Basket Ball Girls of that Institution Beat High School.

The L. D. S. U. team in the girls' basket ball league scored another victory yesterday when they met and defeated the High school girls, the points made being 14 to 3. It was a great victory for the L. D. S. and a crushing defeat for the High school.

Despite the big score the contest was a warm one and the teams played fiercely for five minutes in the first half before a score was made. The first basket was thrown by Rose Hicks from the center of the field. Flora Ashton and Emma Frewin followed it up with a score each. The L. D. S. made seven points while the High school from

WHO WILL CORBETT FIGHT? Sam Harris Trying to Force a Match With McGovern.

Concerning a recent report quoting "Sam" Harris as saying that if McGov-ern defeats "Dave" Sullivan in his com-ing fight he would force "Young Cor-bett" into a return match with the erstwhile "Terrible Terry," Johnny Corbett

"I think Harris is making a mistake, for in defeating Suliivan, McGovern is only doing what George Dixon, Kid Broad, Oscar Gardner, Ole Olson and others have done. Had Terry taken on Fenny Yanger or Broad and knocked either of them out, which 'Corbett' failed to do, then the public would ask for a return match between Corbett and McGovern. Now both Yanger and and Broad gave 'Corbett' a re-turn match when they won from him: if they had not 'Corbett' would not have had the chance to fight the former champion. Both of these boys are now asking bim for the same chance they asking bim for the same chance they gave him, and doesn't it look to any fair-minded person that Terry should either defeat them or stand aside until 'Corbett' does? It does to me, and that is the position boh 'Corbett' and myself take."
