Synodical Missionary-Rev. Josiah McClain of the Third Presbyterian church, who retires from the pulpit June 1 next, has been appointed synod-ical missionary of the Presbyterian church for this district, to succeed Rev. Dr. S. E. Wishard who has resigned to remove to southern California later in the spring. Mrs. Wishard and Miss Hattle Wishard will accompany the doctor.

Drawing Contests—Award has been made in the High school drawing con-test. The medal went to Miss Irene Harmon, for the besi charcoal drawing of the year. Miss Harmon's subject was "The Winged Victory." 'Twelve students were in the contest, and hon-orable mention was made of six, as follows, John Held, Jr., Hugh Lewis, Mary Storer, Mary Wall, Lorena Miles and Bessie Jones.

Principals' Meeting-The schoo principals held a well attended meet school ing yesterday afternoon, when they discussed the question, "Does the course of study make provision for the teaching of reading, writing, arith-metic, language or grammar, geog-raphy, history and spelling commen-surate with the great importance of the subjects named?"

Orphans' Home Quarantined-Five of the little inmates of the Orphans Home and Day Nursery are ill with diphtheria, and trained nurses and a doctor are in constant attendance. The home is under quarantine. The trou-ble began with a boy named Alexander Holmgren on the 2nd inst., and the child died last Saturday. It is be-lieved he was infected before being taken to the home.

Watson Taken Home-J. M. Thomp Watson Taken Home—J. M. Thomp-son of Kansas City, Mo., has taken his brother-in-law, John P. Watson, back to his home in that city. Watson is the man who, while temporarily in-sane, applied to the police for protec-tion from imaginary assassins. He was taken care of, and his relatives were communicated with, and they hasten-ed to make provisions whereby the unfortunate make provisions whereby the un-fortunate man could be cared for. He will be placed in a private sanitarium in his home town. Watson had plenty of money when he reached Salt Lake, and was supposed by his family to be working in the southern part of Kanworking in the southern part of Kan-mite. Part of the pipe on one side was cut away and both ends closed by pieces of wood. In addition to the pieces of wood. In addition to the giant powder the pipe was charged with one dozen giant caps. To this flap was tied a small bottle of sulphuric acid. The cork of the bottle was rub-ber, through which was inserted a pin, the point outward. The pin point was bent, to which was attached a string. The caps were then saturated with chorate of notash and fine sugar. chlorate of potash and fine sugar. HOW BOMB WAS PLACED.

Further in his confession to the governor and the representative of the Pinkerton agency, Orchard goes into details of how he accomplished his purpose at the Bradley home. On the morning of Nov. 17, 1904, he went to the house at 1104 Washington street and inserted a little screw eye in the front door, placed the bomb on the floor and attached the string with the bottle of sulphuric acid to the door. The contrivance was so arranged that when the door was opened it pulled the cork out of the bottle filled pulled the cork out of the bottle filled with acid, allowing the liquid to spill on the giant powder and caps saturated with chlorate of potash and fine sugar. The action of the chemicals on the pow-der resulted in the explosion that it is alleged nearly killed Bradley and wrecked the premises.
