A May Day Celebration.

jects.

SUNSET CROSSING. Little Colorado, May 3rd, 1877. Editor Deservet News:

Dear Sir-We celebrated the first of May here, which was done in a very creditable manner, considering the inconvenience we have to contend with. At 9:30 a.m. Presi-dent Lot Smith's camp met Prest. Jesse O. Ballinger's on the west bank of the river, where the Sunday school children were formed in procession under the direction of Levi M. Savage, marshal of the day, and marched to Prest. Ballinger's and occupied a bowery constructed for the occasion. The flag of the Uni-ted States was then unfurled to the gentle breeze. We were called to order by the chaplain, Mr. Peter Isaacson. The choir sang 'The; Morning Breaks." Prayer by the chaplain. The Sunday school children sang "Our Own Sunday School," after which the coronation of the"May Queen," Miss Millie Samson, took place. She was crowned by Master's Jefferson J. Adams and Henry Overson. As I sat on my seat I thought the little May Queen sitting on her throne, with her wreath of wild flowers gently resting on her young forehead, the best Arizona can afford at present, and her maids in attendance. President, maids in attendance. Young's likeness hung directly over sharp, at the Council her head, enriched by a wreath of green leaves and wild flowers, after which many very good toasts. and sentiments were given. The Sunday school children sang a great many good songs. Addre-ses were delivered by Presidents Lot Smith and Jesse O. Ballinger. Several songs and recitations were very creditably rendered. Closing hymn, "We thank thee, O God, for a Prophet" by the choir. Bene-diction by the chaplain.

We took dinner at Prest, Ballinger's and repaired to Prest. Smith's Camp.

In the afternoon the young men played ball and the children bad a
