

supper was served. The happy couple left for California Thursday morning on their honeymoon. The bride is a popular young lady of Salt Lake and the groom is a well known railroad man of Ogden.

Prof. E. A. Sullivan of Denver, Colorado, visited in Ogden this week with friends.

The Eagles had their annual outing Thursday at Utah park, which was a long to be remembered event for the pleasure seekers. The afternoon was spent at various kinds of contests for the ladies and gentlemen attending such amusement and vaudeville performances, dancing and other pleasures were enjoyed. Delicous refreshments were served.

Ogden, June 29.—Monday afternoon Miss Marie A. Belman was pleasantly surprised by a host of the primary children of whom all the affair was planned by her daughter of two. They selected the date, invited the invitation, inviting their girl friends and teachers, and made all necessary arrangements. The afternoon and evening were spent playing games on the lawn, while refreshments were served. All departed having thoroughly enjoyed themselves throughout the day. Mrs. W. L. Williams, Mrs. Bennett Smith, Mrs. Fred W. Chambers, Miss Eddie Head, Jacob Richardson, Vera Clark, Leiland Blodet Margaret Holson, Ethelma Poulter, Mamie and Laura Chambers, Joseph and Vernon Crawford, Albert Greenwell, Maude Blodet, Earl and Eddie Reeder, Lulu Oberon, Sogel West, Annie Phillips, Wayne Tolstrup, Jessie Colf, and Myrtle Wade.

Mrs. H. H. Spencer and family have gone to Spencer, Idaho, on their summer vacation.

Mrs. Martin Culver gave a very delightful patriotic party at her home on west Twenty-first street, Thursday afternoon, which was attended by a number of her lady friends. Each was the principal pleasure of the day prizes being awarded to Mrs. Joyce Mrs. Buck. After cards a sumptuous dinner was served. The decorations were very gay of the national colors and cut flowers.

Miss Eddy has invitations out for a breakfast to be given Wednesday morning, July 5, at the Virginia hotel.

Mrs. Wherry was the charming hostess at a "200" party given this afternoon at her home on Madison avenue, which was participated in by a large number of her lady friends. The house was profusely decorated with cut flowers.

Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. William Driver gave a Remington at her beautiful home.

Mrs. Thomas Whately entertained a few of her lady friends Thursday evening.

Mrs. Hannah Hansen and granddaughter, Miss Stella Huntsman, of Gilmore, were visiting in Ogden with Mrs. Hansen's sons, George and John Hinckley.

PROVO.

A very pretty home wedding took place Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. John Strong, when her son Dean and Miss Roxie Cluff were joined in wedlock by Bishop T. N. Taylor. The ceremony was performed in the dock in the presence of the guests. The bride was charming in a beautiful gown of cream silk crepe, the groom in the usual suit of black. The house was prettily decorated with roses on the lawn, which was illuminated with numerous Japanese lanterns, was laid back to the music of the band, which crowded dance away the hours to the sweet strain of the music from the orchestra. About 130 guests sat down to the sumptuous wedding supper. The presents received by the happy couple were elaborate and useful.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Graham, assisted by their daughter, Eddie, entertained the postoffice employees and their wives, the near relatives of the family, together with the bishopric of the Sixth ward, at their home, 92 E. Second West, Monday evening in honor of Mr. Leyland Graham and Miss Linda Gandy, who were married at Wednesdays marriage in the Temple in Salt Lake. Mr. Graham has been an employee of the postoffice for the past eight years, and has but lately transferred to the railway mail service running between Salt Lake and Butte. Both young people are well and favorably known in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Graham, though having lived in Payson spent a number of years in this city while attending the B. Y. University, and they have a host of friends to wish them happiness and joy through the voyage of life. Mr. and Mrs. Leyland Graham left on Thursday for Portland. They will make their home in Salt Lake.

An informal reception was given Wednesday afternoon from 5:30 to 7:30 by Mrs. E. D. Partridge and Miss Alice Reynolds at the home of the former, 349 N. Academy Ave., in honor of Mrs. Prof. E. D. Noyes of Berkley, Calif. The room was prettily decorated with roses for the occasion. About 50 guests were entertained.

Mr. Fred L. Davis of this city and Miss Pearl Wrightman of Payson were married on Thursday at the home of the bride's parents and a grand reception given their friends.

Mrs. Lizzie Sutton entertained on Saturday afternoon at her beautiful new home, 155 E. Center street, in honor of Mrs. Emily Ivie and Mrs. Anna Welch, who are visiting here from Sevierville.

The Bonnie Brier club met on Monday with Miss Vira Stover. A very interesting paper on Robert Burns was given by Miss Hazel Howe, followed by an instrumental selection taken from the comic opera Heidelberg was rendered by Miss De Lity Clift. The club adjourned for two weeks to meet with Miss Fern Sutton.

Miss Chloe Reed, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Reed, is visiting relatives and friends in Salt Lake City.

Miss Alice Reynolds and Miss Vilas Elliott left Thursday for Canada, where they expect to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Besler and Miss Minnie Houston were entertained at dinner Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Besler at their beautiful fruit farm. An excellent dinner and plenty of fine cherries and strawberries were served.

Mr. Vivian Hinckley left the fleet of the week for the Central States mission.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Finlayson and daughters, Via and Hazel of Payson were the guests of Prof. and Mrs. Hickman on Monday.

The Priella Art club were entertained Thursday evening by Miss Estelle Bennett, at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Finlayson, 666 N. First West. With the nimble fingers were busy with the art work, music and social chat whilst away a couple of pleasant hours after which delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Loughborough entertained at their home, 339 N. Sixth West, at dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Graham and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Craven.

The Woman of Woodcraft gave a social and Strawberry festival on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Webster on Provo bench, which was a most enjoyable affair. About 50 participated.

The many friends of Miss Louise Haymond of Springville who for a long time was employed as a teacher in this city, will be pleased to learn of her marriage with Mr. W. V. Shadrack of Perry, Okla., which was solemnized at the Hotel Temple on Wednesday noon. After the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast was served in honor of Miss Vivian McNamee, Mr. and Mrs. Shadrack will leave Sunday for a trip to the coast returning when they will make their future home in Perry, Okla.

Mrs. G. A. McAlister Jr. is here from California and is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McAlister Sr.

Mr. John D. Spencer, Miss Jean Spencer and Master David Spencer came up from Salt Lake on Tuesday and have gone over to Wright's farm to spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wright and family.

Mrs. A. D. Thatchett returned from a visit to Salt Lake Thursday evening.

Mrs. Lafe Burton and children are visiting in Logan and will remain for some time.

Mr. Alex Nibley left Logan on Monday last to fill an appointment in Holland.

Miss Mabel Grimes arrived in Logan last Friday evening from Chicago.

Mrs. H. H. Spencer and family have gone to Spencer, Idaho, on their summer vacation.

Mrs. Martin Culver gave a very delightful patriotic party at her home on west Twenty-first street, Thursday afternoon, which was attended by a number of her lady friends. Each was the principal pleasure of the day prizes being awarded to Mrs. Joyce Mrs. Buck. After cards a sumptuous dinner was served. The decorations were very gay of the national colors and cut flowers.

Miss Eddy has invitations out for a breakfast to be given Wednesday morning, July 5, at the Virginia hotel.

Mrs. Wherry was the charming hostess at a "200" party given this afternoon at her home on Madison avenue, which was participated in by a large number of her lady friends. The house was profusely decorated with cut flowers.

Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. William Driver gave a Remington at her beautiful home.

Mrs. Thomas Whately entertained a few of her lady friends Thursday evening.

Mrs. Hannah Hansen and granddaughter, Miss Stella Huntsman, of Gilmore, were visiting in Ogden with Mrs. Hansen's sons, George and John Hinckley.

PROVO.

A very pretty home wedding took place Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. John Strong, when her son Dean and Miss Roxie Cluff were joined in wedlock by Bishop T. N. Taylor. The ceremony was performed in the dock in the presence of the guests. The bride was charming in a beautiful gown of cream silk crepe, the groom in the usual suit of black. The house was prettily decorated with roses on the lawn, which was illuminated with numerous Japanese lanterns, was laid back to the music of the band, which crowded dance away the hours to the sweet strain of the music from the orchestra. About 130 guests sat down to the sumptuous wedding supper. The presents received by the happy couple were elaborate and useful.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Graham, assisted by their daughter, Eddie, entertained the postoffice employees and their wives, the near relatives of the family, together with the bishopric of the Sixth ward, at their home, 92 E. Second West, Monday evening in honor of Mr. Leyland Graham and Miss Linda Gandy, who were married at Wednesdays marriage in the Temple in Salt Lake. Mr. Graham has been an employee of the postoffice for the past eight years, and has but lately transferred to the railway mail service running between Salt Lake and Butte. Both young people are well and favorably known in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Graham, though having lived in Payson spent a number of years in this city while attending the B. Y. University, and they have a host of friends to wish them happiness and joy through the voyage of life. Mr. and Mrs. Leyland Graham left on Thursday for Portland. They will make their home in Salt Lake.

An informal reception was given Wednesday afternoon from 5:30 to 7:30 by Mrs. E. D. Partridge and Miss Alice Reynolds at the home of the former, 349 N. Academy Ave., in honor of Mrs. Prof. E. D. Noyes of Berkley, Calif. The room was prettily decorated with roses for the occasion. About 50 guests were entertained.

Mr. Fred L. Davis of this city and Miss Pearl Wrightman of Payson were married on Thursday at the home of the bride's parents and a grand reception given their friends.

Mrs. Lizzie Sutton entertained on Saturday afternoon at her beautiful new home, 155 E. Center street, in honor of Mrs. Emily Ivie and Mrs. Anna Welch, who are visiting here from Sevierville.

Miss Chloe Reed, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Reed, is visiting relatives and friends in Salt Lake City.

Miss Alice Reynolds and Miss Vilas Elliott left Thursday for Canada, where they expect to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Besler and Miss Minnie Houston were entertained at dinner Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Besler at their beautiful fruit farm. An excellent dinner and plenty of fine cherries and strawberries were served.

Mr. Vivian Hinckley left the fleet of the week for the Central States mission.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Finlayson and daughters, Via and Hazel of Payson were the guests of Prof. and Mrs. Hickman on Monday.

The Priella Art club were entertained Thursday evening by Miss Estelle Bennett, at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Finlayson, 666 N. First West. With the nimble fingers were busy with the art work, music and social chat whilst away a couple of pleasant hours after which delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Loughborough entertained at their home, 339 N. Sixth West, at dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Graham and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Craven.

The Woman of Woodcraft gave a social and Strawberry festival on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Webster on Provo bench, which was a most enjoyable affair. About 50 participated.

The many friends of Miss Louise Haymond of Springville who for a long time was employed as a teacher in this city, will be pleased to learn of her marriage with Mr. W. V. Shadrack of Perry, Okla., which was solemnized at the Hotel Temple on Wednesday noon. After the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast was served in honor of Miss Vivian McNamee, Mr. and Mrs. Shadrack will leave Sunday for a trip to the coast returning when they will make their future home in Perry, Okla.

Mrs. G. A. McAlister Jr. is here from California and is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McAlister Sr.

Mr. John D. Spencer, Miss Jean Spencer and Master David Spencer came up from Salt Lake on Tuesday and have gone over to Wright's farm to spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wright and family.

Mrs. Lafe Burton and children are visiting in Logan and will remain for some time.

Mr. Alex Nibley left Logan on Monday last to fill an appointment in Holland.

Miss Mabel Grimes arrived in Logan last Friday evening from Chicago.

Mrs. H. H. Spencer and family have gone to Spencer, Idaho, on their summer vacation.

Mrs. Martin Culver gave a very delightful patriotic party at her home on west Twenty-first street, Thursday afternoon, which was attended by a number of her lady friends. Each was the principal pleasure of the day prizes being awarded to Mrs. Joyce Mrs. Buck. After cards a sumptuous dinner was served. The decorations were very gay of the national colors and cut flowers.

Miss Eddy has invitations out for a breakfast to be given Wednesday morning, July 5, at the Virginia hotel.

Mrs. Wherry was the charming hostess at a "200" party given this afternoon at her home on Madison avenue, which was participated in by a large number of her lady friends. The house was profusely decorated with cut flowers.

Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. William Driver gave a Remington at her beautiful home.

Mrs. Thomas Whately entertained a few of her lady friends Thursday evening.

Mrs. Hannah Hansen and granddaughter, Miss Stella Huntsman, of Gilmore, were visiting in Ogden with Mrs. Hansen's sons, George and John Hinckley.

PROVO.

A very pretty home wedding took place Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. John Strong, when her son Dean and Miss Roxie Cluff were joined in wedlock by Bishop T. N. Taylor. The ceremony was performed in the dock in the presence of the guests. The bride was charming in a beautiful gown of cream silk crepe, the groom in the usual suit of black. The house was prettily decorated with roses on the lawn, which was illuminated with numerous Japanese lanterns, was laid back to the music of the band, which crowded dance away the hours to the sweet strain of the music from the orchestra. About 130 guests sat down to the sumptuous wedding supper. The presents received by the happy couple were elaborate and useful.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Graham, assisted by their daughter, Eddie, entertained the postoffice employees and their wives, the near relatives of the family, together with the bishopric of the Sixth ward, at their home, 92 E. Second West, Monday evening in honor of Mr. Leyland Graham and Miss Linda Gandy, who were married at Wednesdays marriage in the Temple in Salt Lake. Mr. Graham has been an employee of the postoffice for the past eight years, and has but lately transferred to the railway mail service running between Salt Lake and Butte. Both young people are well and favorably known in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Graham, though having lived in Payson spent a number of years in this city while attending the B. Y. University, and they have a host of friends to wish them happiness and joy through the voyage of life. Mr. and Mrs. Leyland Graham left on Thursday for Portland. They will make their home in Salt Lake.

An informal reception was given Wednesday afternoon from 5:30 to 7:30 by Mrs. E. D. Partridge and Miss Alice Reynolds at the home of the former, 349 N. Academy Ave., in honor of Mrs. Prof. E. D. Noyes of Berkley, Calif. The room was prettily decorated with roses for the occasion. About 50 guests were entertained.

Mr. Fred L. Davis of this city and Miss Pearl Wrightman of Payson were married on Thursday at the home of the bride's parents and a grand reception given their friends.

Mrs. Lizzie Sutton entertained on Saturday afternoon at her beautiful new home, 155 E. Center street, in honor of Mrs. Emily Ivie and Mrs. Anna Welch, who are visiting here from Sevierville.

Miss Chloe Reed, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Reed, is visiting relatives and friends in Salt Lake City.

Miss Alice Reynolds and Miss Vilas Elliott left Thursday for Canada, where they expect to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Besler and Miss Minnie Houston were entertained at dinner Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Besler at their beautiful fruit farm. An excellent dinner and plenty of fine cherries and strawberries were served.

Mr. Vivian Hinckley left the fleet of the week for the Central States mission.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Finlayson and daughters, Via and Hazel of Payson were the guests of Prof. and Mrs. Hickman on Monday.

The Priella Art club were entertained Thursday evening by Miss Estelle Bennett, at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Finlayson, 666 N. First West. With the nimble fingers were busy with the art work, music and social chat whilst away a couple of pleasant hours after which delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Loughborough entertained at their home, 339 N. Sixth West, at dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Graham and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Craven.

The Woman of Woodcraft gave a social and Strawberry festival on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Webster on Provo bench, which was a most enjoyable affair. About 50 participated.

The many friends of Miss Louise Haymond of Springville who for a long time was employed as a teacher in this city, will be pleased to learn of her marriage with Mr. W. V. Shadrack of Perry, Okla., which was solemnized at the Hotel Temple on Wednesday noon. After the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast was served in honor of Miss Vivian McNamee, Mr. and Mrs. Shadrack will leave Sunday for a trip to the coast returning when they will make their future home in Perry, Okla.

Mrs. G. A. McAlister Jr. is here from California and is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McAlister Sr.

Mr. John D. Spencer, Miss Jean Spencer and Master David Spencer came up from Salt Lake on Tuesday and have gone over to Wright's farm to spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wright and family.

Mrs. Lafe Burton and children are visiting in Logan and will remain for some time.

Mr. Alex Nibley left Logan on Monday last to fill an appointment in Holland.

Miss Mabel Grimes arrived in Logan last Friday evening from Chicago.

Mrs. H. H. Spencer and family have gone to Spencer, Idaho, on their summer vacation.

Mrs. John W. Taylor, the Moors and Ella Booy are visiting relatives and friends in the home of Mrs. John W. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Taylor.

A dainty shower was given Miss Anna Morris at the home of Miss Anna Morris, Main Harris, Ella Booy, Clara Christensen, Sarah Mathias, Linda Jensen, Willa Jensen, Lois Tingey, Vida Jensen, Anna Larsen, Nellie Young and Linda Hodges.

The marriage of Miss Anna Morris and Mr. Ross Fuller of Deseretella will be held in July.

A china shower was given Miss Anna Morris at the home of Miss Anna Morris, Main Harris and Master David Spencer came up from Salt Lake on Tuesday to attend the board meeting of the H. Y. W. Y. Club.

The marriage of Miss Anna Morris and Mr. Ross Fuller of Deseretella will be held in July.

A dainty