

SOCIAL GATHERING

Ends dinner tomorrow and with it ends the long dearth of social festivities which the Lenten season implies. A number of wedding and other interesting social affairs are marked for the opening week and the revival will doubtless continue through the spring season.

On Wednesday Mrs. W. H. Child entertained at a progressive luncheon in honor of Miss Dorene Buckingham, covers being laid for 16. The rooms were prettily decorated in white and yellow, daffodils, cherry blossoms and yellow candle-shades being used. The progression at the two tables was to the side of the guest of honor, besides whom were present Miss Helen Buckingham, Miss George Savage, Miss Pearl Savage, Miss Daisy Savage, Miss Helen Hall, Miss Anna Hall, Miss Olive Jennings, Miss Gertrude May, Miss Crete Plunkett, Miss John S. May, Mrs. H. S. Knight, Mrs. E. V. Shaver, Mrs. Herbert B. Brown and Mrs. Edward Moore.

Mrs. A. D. Melvin will receive her friends informally next Wednesday from 2 to 5 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John Lewis in the Emery-Holmes previous to her departure for Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Kimball entertained at a delightful party on Thursday night about 30 of their friends being present. The rooms were effectively decorated, and the scores and tallies were in keeping with the prevailing idea.

One of the largest affairs of the week was the reception given on Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holm, about 50 guests being present. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of greens and spring flowers, and the hosts were assisted in entertaining and receiving by a number of their intimate friends.

Mr. Robert H. Lohrle will be guest of honor at a ball to be given next Monday night at Salt Lake.

Miss Marjorie Ward entertained the members of her sewing club at her home this afternoon.

Mrs. William McCaskell will be hostess at an evening party at Whitehall on Monday.

Miss Dorene Buckingham entertained the members of her sewing club at her home on Thursday.

The reception to be given by the Daughters of Confederacy will take place next Friday night at the Kenyon.

Miss Charlotte Holmes will be guest of honor at a musicale to be given next week by Mrs. J. L. Parker.

Miss Winnie Evans entertained the members of her sewing club at her home on Thursday night.

The members of the Emery-Holmes Mutual Improvement board were tendered a very enjoyable reception Thursday evening by Asst. Supt. and Mrs. Henry Th. McLean at their home on Fourth street. A very amusing drawing game was played in which Mrs. Louis R. Wells and Miss Young were prize winners. During the evening Superintendent Matheson Thompson, on behalf of the board presented the retiring secretary, Ed. L. Parker, with a beautiful token. Delicious refreshments were served and a very enjoyable time was had in all. Those present were Asst. Supt. and Mrs. Th. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Matheson Thompson, Prof. and Mrs. Jos. J. Daynes, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Hillman, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Will Folland, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parker, Misses Grace T. Cannon, Janie Cutler, Miss Young, Eva Hudson, and Messrs. Frank P. Roster, Gen. M. H. R. Roster, Owen and C. H. Nenden.

The announcement cards and invitations have been issued for the Strollers' dance to take place right after Lent, Friday, April 28, 1905, at Christensen's hall, for the benefit of the University gymnasium. This is one of the largest dances the club has given, and a great many of the University students are expected, and also the cadet boys. The cadet boys will give a grand march at 9 p. m.

The chaperones are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Th. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kearns, Hon. Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Madison, Hon. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Riter, Hon. Mr. and Mrs. Kinsbury. The numerous organizations of the University have banded together to attend the dance.

The four committees consists of the club members as follows: H. H. Madison, E. A. Jaeger, A. H. Meredith, C. B. Hansen, F. J. Folland, Y. Oster, R. Kendall, H. Wilson, S. H. Riser, T. N. N. B. Buckley, F. A. Mead, E. McDonald, D. Wilson, H. Sanchez, M. Fegworth, O. Baucker, C. McElvey, J. Browning.

On Wednesday Mrs. J. M. Shofahl entertained the ladies of the Scandinavian Happy Hour club at her apartment in the Emery-Holmes building.

The young people of the Unitarian

WEDDING BELLS

Mrs. A. T. Moon entertained at an informal luncheon on Thursday, in honor of Mrs. A. D. Melvin.

One of the delightful events of the week was the Kensington given on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. John McDonald, about 60 guests being entertained. The rooms were beautifully decorated, the drawing room in American Beauty roses and the sitting room in pink and white roses and carnations. During the afternoon a musical program was rendered, and the affair was in every way enjoyable. Mrs. McDonald was assisted by members of her family.

Mrs. W. H. Child and Mrs. T. B. Davis will be guests of honor at a tea next Thursday, given by Mrs. Hubbard Reed.

Mrs. Ferdinand Fabian entertained informally at luncheon on Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank D. Ely will be hostess at a luncheon next Tuesday, in honor of Mrs. Margaret Gray Lane and her prospective bride.

Mrs. R. J. Glendinning will entertain at bridge next Monday.

On Wednesday Mrs. W. J. White entertained at a delightful tea in honor of her mother, Mrs. Juliette Pratt, in celebration of the lady's sixty-sixth birthday. The rooms were bright with spring flowers, and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Frank Larned, Mrs. Richard Harrington, Mrs. Julius Pratt and Miss Neva Pratt.

Mrs. Leonard M. Bailey entertained this afternoon at a party luncheon in honor of Miss Sarah.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Porter entertained at an elaborate dinner on Tuesday night at the Kenyon in honor of Mrs. Edward Polony of Los Angeles, who is visiting Mrs. Thomas Kearns. The table was laid in the private dining room, and was beautifully decorated, covers being laid for seven.

Monday was the fifteenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Andrews and the date was made the occasion of a pleasant surprise by a number of their friends who assembled unexpectedly at their home in the evening and spent a most enjoyable time. A number of appropriate gifts were presented, and many good wishes extended for the future.

Mrs. Dorsey Ash will entertain on next Monday in honor of Miss Dorene Buckingham.

Miss Pearl Rothchild was hostess at an enjoyable affair on Tuesday night, given in honor of Miss Ella Meyer, about 50 guests being present. The amusement was "43" and the tallies and scores were Easter designs.

On Tuesday Miss Dorene Buckingham was entertained by Miss Sarah Alexander, the function being a Kensington, which was enjoyed by a few of the more intimate friends of both.

Mrs. Thomas Weir will entertain at a small luncheon on next Wednesday.

Last night Miss Maude Hampton and Mildred Hansen entertained at cards, the affair taking place at the home of Miss Hansen. The rooms were prettily decorated, and the time was enjoyably spent.

Miss Marguerite Taylor was hostess at a kitchen shower party on Thursday, given in honor of Miss Nell Cullen, a number of their mutual friends being present, and presenting gifts appropriate to the nature of the event. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all, a feature being a guessing contest, the prize winner being Miss Phoebe Harden.

Miss Cullen was guest of honor at another pleasant affair this afternoon, her hosts being Miss Helen Criss, who entertained a number of friends at a Kensington.

Mrs. Elias Morris announces the engagement of his daughter, Miss Josephine Edna Morris, to Mr. George A. Goff, the wedding to take place in May. Miss Morris is the popular young daughter of this city, and Mr. Goff a prominent young business man of Brigham Junction, being cashier of the newly established bank there. Their many friends will extend congratulations.

The wedding of Miss Margaret Gray Lane and Louis E. C. Saunders will take place at Fort Douglas on next Thursday, the ceremony to be performed in the post chapel and an informal reception to follow at the home of the prospective bride. The bridesmaids will be Miss Gertrude McGroth and Miss Johnson, and the matrons of honor Mrs. John B. Barnes and Mrs. Frank D. Ely.

J. A. De Bonck of this city is to be married on the 25th of April at Pueblo, Colo., to Miss Minnie Macdonald. They will reside at 129 N. Street, this city.

A pretty wedding of the past week was that of Miss Ida A. Hilton and Harry W. Boston which took place at the home of the bride's sister Mrs. J. W. Keddington. The rooms were beautifully decorated in spring flowers and vines, and Rev. B. M. Heinrich officiated in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends, a reception following from 8 till 10. The bride wore a charming gown of white silk mull and carried carnations. There were many elegant presents, and scores of good wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Boston will be at home after May 12 at Sixth and I streets.

Next Wednesday Miss Lily Richards, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Richards of this city, and Mr. Albert Genter of Butte will be united in marriage.

Ida Van Sant and Brenton M. Sears have announced their marriage, the ceremony having been performed last Saturday at Ogden in the presence of the near relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Ripley announce the engagement of their daughter, Ada home with Mrs. McCrea at 402 east First South street.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman of Michigan, who have spent the past few months with their daughter, Mrs. W. Montague Ferry, left this week for their home.

Miss Addie Zane is home from Chicago where she has spent the winter.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

PROVO.

When the following invitation was issued by the officers of the Elks lodge last week the recipients reacted with anxious expectancy the event, which was so successfully carried out. The officers of Provo lodge, No. 418, R. P. extend to you the glad hand and

TO WED "TIM" WOODRUFF.

Miss Isabel Morrison will be married to former Lieut.-Gov. Timothy L. Woodruff on April 24 at the home of her mother in New York. Only relatives and a very few intimate friends will witness the marriage, and there will be no reception. Miss Eugene Gray Watson, who is to marry Mr. John Woodruff, son of Mr. Woodruff, on May 25, will act as maid of honor. After the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Timothy L. Woodruff will live at the Woodruff home, Eighth avenue and President street, Brooklyn.

J. West, to Frank A. Love, The wedding will take place June 1.

The marriage of Miss Pearl Florence Cull and George E. Daniel will take place Wednesday, April 26.

After spending the carnival season in Reno, Charles and Monte Carlo, Mrs. Glen Miller has gone with friends to Rome to attend Easter services at St. Peter's. Her son Glen, and nephew, Glen Smyth, are in school at Geneva, Switzerland, the same school, by the way, at which the great Napoleon received a part of his early education.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wally have gone to California for a short visit.

Mrs. P. A. Dreuhl is at home, after passing the winter at Pacific Grove.

Miss Rita Meyer of St. Paul is the guest of Mrs. Helen Zimmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Ferguson are home from California, but expect to leave shortly to make a tour of some time on Terminal Island.

Major George M. Lowrey is in the city visiting his parents, Major and Mrs. George M. Lowrey.

Miss Stella Folland has gone to Evansville, Ind., to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chapman.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Sherman and Miss Eloise Sherman are now in Dresden.

Charles R. Shaffer of Canon City, Colo., is in the city visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Child.

Mrs. C. Bohm and Mrs. Charles Miller of La Crosse, Wis., are visiting Mrs. George E. Forrester of this city.

Mrs. B. B. Turner is down from Boise for a short visit. Mrs. Turner is well remembered here, as she was formerly Miss Love, the daughter of the late James Love.

Mrs. J. W. Langley expects to leave the last of the month for Nevada.

Mrs. Fremont Woodruff of Detroit is in the city visiting Mrs. R. C. Woodruff.

Mrs. George Y. Wallace, accompanied by Mrs. George Tuttle and her little son, will be home from the coast about the end of the present week.

Mrs. K. C. Woolley has just returned to the city.

Guy Eldredge of New York is in town visiting his mother. Mrs. Eldredge will be here early next month to remain some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Susan Appa have again taken their own home on First street.

Mrs. D. C. Roberts has returned from Seattle.

Mrs. John A. Reeves and sons have gone to Los Angeles.

Mrs. T. C. Bailey has arrived in the city after an absence of some time in New York.

Miss Elphie Kimball has returned from her European trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Leola Richards are planning at the Kenyon hotel until their departure for Peru the latter part of the month.

Mrs. E. T. Pearson will shortly be at home with Mrs. McCrea at 402 east First South street.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman of Michigan, who have spent the past few months with their daughter, Mrs. W. Montague Ferry, left this week for their home.

Miss Addie Zane is home from Chicago where she has spent the winter.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

PROVO.

When the following invitation was issued by the officers of the Elks lodge last week the recipients reacted with anxious expectancy the event, which was so successfully carried out. The officers of Provo lodge, No. 418, R. P. extend to you the glad hand and

TO WED "TIM" WOODRUFF.

Miss Isabel Morrison will be married to former Lieut.-Gov. Timothy L. Woodruff on April 24 at the home of her mother in New York. Only relatives and a very few intimate friends will witness the marriage, and there will be no reception. Miss Eugene Gray Watson, who is to marry Mr. John Woodruff, son of Mr. Woodruff, on May 25, will act as maid of honor. After the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Timothy L. Woodruff will live at the Woodruff home, Eighth avenue and President street, Brooklyn.

J. West, to Frank A. Love, The wedding will take place June 1.

The marriage of Miss Pearl Florence Cull and George E. Daniel will take place Wednesday, April 26.

After spending the carnival season in Reno, Charles and Monte Carlo, Mrs. Glen Miller has gone with friends to Rome to attend Easter services at St. Peter's. Her son Glen, and nephew, Glen Smyth, are in school at Geneva, Switzerland, the same school, by the way, at which the great Napoleon received a part of his early education.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wally have gone to California for a short visit.

Mrs. P. A. Dreuhl is at home, after passing the winter at Pacific Grove.

Miss Rita Meyer of St. Paul is the guest of Mrs. Helen Zimmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Ferguson are home from California, but expect to leave shortly to make a tour of some time on Terminal Island.

Major George M. Lowrey is in the city visiting his parents, Major and Mrs. George M. Lowrey.

Miss Stella Folland has gone to Evansville, Ind., to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chapman.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Sherman and Miss Eloise Sherman are now in Dresden.

Charles R. Shaffer of Canon City, Colo., is in the city visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Child.

Mrs. C. Bohm and Mrs. Charles Miller of La Crosse, Wis., are visiting Mrs. George E. Forrester of this city.

Mrs. B. B. Turner is down from Boise for a short visit. Mrs. Turner is well remembered here, as she was formerly Miss Love, the daughter of the late James Love.

Mrs. J. W. Langley expects to leave the last of the month for Nevada.

Mrs. Fremont Woodruff of Detroit is in the city visiting Mrs. R. C. Woodruff.

Mrs. George Y. Wallace, accompanied by Mrs. George Tuttle and her little son, will be home from the coast about the end of the present week.

Mrs. K. C. Woolley has just returned to the city.

Guy Eldredge of New York is in town visiting his mother. Mrs. Eldredge will be here early next month to remain some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Susan Appa have again taken their own home on First street.

Mrs. D. C. Roberts has returned from Seattle.

Mrs. John A. Reeves and sons have gone to Los Angeles.

Mrs. T. C. Bailey has arrived in the city after an absence of some time in New York.

Miss Elphie Kimball has returned from her European trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Leola Richards are planning at the Kenyon hotel until their departure for Peru the latter part of the month.

Mrs. E. T. Pearson will shortly be at home with Mrs. McCrea at 402 east First South street.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman of Michigan, who have spent the past few months with their daughter, Mrs. W. Montague Ferry, left this week for their home.

Miss Addie Zane is home from Chicago where she has spent the winter.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

PROVO.

When the following invitation was issued by the officers of the Elks lodge last week the recipients reacted with anxious expectancy the event, which was so successfully carried out. The officers of Provo lodge, No. 418, R. P. extend to you the glad hand and

TO WED "TIM" WOODRUFF.

Miss Isabel Morrison will be married to former Lieut.-Gov. Timothy L. Woodruff on April 24 at the home of her mother in New York. Only relatives and a very few intimate friends will witness the marriage, and there will be no reception. Miss Eugene Gray Watson, who is to marry Mr. John Woodruff, son of Mr. Woodruff, on May 25, will act as maid of honor. After the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Timothy L. Woodruff will live at the Woodruff home, Eighth avenue and President street, Brooklyn.

J. West, to Frank A. Love, The wedding will take place June 1.

The marriage of Miss Pearl Florence Cull and George E. Daniel will take place Wednesday, April 26.

After spending the carnival season in Reno, Charles and Monte Carlo, Mrs. Glen Miller has gone with friends to Rome to attend Easter services at St. Peter's. Her son Glen, and nephew, Glen Smyth, are in school at Geneva, Switzerland, the same school, by the way, at which the great Napoleon received a part of his early education.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wally have gone to California for a short visit.

Mrs. P. A. Dreuhl is at home, after passing the winter at Pacific Grove.

Miss Rita Meyer of St. Paul is the guest of Mrs. Helen Zimmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Ferguson are home from California, but expect to leave shortly to make a tour of some time on Terminal Island.

Major George M. Lowrey is in the city visiting his parents, Major and Mrs. George M. Lowrey.

Miss Stella Folland has gone to Evansville, Ind., to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chapman.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Sherman and Miss Eloise Sherman are now in Dresden.

Charles R. Shaffer of Canon City, Colo., is in the city visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Child.

Mrs. C. Bohm and Mrs. Charles Miller of La Crosse, Wis., are visiting Mrs. George E. Forrester of this city.

Mrs. B. B. Turner is down from Boise for a short visit. Mrs. Turner is well remembered here, as she was formerly Miss Love, the daughter of the late James Love.

Mrs. J. W. Langley expects to leave the last of the month for Nevada.

Mrs. Fremont Woodruff of Detroit is in the city visiting Mrs. R. C. Woodruff.

Mrs. George Y. Wallace, accompanied by Mrs. George Tuttle and her little son, will be home from the coast about the end of the present week.

Mrs. K. C. Woolley has just returned to the city.

Guy Eldredge of New York is in town visiting his mother. Mrs. Eldredge will be here early next month to remain some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Susan Appa have again taken their own home on First street.

Mrs. D. C. Roberts has returned from Seattle.

Mrs. John A. Reeves and sons have gone to Los Angeles.

Mrs. T. C. Bailey has arrived in the city after an absence of some time in New York.

Miss Elphie Kimball has returned from her European trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Leola Richards are planning at the Kenyon hotel until their departure for Peru the latter part of the month.

Mrs. E. T. Pearson will shortly be at

MISS MARY SULLIVAN.
BOSTON NURSE WEDS MILLIONAIRE.

Miss Mary Sullivan, who has been called "Boston's most beautiful nurse," was married to Stephen Codman, Jr., a millionaire architect of Boston. They were married at the Codman estate in Westwood, Father Welch of St. Joseph's church, where the Catholic nurses of the hospital training school attended, performing the ceremony. The couple will make a short tour in New York, and the remainder of the honeymoon will probably be spent abroad.

Mr. Joseph Monson has returned from a business trip to Idaho.

Mrs. D. H. Thomas and children returned Thursday evening from Salt Lake, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Blair.

Mr. R. W. Sloan of Salt Lake is in Logan.

Mrs. Cotey and Mrs. Widsoe entertained at luncheon at the Agricultural college on Saturday.

Mrs. J. A. Widsoe returned from Salt Lake Thursday evening.

LEIGH.

Wednesday evening Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Steele entertained the "500" club at their beautiful home. Games were played and a most delicious supper was served. Among those present were Messrs. and Mesdames R. E. Steele.

Mr. Thomas Austin of Sugar City, Idaho, was a Lehi visitor Monday.

Mr. Morgan Howell left on a mission Monday.

The people of the Third ward gave

The Kayser
PATENT FINGER TIPPED
SILK GLOVES

A guarantee ticket with every pair
All shades and styles

LOOK IN THE HEM

Beware of the
"JUST AS GOOD" kind.
They are never the genuine
"KAYSER."

THE KIND THAT DON'T WEAR OUT
the name Kayser you have the genuine, unquestionably the best silk glove ever made

JOHN HENRY SMITH, Pres. W. N. WILLIAMS, Supt.

Co-op. Furniture Co.

Be it known to all men and women in Utah, that we have THE MOST COMPLETE ASSORTMENT of

GO-CARTS and CARRIAGES.

This Go Cart is sold regularly for $4.00. We offer them for a week at—

$3.00 $17.50

Our line is famous for QUALITY, ORIGINALITY, and SIMPLICITY. Call and see them, and get our prices. Our prices range from $3.00 to $50.00. Just received a Car-Load of Refrigerators. Now is the time to buy a good refrigerator and keep your food sweet.

This handsome Go-Cart is sold for more elsewhere. You get it here for—

$3.00 $17.50

You may be thinking of using an artificial food for your baby. Try Mellin's Food; it is a proper food suited to the baby's condition. It is not a medicine but a true food. Let us send you a sample to try.

Mellin's Food is the ONLY Infants' Food, which received the Grand Prize, the highest award of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, St. Louis, 1904. Higher than a gold medal.

MELLIN'S FOOD CO., BOSTON, MASS.

On Thursday evening a pleasant surprise party was given by Mrs. Thomas Bricker, a large crowd, with well filled luncheon baskets, took possession of their cozy home, about 8 p. m. Dancing, games and visiting made the hours happy ones.

A children's party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paay by their son Loren, on Monday evening. The pleasures arranged for the merry crowd were games, dancing and luncheon.

The largest social affair of the week was the banquet given by the members of the Brigham Young university to the champion basketball team of the state. At 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, in the new missionary building, about 65 of the faculty and guests sat down to an excellently prepared banquet, directed by Miss Ward of the domestic science department and prepared and served by the young ladies taking the course. Toasts were responded to by President Hinckley, Mr. Cotton, Mr. Teetsel, Mr. Stevenson and Mr. Mangum. The room was beautifully decorated with potted plants, while the tables were artistically arranged with yellow daffodils.

Mrs. Susan Young Gates was visiting relatives and friends in Provo on Sunday and Monday.

Miss Hill of Iowa spent Thursday and Friday in Provo, the guest of Miss Queen.

Mrs. J. B. Keeler spent Thursday with friends in American Fork.