BROKAWS LIVED BEAUTIFUL LIFE

Soon After Their Honeymoon They Began to Call Each Other Such Names as "Liar."

HE SAYS SHE WAS JEALOUS.

She Accused Him of Visiting Other Women, Lie Passed and Quarrel Ensued.

New York, Dec. 23.—Principals and attorneys in the Brokaw separation suit were early in attendance in the courtroom at Mineola today. W. Gould Brokaw was obviously nervous, and his wife, Mary Blair Brokaw, who wants a separation, and substantial alimony, again showed evidences of the strain.

Mr. Brokaw, on taking the witness chair, was led by his attorney back to the time of his marriage with Mary Blair in 1907 and gave his version of incidents on their honeymoon. From his account, the troubles between the couple began early and were due to Mr. Brokaw's actions.

While at the Hotel Seville he testified he went out and bought some flowers for his wife and on his return she accused him of having been in the company of another woman.

"Did your wife call you a liar?" he was asked.

"Yes, and I called her a liar in return," was the reply.

Mrs. Brokaw also accused him of drinking, when he had not been doing so, he said.

Brokaw told of undergoing an operation and of having requested his wife to remain at home to keep him company while he was convalescing. She insisted, however, on going out with the doctor. When she returned there was a quarrel. Mrs. Brokaw's version of the incidents of that quarrel, however, was controverted by her husband.

Brokaw touched lightly on the episode at the dinner table in which "Jimmie" Martin was said to have figured. The witness declared that he did not leave the table because his wife was flirting with Martin, who at the time was only 25 years old and had been married only a year.

Another occasion when Mrs. Brokaw had accused him of visiting another woman was referred to by the witness, who said that the epithet of liar had again passed between them in the resulting quarrel.

"Did you ever threaten to leave your wife if she did not stop flirting with Mr. Gould?" Mr. Brokaw was asked.

His answer was as emphatic as was that to a question as to whether he had his clothes packed ready for removal on this alleged occasion.

QUARTER MILLION DOLLAR FIRE IN KANSAS CITY

Kansas City, Dec. 23.—After a two hours fight made hazardous by frequent explosions and falling walls, firemen here early today succeeded in gaining control of a blaze that consumed the Rialto building at Ninth street and Grand avenue, and caused a loss approximating $250,000.

Showers of sparks and blazing coals fell on the new postoffice building just across the street from the Rialto and on the old postoffice separated from it by a narrow alley. Only the efforts of an army of fire fighters kept these and other surrounding buildings from catching fire.

The fire started in a florists store, presumably from escaping gas. The street floor of the building was occupied by [illegible] and the remaining floors were offices. A few persons slept in the building but it is believed all escaped. The building was a total loss, not even the walls remaining.

STORMY WEATHER IN NEW MEXICO AND ARIZONA

Albuquerque, N. M., Dec. 23.—Storm conditions continue in New Mexico and Arizona. Cold weather records have been smashed by the present storm. Three feet of snow is reported in the vicinity of Flagstaff, Ariz., and the blizzard has extended clear to the Mexican border. Magdalena, N. M., 150 miles south of here, reported the temperature 21 below zero yesterday morning, snow a foot deep, and the storm still raging.

WOUNDED BUFFALO BULL TREES TWO YOUNG BOYS

St. Paul, Dec. 23.—Walter Hill youngest son of James J. Hill, and Rudolph J. Schiffmann, both of St. Paul were marooned in the branches of a tree on the railroad magnate's North Oaks farm a few miles out of St. Paul until a late hour yesterday by a wounded buffalo bull.

The pair, with two others, went to the farm to kill four of the herd of 20 animals, the keeping of so many being no longer practicable. Hill shot at the first one, but the bullets he poured into the beast had no effect and he escaped the bull's horns by climbing a tree already occupied by Schiffman. The pair were rescued by neighboring farmers on snow shoes. They then continued the hunt and killed three more animals.

MAFIA OUTRAGE COMMITTED IN PALERMO

Rome, Dec. 23.—A bomb was exploded in front of a grocery in Palermo last night, wrecking the front of the shop. The outrage was the work of the Mafia, which had demanded $5,000 from the groceryman, which he refused to pay.

FOR A LONG VOYAGE.

New York, Dec. 23.—Just out of dry dock and ready for all kinds of seas and weather on two oceans, the steam yacht Aquilo left New York before daybreak this morning for a trip of 17,000 miles through the straits of Magellan to Seattle, Washington.

The Aquilla was purchased recently by Mr. Wm. L. Law a San Francisco banker who has just formed the Western Steel company of Seattle. The steel company owns extensive deposits of ore along Puget Sound and will use the Aquilo for conveying its officers and engineers to and from its various properties.

GREAT STORM ON THE ATLANTIC.

New York, Dec. 23.—According to wireless reports from incoming liners, a storm of great magnitude is prevailing upon the Atlantic. The Lusitania, the St. Paul, the Minnetonka and La Touraine are among the west-bound liners which have found the weather very severe. They will all reach New York behind schedule.

SUGAR INVESTIGATION.

Atty.-Gen Wickersham Opposes One By Congress at Present Time.

Washington, Dec. 23.—President Taft's views as expressed in his annual message to Congress that a congressional investigation of the sugar frauds might prove embarrassing in view of the inquiry now being made by the department of justice and the treasury finds a warm advocate in Atty.-Gen. Wickersham.

He made it clear today that he was opposed to any such inquiry pending the endeavors of the two departments to punish the guilty and to recover the money wrongfully withheld from the government.

Mr. Wickersham said his experience of legislative inquiries had convinced him that usually the result of such work was framing policies for the future rather than assisting materially in punishing the evil doers and helping to redeem any losses the government may have sustained.

TIBURON ISLAND MYSTERY FADED

Seven American Explorers Return From a Complete Exploration Of the Famous Place.

CONTAINS NO HUMAN BEINGS.

Any Amount of Game but No Hidden Treasure or Rich Mineral Veins Found.

Nogales, Ariz., Dec. 23.—The mystery and glamour for many years surrounding Tiburon island, Gulf of California, has been effectually dissipated by the return yesterday of seven of the American explorers who had passed through Nogales on Oct. 18 on their way to explore the island, which they supposed to be inhabited by man-eating Seri Indians and to contain hidden treasure and rich mineral veins. The party was under the leadership of Prof. Fayette A. Jones.

At Guaymas the explorers bought a boat, provisioned it for a three months' stay and proceeded up the gulf, landing at Keno bay, on the mainland. There they were visited by 20 Seris, men and women, who proved friendly, and who informed them that there was nothing of value on the island. However, they crossed to the island, established a permanent camp and prosecuted their explorations for five weeks, finding no indication of anything of value or of great interest.

The island is 20 miles wide and 35 miles long and is of volcanic origin. Good grass abounds and there is some running water. It contains no human beings, but hundreds of deer and myriads of wild pigeons. Inscriptions were found proving the visit there in 1905 of a rescue party in search of traces of the Grendell exploring expedition lost in the year before.

During the party's stay it was visited by former Congressman Conn of Ind., who is making a pleasure cruise in his private yacht "Comfort."

The party received every help and courtesy at the hands of the Mexican officials. It came away thoroughly satisfied that the mystery and romance to Tiburon are all a myth.

MICHIGAN FOOTBALL CAPTAIN.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Dec. 23.—The election of J. Joy Miller of Detroit as captain of the University of Michigan football eleven, has been repudiated. Miller's "letter M" has been recalled and letters of apology have been sent to the five universities against which Miller played because of the discovery that Miller was not enrolled in any classes.

CULTIVATE HABITS, NOT MAXIMS.

In the conduct of life habits are of greater importance than maxims, because habit is a living maxim that has become flesh and instinct. To remodel one's maxims means nothing. This is only to alter the title of the book. But to acquire new habits is everything, for it is to grasp the meaning of life, which is only a tissue of habits.—Henri Frederic Amiel.

COURAGE.

'Tis the front toward life that matters most—
The tone, the point of view,
The constancy that in defeat
Remains untouched and true.

For death in patriot fight may be
Less gallant than a smile,
And high endeavor to the gods
Seems in itself worth while.

HE WANTED MORE.

A prominent western sheep raiser ran short of hands and hired a green man, who boasted that he could tend sheep with any of them. He received a big drove to herd and returned at the end of the month.

"Do you want me to herd sheep?" he asked of his employer.

"Do I want you to herd sheep!" said the latter. "Why, what did I hire you for?"

"Well," said the herder calmly, "if you want me to keep on herdin' 'em you'll have to get me another drove, 'cause them I had is all gone!"
