The lights in the gambling hall were turned out, and 15 or 18 men silently slipped through a back door and saunt-ered out in front of the Kenyon, while Galleazzi walked up and down the street and Jist iaffed. In the mean-time, Shannon and Wilson were hold-ing the door; of course there was no danger of the door failing down, but they held it anyway. When they got tired, they walked out in front of the hotel and were given a grand "bawl out" by the gamblers, boosters, door-keepers, etc. than Dick's head the door did not sufkeepers, etc us ends the story of the raid that failed.

OPERA SEASON CLOSES IN BLAZE OF GLORY

The season of four performances by the Savage Opera company closed Saturday afternoon and evening with ren-ditions of "Rigoletto" and "Tannauditions of "Rigoletto" and "Tabnaa-ser," The mathnee attendance was a heavy one, though there was hot the crush down stairs reen at the night performances. In the evening even the attendance of the opening night was exceeded, every part of the house be-ing fammed and many people remain-ing standing. The receipts that night must have gone close to $2,300 and the probabilities are that the record at the probabilities are that the record at the box office for the four performances would not fall far short of $3,000, a result which cannot fail to cause Mr. Savage to give Sait Lake a permanent place on his touring book of the future, "Rigoletto" gave Mr. Goff, the bariring offering gave and other that the barry tone, the best opportunity he has ever had, and he filled it admirably. Miss Florence Easton, a new birdlike so-prano, also sang the role of Glida in triumphant fashion, and the grand quartet between her, Mr. Goff, Mr. Sheehan and Miss Albright had a great recall. Mr. Sheehan though had a great Sheehan and Miss Albright had a great recall. Mr. Sheehan, though hardly in his best voice, sang the role of the Duke in good fashion, and Miss Al-bright in the part of the contraito still further completed the conquest she be-gan as Siebel. To many auditors "Rigoletto" (though it is now days counted as old fashioned) was the most ar lowable of any oncer, at the active enjoyable of any opera of the entire

"Tannhauser" was a noteworthy "Tannhauser" was a noteworthy production, and though from the scenic standpoint it fell much farther short, than the other operas, still it was a fine imitation of the original, and peo-ple who had not seen Wagner staged in the large cities, found it admirable. It was the Lyric's turn to draw a "live one" this week, and the result is that the "Alcazar Beauties" com-many is playing to standing room only at the South Main street show house. at the South Muin street show house. The skits are not done with the zame brush that has turned out so many of late, all cut on the same pattern, and the result is that something new and laugh-making occurs every other minute. The man wao did the writing, too, was wise in that he realized the value of borseplay, and kept it out ex-cept in very minute quantities, and put in some genuine comedy in its place. Incidentally some more than place. Incidentally some more than fairly good actors were secured to han-dle the roles, so that the whole ef-fect is so good that it is a rarity in burlesques.

The opening burletta, "The Romance of a Sult Case," is a sort of comedy of errors, in which three men of three different vocations are wanted by three different vocations, are wanted by three different detectives, for three different reasons, and all have the same in-tilals. Some genuinely humorous com-plications result, which incidentally provide for the introduction of some new song bits among which "If I were Only Mayor of This Town," is the best. In the vaudeville allo the punching bug is brought in from the gymnasium to do entertainment duty and succeeds in a surprising manner. Kelly and Fartlett in rough and tumble acroin a surprising manner. Kelly and Eartlett in rough and tumble acro-batic work are funnier than most of their kind, but the rest of the clio is of only ordinary merit. "A Midnight Dream" which closes the bill, provides more work for the chorus than the opening skit and is on the same high plane, so far as its comedy is con-cerned. "The Alcazar Beauties" remains the bill until Friday evening with the usual Wednesday matinee.

introduced a resolution before the ar-mory board providing that the armory should not be used for any purpose ex-cept the furthering of the interests of the National Guard. This was passed as the September, and since then Col-Geoghegan has refused the use of the armory to many local applicants. During his absence in the east per-mission was granted to the "See Ameri-ca conference" to use it, and since whether Col. Geoghegan objects on ac-count of the political nature of the account of the general ground that he doesn't want the way opened for the permiscuous "borrowing" of the armory, or on both grounds, is not known. MAZZA GETS TEN YEARS IN STATE PRISON.

Ten years in the state prison at hard labor is the sentence imposed upon Frank Mazza in the criminal division of the district court today by Judge Armstrong. Mazza was charged with murder in the first degree for the killing of Joseph Vatrella in this city on Sept. 5, 1905, but the jury, after being out nearly 24 hours, returned on Saturday afternoon a verdict of guilty of voluntary manslaughter. At that time Atty. Newton, who represented Mazza, was not present in court and Judge Armstrong set Thursday as the date for passing sentence. The defendant was brought into court this morning, however, upon request of his attorney, who was pres-ent, and who asked that sentence be passed. Atty, Newton made a blea for clemency in behalf of the convicted man but Dist, Atty, Loofbourow urged that the man be given the maximum penalty. Judge Armstrong extend the penalty. Judge Armstrong asked the defendant if he had any statement to make before sentence was pronounced and the man answered with a negative nod of his head, whereupon the sentence as stated above was passed upon him and he will be taken to the state prison during the day.

HARRIMAN GETS ANOTHER.

Is Now Said to Have Secured the IIlinois Central.

Inois Central. Chicago, Feb. 5.—The Record-Herald today says: It has been known in Chicago for several months that E. H. Harriman was planning to enlarge his holdings of Illinois Central so as to gain absolute control and thus to join it with the Union Pacific system. The belief in New York that the deal had been completed created little surprise, and several Illinois Central officials said that while they were not acquaint-ed with the latest details of the merger, they had reason to feel that Mr. Harrithey had reason to feel that Mr. Harri-man had become the dominating facto: in the company.

One of the most prominent of these officials, who is a director and has been associated with the Illinois Central for many years, made the following state-positive that he will leave the guard in case his wishes in regard to its head-quarters are not respected. When seen this morning Col. Geoghe-gan stated that he had nothing what-ever to give out in regard to the al-leged difficulty between himself and the secretary of state over the use of the guard armory by the Republican party for a banquet. He regretted that can for a banquet. He regretted that any-thing had found its way into print about the matter, and referred the re-porter to the sources of information from which published statements have already leaked out.

It is known, however, that Col. Geoghegan has very decided views about the use of the armory. In his efforts at building up the guard one of his first at building up the guard one of his first moves was to urge on all commands the following of strict line promotions, wherever it could be done, and he an-nounced then that he hoped to see the day when service in the guard was the only grounds on which promotions would be made, and even the gover-nor's military staff would be picked from those who had performed mil-itary service for the state, and not to reward political service for the party. He wished this changed to party. He wished this changed to make more interest in serving, and to make the reward surer for one who should serve his state long and faith-fully through the ranks of the guard. REFUSES EVERYBODY.

Another trouble Col. Geoghegan found was in a list of applications for the use of the armory from all kinds of institutions, charitable, relig-ious, political, and educational. They came in so thick that Col. Geoghegan found he had no evenings left for drill purposes, and to prevent the use of the new armory by other organizations to armory by other organizations the detriment of the guard's work, he
