SEVENTH CONGRESS.
WASHINGTON, 28.—The Mexican pension bill was taken up.
Sherman was not in favor of the clause that would require the base his application on his poverty.
He thought that a degradation.
Many regarded the proposed clause as humiliating and hoped it would not be agreed to.
Moran said our army in Mexico was never defeated, and added 300,000,000 acres to this republic. Yet we were here clanking with the Mexican soldier as to whether we should give him a paltry $8 a month, unless he went down on his knees and begged for it.
Ingalls moved to lay on the table the amendment proposed by the Senate committee. He offered pension to those dependent upon their labor, in whole or in part, or the assistance of others.
Motion agreed to, 40 yeas, 20 nays 20.
One clause of the bill as it came from the House reads that sections of the Revised Statutes that prohibits pension to soldiers who engaged in the rebellion against the United States, but limits the repeal to cases coming under this act. The Senate committee recommended striking out the limitation, but the Senate by vote of 35 yeas to 25 nays laid the amendment on the table.
