NOTICE.

THE Jordan Irrigation Company are about to take up several thousand acres of land some three and four miles south-west of Jordan bridge. They have taken a water level from the Jordan river to their contemplated survey, and have ascertained that the water can easily be brought into use on the same by making a canal about seven miles in length.

Any person wishing land can obtain the same by paying about ten dollars per acre in labor or other good means.

Those that have land in previous surveys and who wish water will require to apply for the same, as there will be no more water taken out than needed.

Application to be made to Geo. B. Wallace, or to the Secretary, Robert L. Campbell, at the Historian's office.

By order of the Board of Directors, GEO. B. WALLACE.

N. B. If there is not sufficient means raised to complete the work so that the land can be watered next spring there will be no means called for. 3-2†
