report

It has been many years since the roads and weather were so favorable for sleigh riding as at present, and every person who owns a sleigh, be it "bob" or cutter, seems to be improving his chances for sport.

THE grand jury for the December term of the Third District Court now hold occasional sittings, but nothing is heard of their indicting the keepers of notorious houses of ill-fame, such as Judge Zane called their attention to. Don't they dare to attempt it?

MR. F. F. ECCLES will succeed Mr W. C. Browe as city ticket agent of the D. & R. G. W., when the latter assumes his duties as postmaster. Mr. Eccles, who is a younger brother of the General Passenger Agent, has been employed in the office for some time, and "I had intended to stand by my action in resigning, but I heard, a day or two ago, that a story, started, undoubtedly, by the Mormons, was being circulated by my Gentile enemies to the effect that I had sold out to the Mormon Church, and that they had paid me for resigning. The best and only way to meet that charge is to go back and continue the fight, so I yesterday tele-graphed to Washington, asking permission to withdraw my resignation." -Last Friday evening, at Pipe-stone Springs, Montana, James Purding, an old resident of that Purding, an old resident of that Territory, committed suicide by shooting. He placed the muz-zle of a 42-calibre bull-dog revolver in his mouth, and fired, killing himself instantly. No cause was assigned for the deed. The deceased had been a severe sufferer from blood poisoning.
