Peck, a Well Known and Highly Respected Young Man.

George M. Peck, a well known and highly respected young man of this city and Sandy, was the victim of a fatal accident at about 5 o'clock Sat-urday afternoon while working on the new warehouse of J. H. Bailey & Sons, on Third West street between Fourth and Fifth South. He fell a distance of 45 feet and broke his neck. Death oc-curied at the Holy Cross hospital about 6:30

The young man was a partner in the Liberty Sheet Metal Works at the rear of 59 south Third East street. He had been working on the building all after-noon and when quitting time came started to lower himself by means of a rope. He had swung away from the

One by one the office decorations

were "lifted" or stowed away, and today the final roundup occurred. The keys were collected for the landlord, the picture of Taft came down from he wall, and then the rooms were consigned to the building's janitor for the final cleanup. The Republicans in this election operated a mailing room in which there was both received and sent out several tons of printed matter on the campaign. At least a ton more was received than could be handled. It worked its way from room to room, stacked the corners, and crowd4 ed the campaign workers for space in which to operate.
