Organ of Misrepresentation Again Taken to Task.

A story appeared in the Tribune Saturday which is full of misrepresentations and false statements. It is aimed at Chairman Lynch and a foraimed at Chairman Lynch and a for-mer member of the state board of land commissioners and inlimates that charges of misconduct have been made by a Nephi attorney against the futurer member of the board and that Chairman Lynch is doing everything in his power to shield the accused man. The charges were claimed to have been made at the June meeting of the land board and the article states that the Tribune's representa-tive called at the office of the board tive called at the office of the board to see the minutes of the meeting and that he had started to read them when Secy. Callister called Chairman within a few weeks. Lynch up and told him about it and the chairman advised him not to al-low the reporter to read the minutes. When seen today by a "News" rep-resentative, Seey. Callister stated that the article was absolutely false. He declared that Chairman Lynch did not tell him to refuse to allow the reporter to read th minutes, and that he did not call Mr. Lynch up in re-gard to the matter at all. He stated that he refused to allow the reporter to read the minutes simply because the read the minutes simply because hey had not been approved by the and board yet and hence were not ubble documets. As to the charges being made he said that he could not they make a statement in regard to the matter until the board had met to consider it. When the board will take any action on it, if at all, he was unable to state.

The northera contingent of the knights of the grip will assemble in Salt Lake and leave on the momentous morning at 8 o'clock over the Rio Grande railroad, and upon arriving at the Garden City will form in line and march througt the business districts of the town. Reach-ing the public square the cavalcade will halt and listen to speeches of welcome by Mayor Frisbee of Provo, and Wm. M. Reglance, the big fruit man, and re-reponses by Governor Cutler, and others. Friday afternoon some horse races will be publied off. A number of good sized purses have been hung up for these events. Saturday morning a baseball game between the fats and leans among the commercials will take place. In the af-ternoon the real baseball game will come off between the U. C. T. team and a picked team from the Provo Commer-cial club. On both Friday and Saturday even.
