

LOCAL BASEBALL IS LOOKING UP

Magnates Have Concluded to Play a Few more
Games.

FATHER JOHN IS IN IT.

He Steadfastly Refuses to Quit
ing Money On His Team in Salt Lake.

Baseball in Salt Lake is looking up. By this it is meant that there is a prospect for a few more games before snow flies. The ancient art was dead once, then twice, and now it has come to life again for a game or two.

President Shepard is the good fellow who has gathered the ball children together and spoken for more games. At a meeting yesterday afternoon he brought Father John, angel extraordinary for the Salt Lake team, into contact with J. H. Waters and H. M. Scott of Park City, Herbert Hope of Eureka and R. J. Riddle of the Bell Telephone. The telephone men are calling for a fourth place in the league, and there is some hope that they will land the job, which is another way of saying the league would give its eye teeth to have them take a franchise and thus guarantee four games for the rest of the season.

The schedule adopted so far is as follows:
Aug. 24—Dubel Tailors vs Eureka, at Eureka.
Sept. 2 and 3—Park City vs Dubel Tailors, at Salt Lake.
Sept. 16—Eureka vs Dubel Tailors, at Salt Lake.
Sept. 22—Park City vs Eureka, at Eureka.
Sept. 29—Dubel Tailors vs Park City, at Park City.

In case the Bell Telephone men enter the league the following schedule, which was arranged and adopted at the meeting, will go into effect:

Sept. 2 and 3—Eureka vs Park City, at Park City; Dubel Tailors vs Bell Telephone, at Salt Lake City.
Sept. 16—Park City vs Dubel Tailors, at Salt Lake; Eureka vs Bell Telephone, at Eureka.
Sept. 22—Park City vs Eureka, at Salt Lake City; Park City vs Dubel Tailors, at Salt Lake City.
Sept. 29—Park City vs Eureka, at Salt Lake City; Bell Telephone vs Dubel Tailors, at Salt Lake City.

Sept. 30—Park City vs Bell Telephone, at Salt Lake City; Park City vs Dubel Tailors, at Salt Lake City.
Sept. 31—Park City vs Eureka, at Salt Lake City; Bell Telephone vs Dubel Tailors, at Salt Lake City.

HARVARD END SHORT.

Betting Favors Cambridge Crew By Fair Odds.

Bourne End, England, Aug. 22—This was the Harvard and Cambridge crews' last day at Bourne End, it being the last day to move before the start of the regatta. They did little work this morning, simply taking a short paddle. It appears that J. Richardson will be able to resume his work in the Harvard crew. The Cambridge crew were the guests this afternoon at a garden party given by the Harvard men at Riverdale. The betting is 6 to 4 on Cambridge.

His Story Was True.

"Here's a cup I got in Morocco," said the enthusiastic tourist, showing his collection of souvenirs; "you see it is an Arabic inscription."

His friend was turning the cup curiously around. At length he remarked, dryly:

"Yes, the inscription is Arabic all right."

"Sure!" replied the returned tourist, a little miffed at the intimation of a possible doubt.

"You can read it better if you turn the cup upside down," suggested the friend, and seeing the action to be so word, he showed the tourist that the mysterious characters were nothing more than "1905" engraved in rough, irregular figures on the metal.

"The rascal!" exclaimed the outraged collector; "he told me that was an Arabic inscription when he sold it to me!"

"He told you nothing more than the truth," was the reply. "You forget that our numerals are Arabic."

But somehow from that moment the collector lost interest in the souvenir from Morocco.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The Cheap American Cigarette.

Giving evidence yesterday before the select committee of the house of lords, to which Lord Reay's bill for the prohibition of smoking among juveniles was referred, E. P. Frazer, London manager to Messrs. Funk and Wagnalls of New York, said that the anti-cigarette legislation now extended to one-fourth of the population of the United States. The cigarette was a noxious article because of the cheap quality of the tobacco used, and the filthy conditions under which it was produced. "You ought," he continued, "to prohibit the sale of cigarettes imported from America. The American cigarette is the worst thing our country sends to you—worse than Chicago tinned meat."

The inquiry was concluded, and the committee afterwards sat in private to consider their report.—London Daily Graphic.

Sold Again.

An English cook dreamed of a lottery and despite her master's advice, invested her savings in a ticket. A few days later the employer was astonished to see that the ticket had won $100,000. He was a bachelor and she was an old servant. It was impossible to think of parting. He proposed and was accepted, and they were married by special license next morning. As they drove away from the church he said to her:

"Well, Molly, two happy events in one day. You have married. I trust, a good husband. You have something else—first let me ask you about the lottery ticket." Thinking her husband meant to scold, she replied, with a sigh of relief: "Don't say no more about it. I thought how it would be and that I should never hear the last of it. So I sold the ticket to the baker for a guinea profit."—Undisputed.

WARD AND WRIGHT ARE TENNIS KINGS

Lift Two Cups In Doubles at Newport Championship
Games.

RESULT, 'WAS EXPECTED.

But the Match Was Much Harder
Fought Than That of Last Year.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 22—Two championship cups were lifted and another firmly fixed for at least one year more in the tennis tournament at the Casino today. Beals C. Wright of Boston and Holcombe Ward of Orange, N. J., are the permanent owners of the doubles trophy by defeating H. H. Hackett and F. B. Alexander, of New York, 2 to 1, while Karl H. Behr of Yale university put out in the singles tournament former champion William Larned of Summit, N. J., who had one more victory to obtain possession of the singles championship cup.

The doubles match was the challenge round, Ward and Wright defending their title against Hackett and Alexander, the champions of the last and winning, 6-2, 6-3, 6-4.

The Behr-Larned contest was in the second round of the all comers tournament, and the scores were 6-4, 6-4, 1-6.

RESULT IN DOUBLES

The result of the doubles was expected by many but Larned's defeat was unexpected. Behr waited until the first set was well started before he began running his service. After that he played very fast.

The doubles match was a much harder fought contest than that of last year, when the same quartet met in the challenge match. Ward's play, in view of his absence from the game since his return from Europe, was a surprise, while the work of Hackett and Alexander showed considerable improvement.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

DO YOU REMEMBER?

Prince Alexander of Bulgaria was deported by his subjects, French prisoners being transported from Toulon to Martinique, revolted and attempted to seize the ship. Two cannons loaded with grape were fired upon them, killing many and subduing the remainder.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY.

In Jefferson county, Mo., two threshing machine owners quarreled, and then turned their traction engines loose on each other. The engines were both smashed, and one of the drivers was fatally injured.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY.

Charles W. Nordstrom was hanged for murder at Seattle, Wash. He totally collapsed and had to be tied to a board on the scaffold.

Bronchitis

The next time you meet your doctor, ask him his opinion of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in cases of bronchitis. Then when you have a hard cold in the chest you will be ready to follow his advice. Doctors very generally endorse this old, standard, family cough medicine. They know all about it. They prescribe it in just these cases.
