

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

GRAND DUNFORD, "The Hat," has just received Spring Style Hats, Dress Hats, etc. Gents, call and see them. d39

THEATRE OPEN ON Saturday evening.

A STAYING girl woman wanted, to do general housework. See advert. Read the advt. of Haynes & Son, chain and boiler makers. They also do all kinds of smith work, make and repair copper or iron fire boxes and all kinds of boiler work on reasonable terms, and all work guaranteed.

We challenge the world to produce a collar that will keep clean longer, without washing, than the Elmwood.

SPRING FASHIONS.—An elegant assortment of Ladies' Pattern Hats, Bonnets, Flowers, Ribbons, Feathers, Ornaments and Trimmings, will arrive in a few days at Mrs. Colebrook's Temple of Fashion. d38

The exactness with which the man of the house should follow his wife is related as amusing. He will go to it, and she will come to the line that separates his territory from that of the cat door neighbor, and then he stops and glances at his eye, and treats the snow that lies over the boundary as though it were so much poison.

SELLING OFF AT COST the entire stock of Dry Goods at Shwartz Store, East Temple Street, on account of removing into the new store lately occupied by Mr. Wallace, confectioner. No. 87

TO RENT.—The premises, No. 90 East Temple Street, suitable and fitted up for a bank. Enquire in the basement of DANIEL GREING.

THE Cheapest Place to buy Wall Paper is at Rivers & Co's, one door south of Walker House. d32

HANDSOME Window Cornices just arrived at Rivers & Co, one door south of Walker House. d32

HUMAN HAIR.—Gents' Wigs from $12. Whiskers, $3.50, Ladies' Switches from $5, Curls from $1.50, Fronts from $8, Curled Wigs, $10, and all sorts of Hair Goods cheap at the Standard Hair Store. d78

We are told that the "smallest hat" has a shadow. And so it does. It throws a shadow over your appetite when you find it in your vest.

IF YOUR Watches or Clocks are out of repair, bring them to H. Reiser, Watchmaker, opposite the Herald Office. He warrants his work. d80

HANDSOME stock of Wall Paper just arrived at L. W. Rivers & Co, one door south of Walker House.

The greatest immorality lies in pretence and high pressure moralizing upon pretence, with precise recitation in the opposite direction.

WANTED IMMEDIATELY.—Five hundred men to purchase the Spriggs Coal. Apply at once at the yard. Procure while you can a supply of this splendid fuel and be happy. d78

CHAMBER'S ENCYCLOPEDIA.—Messrs. J. B. Lippincott & Co., of Philadelphia, announce that, by a new purchase, they have become the sole proprietors of the American Revised Edition of "Chamber's Encyclopedia," and are thereby enabled to offer the work at much lower rates than hitherto.

In the course of its recent thorough revision, the American edition was edited with the special view of supplying the wants of American readers. It also possesses a special attraction in containing a series of over seventy-five full-page engravings not contained in any other edition. d50

The nearest mine in Michigan is a considerable distance from the coast. It is a lady's chicken, and after he had run down one side of the hill, he had to make a calculation of how far he had to run, and charged mileage.

AN AWFUL RESPONSIBILITY.—Everybody has something to say about consumption. We all deplore its terrible ravages, but only a few of us seem to have common sense enough to take the proper means of preventing it. It is a fact as easy of proof as that two and two are four, that HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR, taken as a remedy for cough, cold, difficult breathing, hoarseness or any other of the symptoms which, if we were, pave the way for that terrible disease, will effect a radical and rapid cure of the ailment, and avert all danger. Whoever, knowing this, neglects to resort to the true specific under such circumstances, assumes a fearful responsibility.

Pike's Tooth-ache Drops.—Cure in one minute.

A French writer says that handsome men are exceedingly rare among Americans, which prompts an exclamation to remark that this is due to the fact that so many give nearly all their time to the cultivation of their faces.

LEMON AND ORANGE.—Dr. Price's Flavorings of Lemon and Orange are made from the fruit, and have their grateful, agreeable taste with the turpentine odor which is observed in those extracts usually sold, and taste sharpened by a cayenne pepper. We advise those who wish choice, pure extracts to buy Dr. Price's. They are, like his Cream Baking Powder, all that is represented, really genuine, almost alone in the market in these important respects.

CITIZEN BUILDING SPOT for sale. 30th Ward. Apply at this Office. d34

IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.

It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and most pleasant to travel.

We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is centrally located, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making Eastern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore, Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kankakee Line and Pan Handle Routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets by the Old Pioneer Route—

The Chicago and North-Western. You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second-Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information, with maps, time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Offices in the West, or upon personal or written application to J. W. Irons, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City, A. H. Earl, Ticket Agent at Ogden, or to J. H. Mountain, Western Traveling Agent, Omaha, Neb., or to W. H. Stennett, General Passenger Agent, Chicago. d34

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY AND READING ROOM, University Building. FREE. Open every evening from 6 till 10. d320

BEST live Geese Feathers at 80 cents a pound, and all kinds of Fancy Brushes very cheap at Dinwoody's.

The difference between sexes may be stated thus: A man gives forty cents for a twenty-cent thing he wants, and a woman gives twenty-five cents for a forty-cent thing she does not want.

PURE OLIVE OIL.—Constantly on hand the genuine article directly imported from France, for sale by Louis A. Bertrand, at his residence, half a block west from the Valley House and three doors from the Utah Hotel, and by Mr. Riser, watchmaker, opposite the Herald Office; price from fifty cents to two dollars, according to the size of the bottles.

As a Frenchman, I do testify that my olive oil is the very best in the market. d3

OVERSHOES, Rubber Boots, etc., sold, healed and repaired at the Workingmen's Co-op, 30 Main St. d82

A merry laugh, a jolly word, a beaming face, a sunny day—these are among the choicest blessings which can be bestowed upon a gloomy spirit.

For all Female Complaints. In young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or the change of life, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription manifests such a positively remedial influence as to call forth the loudest praise from all who use it.

Mr. John A. Kimzey, druggist, of Knob Noster, Mo., writes as follows: "Dr. Pierce's Buffalo, N.Y., Dear Sir—Your medicines sell better than any other I keep, and give universal satisfaction. The people are especially delighted with your Favorite Prescription, and it seems to be a favorite among all that have ever used it. It is sold by druggists and dealers in medicines."

A Welsh clergyman is an ordinary of brother minister states that he died in his harness, and his buckles were and one as a memento of the angel unburied and unlocked the prison in which Peter was confined.

PRICE OF GOLD. For correct daily by Desert National Bank. SALT LAKE CITY, March 6, 1875. Buying at $1.12 1/2; selling at $1.15.

EVENING NEWS. Tuesday, March 3, 1875.

Local and Other Matters.

Thermometer 41 degrees F in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Fine.

New Paper at Pioche.—The following comes per Desert Telegraph line—

"Pioche, 9.—The first number of the Daily Journal was issued this morning, Jones & Murray, proprietors."

What Will He Become?—On Thursday evening, commencing at half past seven, Elder George Teasdale will deliver his interesting lecture on "What Will He Become?" at the Twentieth Ward Schoolhouse.

Free to the public.

In the East.—By courtesy of Brother Geo. C. Riser, we have been enabled to peruse a letter to him from Elder H. J. Hill, now on a mission in the eastern States. The communication is dated Indianapolis, Ind., and gives some account of his missionary labors, the result of which are, in his own words, "encouraging."

A Veteran Departed.—A dispatch last evening, from Bellevue, Kane County, brought the intelligence that Elder Joseph S. Scofield, a staunch veteran in the Latter-day work, departed this life at a quarter past 11 o'clock yesterday.

Elder Scofield had been laboring for a considerable time on the St. George Temple, and had the supervision of the carpenter department of that structure. As had been previously stated in the NEWS, he was on his way home to this city a few days ago, when he was overtaken with severe illness, and leaves behind him many friends, and kindly remembrance in the hearts of his numerous friends. He was a first-class mechanic and a defender of the principles of truth.

He was one of the pioneers of this valley, being one of the few earliest settlers who came here in 1847. He was a most excellent workman, and his skill and ability had been for many years devoted to the service of the Church, of which he was an unflinching member, and it is no small part in the program of his useful life record that the last energies of his early existence were devoted, even until within a few days of his demise, to the worthy object of building, to erect a Temple to the name of the Lord.

The body of deceased was packed in ice and is on the way to this city for interment, in charge of Brother Scofield's two sons and his son-in-law, who were with him when he died.

District Court Proceedings To-day.—The jury in the case of C. C. Eddy vs. Humphrey Rogers, Mathews interpleader, brought in a verdict for plaintiff for balance unpaid on a promissory note made and executed by defendant.

Stringfellow et al vs. Cain et al. application for a restraining order, pending application for an injunction to restrain defendants from tearing down a certain wall, belonging to defendants, and upon which a building claimed by plaintiffs on the north side rests. The Court ordered that the defendants be allowed to go on with the building improvements alluded to in the papers, and that they, however, use due precautions with a view to doing as little damage as possible to the plaintiffs.

The jury in the case of Kate Flint vs. Jeter Clinton et al. was called and counsel on both sides announced that they were ready. Robertson, Morgan and McBride for plaintiff and Snow, Sutherland and Bates for defendants.

The following were drawn as a petit jury to try the case—

Charles Ellis, Geo. M. Ottlinger, S. F. Nuckolls, George E. Bourne, S. H. Shurtliff, Dr. W. C. Thomas, Joseph Selgel, Daniel Crum, Wm. Taylor, E. B. Callahan, Robert Cannan, A. W. Davis.

Judge Sutherland interposed a challenge to the array of the jury, the first ground of which being that the Clerk of the Third District and the Probate Judge of Salt Lake County did not, as the law provides, on the 1st day of January, 1875, select the names of 200 male citizens of the United States, to serve as jurors, some of those drawn being aliens, and subsequently naturalized.

The second ground was that more than the legally required number of the names on the list were drawn as grand jurors, leaving a large number in the box to be drawn as petit jurors than required by law.

Mr. McBride demurred to the challenge; demurrer sustained. Defendants excepted.

The jury were then sworn on their voir dire.

Mr. McBride read an affidavit purporting to have been made by the plaintiff, Kate Flint, in which she set forth that the defendants are members of an organization known as the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, that the members of that association consider themselves under obligations to sustain their brethren, their allegiance to the principles of the association being considered by their members superior to that they owe to any other organization, or to the laws of the land; that Jeter Clinton, the party who issued the writ of abatement ordering the destruction of plaintiff's property, is an elder in the church named, and that the affiant is not, but has, he believes, incurred the displeasure of the said Church organization, and therefore she prays that any person being a member of the Church named be deemed by the court sufficient cause for challenge, and disqualify him from sitting as a juror in the case wherein she is plaintiff and Jeter Clinton et al. defendants.

Mr. Sutherland objected to the filing of the affidavit, and stated that it should not have been read, as it had never been served on the defendant's counsel, and they were therefore not prepared to answer. He read the law prescribing what constitutes disqualifications in a juror. He said that the other side presumed that the parties were prejudiced beforehand, and that the counsel were seeking to prejudice "Mormons" generally. The affidavit was not proof to establish the bias of jurors; it was not proof qualified by law, and was not entitled to be received and considered in that connection.

The Court overruled the objection to the filing of the affidavit; defendants excepted.

Mr. McBride said that the affidavit was merely to pave the way to the interesting of challenge, on account of jurors belonging to the "Mormon" Church.

Charles Ellis was the first juror called upon by Mr. McBride. The first question was in the usual form, until the juror was asked if he was "a member of the Mormon Church."

Mr. Sutherland objected, on the ground that there was nothing before the Court to show that that question would lead to a determination as to the qualifications of a juror.

The Court overruled the objection, and he question was allowed. Mr. Ellis said he was not a "Mormon."

He was next asked whether, if he should be developed in the course of the trial that the plaintiff whose property was destroyed was the keeper of a house of ill fame, he would be willing to give an impartial verdict in her favor, should the law and evidence so warrant.

Mr. Sutherland objected, on the ground that it seemed that the counsel appeared to stand upon the premature proposition that the repudiation of a juror to a trade like that mentioned was sufficient for a disqualification.

Objection sustained; plaintiff's excepted.

Mr. McBride, to Mr. Ellis.—"Would you consider yourself bound by the law in the case as delivered to you by the Court?"

Objected to by the other side. Objection overruled; defendants excepted.

Mr. Ellis was accepted by both sides, the defense putting no questions to him.

Geo. M. Ottlinger was the next juror examined. In answer to questions by Mr. McBride he said he had no bias for or against the plaintiff or any of the defendants; he was acquainted with most of the defendants, and was brother-in-law to one of the latter, John D. T. McAllister.

The plaintiff did not challenge the juror, however, on the ground of the latter's relationship to one of the parties defendant.

"Are you a member of the Mormon Church?" said Mr. McBride.

"Yes," was the answer. Mr. McBride challenged the juror because he was a member of the "Mormon" church. Before the challenge was disposed of the Court took a recess for one hour.

Concert at Tooele.—From our correspondent, "Rural," we have received the programme of a concert, given in Tooele City last evening, by Miss Clara Hill and T. Croft, senr. The programme comprises vocal and instrumental music, the former including comic and sentimental songs, the latter overtures, waltzes, &c., by brass and string bands; during the evening the audience was amused with several choice recitations. "Rural" says the affair was a success in every way, and would have been no disgrace to towns of larger pretensions and population than Tooele. The same artists intend giving another concert, with change of programme, on the 15th inst.

Principal vocalist and pianist, Miss C. Hill; organist, Miss M. Warburton; conductor, Mr. T. Croft.

Gray Slate.—Mr. Jeremiah Gibson brought to us to-day some specimens of gray slate, which he, with James R. Shaw, found four or five miles from this City. There is a good road to the bed, and the specimens have been pronounced of good quality.
