquake.

A Constantinople dispatch reports that a heavy shock of earthquake was felt there, and in that vicinity on Friday.

England and Russia Continue their Warlike Preparations.

The Daily News correspondent at Berlin, says: Not much importance is attached there to the present negotiations so long as England and Russia continue active warlike preparations. The English papers abound in significant items concerning preparation thus: It is understood that five batteries of royal artillery, now at Woolwich, have been selected to proceed to Malta. Gunboats and a flotilla are to be prepared immediately for the defence of the British coast; officers of pension districts were ordered, on Saturday, to transmit to the Admiralty forthwith the addresses of all retired naval artificers and stokers, presumably in view of a possible call for volunteers, and all men belonging to the first army corps, who were undergoing punishment for disciplinary offences, have been liberated and sent to their regiments.

The French military paper, Avenir Militaire, calls upon the government in the interest of the French cavalry, to put a stop to British purchases of horses in Normandy.

The Cronstadt Messenger announces that the equipment of the Russian Baltic fleet is proceeding with all haste. It will go to sea as soon as the ice breaks up. It consists of seven vessels, including Peter the Great, one of two most powerful vessels of the Russian ironclad navy. Peter the Great is a mastless double turret-ship of 9,510 tons burden. She carries four 35-ton guns. Her armor thickness, at water line, is 14 inches. She was launched in 1874, and resembles in design and construction three of the great mastless turret-ships of the British navy, more especially the Dreadnaught, though of larger size.

Russia and Roumania.

Various telegrams continue to show a decrease of tension between Russia and Roumania.

Not Pushing their Forces.

The Times' Bucharest dispatch says: The Russians are not pushing their forces so far towards the Carpathians as was intended. It is believed that no further interference with their lines of communication is likely.

The Czar and Prince Charles.

It is rumored that the Czar has written an autograph letter to Prince Charles, couched in the most friendly tone as regards him personally, but complaining of the course followed by his government.

Summoned to Evacuate.

A Rustchuk correspondent telegraphs that the Grand Duke Nicholas has summoned the Turks to evacuate Shumla within eight days.

Another Arrangement Suggested.

A dispatch from San Stefano says: Relative to the point to which the Russian army shall withdraw, an arrangement has been suggested by which the Russian troops shall be permitted to embark at any convenient point, even Buyukdere, guarantees being given that all within a certain distance from here shall embark before a fixed date, the remainder returning to Russia by land or occupying Bulgaria.

The Difficulty as to Distance.

A Vienna correspondent says the difficulty as to the distance to which the Russians shall withdraw is complicated by the belief that the new Turkish ministry is about to order the evacuation of Shumla, Batoum and Varna. The possession of the last place would greatly facilitate a coup de main on the Bosphorus.

BRITISH AMERICA.

Cartoon Mob Riot.

MONTREAL, 22.—A riot occurred at an open air political meeting in the eastern division of the city last evening. Just before the meeting closed the mob on the outskirts made a desparate attack on their opponents. Five rushes, wounding a large number. Nearly 20 have been attended by doctors. Many others were less seriously injured. The meeting was called in the interest of the candidates of the Quebec legislature.

SPAIN.

Heavy Gale—Loss of Life.

MADRID, 22.—A heavy gale has prevailed along the northern coast of Spain. Numerous fishing vessels have been lost, and about 100 Bornean fishermen were drowned. Fifty-six fishermen belonging to Santander have also been drowned.

The New York World says that an eminent western clergyman who recently visited Washington, being asked by his friends, on his return, what he thought of the President, mused a moment and then made answer, "Well, I believe before man his walk is upright, but I fear that before the Lord he wobbles."

"A young man in Cumberland County had his nose broken while attempting to catch a young lady at a party." A great many men have had a "nose put out of joint" in trying to catch a young lady. And his, perhaps, is not so bad as to succeed in catching her and having his head nearly broken afterwards.

DIED.

In the 13th Ward of this city, April 22nd, of whooping cough, CHAPLAIN BULMER, son of the late Thomas, and Sarah Heath, aged 4 years and 24 days.

Funeral services at the residence of the mother, at 2 p.m. to-morrow. Friends of the family are invited.
