ELDER ABRAHAM O. WOODRUFF.

ELDER ABRAHAM O, WOODRUFF. My dear brothers and sister, I trust that the Lord may inspire the words I shall speak to you. I feel deeply inter-ested in the work in which we are en-gaged, and in the general welfare of this people. I know that the Lord is accomplishing a great and a marvelous work through His servants and hand-maidens, who have been obedient to the principles of life and salvation as revealed, in these latter days, through the instrumentality of the Prophet Jo-seph Smith. It is, indeed, pleasing to hear of the growth of the stakes of Zion, and the splendid prospects there are before us at home. This is an era of opportunity for the Latter-day Saints. There never was a time I can remember when there were so many ex-Saints. There never was a time I can remember when there were so many ex-cellent opportunities before this people for the development of their resources, for home building, for the cultivation of the soil, for the establishment of in-dustries, and for employment. Today men who want work can find it. The establishment of various industries has dustries, and for employment. Today men who want work can find it. The establishment of various industries has opened new avenues for the employ-ment of both young and old, and there need be no unemployed among us. If we can only keep busy, and retain the spirit of the Lord, we will be able to maintain our standing as the people of God. THE HINDRANCE OF DEBT.

THE HINDRANCE OF DEBT. While most of the reports have been very pleasing, it is lamentable to hear of the indebtedness existing among the Latter-day Saints, as reported by some of the brethren. How many have mortgages upon their homes today, not-withstanding we have been always counseled not to go in debt? True, there may be conditions when men, in order to save their honor, are com-pelled to incur debt; but such cases are rare. We have been counseled all the time in regard to this, and also in re-gard to other things we have not been entirely obedient to. The result is, many of our Elders, when called to go into mission fields, and labor to spread the Gospel among those who sit in darkthe Gospel among those who sit in dark-ness, have to excuse themselves, for heres, have to excuse themserves, for the reason they are under an obligation of debt, and are therefore unable to re-spond to the call. This, indeed, is an unfortunate condition of affairs. We ought to be obedient to the counsels of the servants of God. We should be the servants of thos. We should be willing and prepared togo wherever and whenever we are sent, and perform whatever labor we are called to engage in. No matter how apparently insignificant the labor may be, if we are where the Lord wants us, we ought to be satisfied.

OBJECT OF MISSIONARY WORK.

In listening to Brother Grant, it occurred to me that his report would at least be encouraging to some of our mission presidents, who probably feel they are not accomplishing as much in spreading the work as they would like to do, and who receive no encouragement, but that which they get from the Lord. Here is Brother Grant, one of the best preachers we have in the Church, and eleven other missionaries who have been fifteen months in Japan and have baptized on-the reason they have not learned to honor the order of the Priosthood of the Son of God. They have not learned to strest them to sustain. If I were choos-ing a body of men who could be depend-ed upon to always do the right thing in this kingdom, I would choose men bishops, who uphoid the lesser as well as the higher Priesthood; and who are wards, not men who work only on dress parade. Almost any one will do that, but it is not every one wild will work in the wards, and labor dill-gently for the upbuilding of the king-stiding over a mission. I would think very little of an Elder who would work only when I was with him, or who, it he were not told just what to do, would sit down at mission headquarters and Donothing. It is in these little affairs of life that It is in these little affairs of life that we show our love for the work of God. If we really love the work, there is nothing, no matter how small it may be, that we will not be glad to do for the upbuilding of the kingdom, whether it be seen of men or not. labored with as great diligence as any missionaries could do. Our mission is not to go out for the sole purpose of not to go out for the sole purpose of seeing how many we can baptize. Our mission is to convert people, and we want to be sure they are converted be-fore they are led into the waters of baptism. We do not want people to accept the Gospel and afterwards turn from it. Better that they had never received it. We should be satisfied they are thoroughly converted to the prin-ciples which God has revealed through the Prophet Joseph Smith before they are baptized. While, perhaps, converare baptized. While, perhaps, conver-slons in the world have not been num-erous during the past year, yet the labors of the Elders have been assidu-ous and untiring; they have been do-termined that people should understand the Gospel before being encouraged to accept the ordinances of baptism, and the laying on of hands for the reception of the Holy Ghost. Some of our pessi-mistic friends entertain the idea that the work of the Lord is not advancing much, but that idea is not correct; there never was a time when such excellent reports were received from the various reports were received from the various auxiliary organizations as are being delivered today. I am sure there never was anything like it in the history of utual Improvement and Sunday hool work. It is encouraging to school work. It is encouraging to school work, it is encouraging to know that the young men and women bern in the Church, and those who are bern in the Church the Church today. being brought into the Church today, have such a good understanding of the Gespel that they rarely apostatize, or place themselves in a condition that makes i necessary to excommunicate them. Of course, here and there we hear of apostasy, or transgression; and yet I know wards in this Church, that have been organized fifteen or twenty wears where been organized fifteen or twenty years, where there has never been a case of immorality on the part of the manbers. We must bear in mind we are a large body of people, and, of course, we hear occasionally of cases of transgression; but I maintain that such things are becoming less and less freare becoming less and less fre-among us. I believe that, as a quent among us. rule, the young men and young women reared in this Church will not permit it to be truthfully said of them that they have disregarded the faith of their fathers and mothers, and gone astray.

DUTY OF PARENTS.

When children go astray, and exhibit no faith in the Gospel, I believe that, in nine cases out of ten, they are from families wherein the parents have never taken the pains to gather their children around them, and teach them the word of God, morning and evening; where they have never taught them to pray, or where, in their children's presence, where, in their children's presence, of where, in their children's presence, they have spoken evil against the Priesthood of the Son of God. They may not have wanted their children to become apostate, and yet they have, per-haps unconsciously, sown the seeds of apostasy in their hearts by speaking evil of those whom it was their duty to sustain and uphold.

LOYALTY TO THE PRIESTHOOD.

To make good Latter-day Saints, we must respect our ward teachers, and teach our children to do the same, We teach our children to do the same. We must respect our ward and stake offi-each our children to do the same. We must respect our ward and stake offi-each of the twelve Apostics and other men is high standing. The man who is his heart is loyal to the presi-dent of the Church is the man who honors his Daacon, his Teachar, his Bishep, and his state officers; he does not jump over their heads, on the sightest excuse, and go to the president of the Church with little questions and troubles that ought to be sattled at home, i know there are among the latter day Saints men who, if Presi-dent smith should ask them to do any-thing, would get up and do it is a hur-ty; but if their Bishep or their ward teacher assated them to do anything they would think in to do anything they would think in to do anything they would they are insignificant. To their heads, just as sure as the Lord lives. God bless you, my brothers and sis-ters. May He give us the spirit of this work. May we understand that the time has come when we must be Saints in the home as well as in public posi-tion; that we must honor the Priest-hood of the Son of God in the ward, as well as in the stake and in the Church. If we would be blessed, we must take the counsel that has been given here in regard to being free, temporally and spiritually—free from sin and free from debt. May God put it into our hearts to receive this counsel as it comes to us from time to time, and give us cour-age and strength to carry it out. I ask it in the name of Jesus. Amen.

RETURNED MISSIONARIES

Elder Samuel M. Randall, of North Ogden, Weber county, reached home Dec. 12 from the Eastern States mis-sion, to which he was set apart Nov. 12, 1901. He labored principally in the cities of Pittsburg and Allegheny, Penn., but the last five months he la-bored in the country. He had a most successful mission and reports church conditions in first class shape in Penn-sylvania at present. Elder Randall was one of the five Elders attacked by smallpox, and was with Elder Wil-liam R. Cutler when he died from that malady in July, 1902, and was also with Elder James A. Forsyth when he died from typhoid fever in February last Everything norship. died from typhoid fever in February last. Everything possible was done to save both Elders, every attention being given them during their sickness, but all without avail.

Elder Robert W. Moyes, of Baker City, Or., who was called from that ward Aug. 5, 1902, to fill a mission in the Northern States, reached this city Dec. 13 on his return. He labored for 13 months in Michigan, a short time in Iowa and the balance of the time in Illi-nois with fair success, allaying much prejudice and making many friends. The Elders in the fields are fairly treated and are doing a good work.

Elder Walter A. Wallace, of Salt Lake City, returned Dec. 17, from the German mission to which he was assigned Dec. 4, 1500. He labored with gratifying 4, 1300. He labored with gratifying success in the Frankfort and Berlin conferences. There are many sincere investigators in both these places and baptisms are frequent, netwithstanding the difficulties encountered and the lack of religious freedom.

Elder John F. Smith, of Centerville, Davis county, returned Dec. 18, from the Southern States mission, to which he was set apart Jan. 14, 1902. He labored for nine months in Florida and the remainder of the time in Ohio, being transfered thither on acount of ill-health contracted in Florida. He pre-sided in Ohio during the past six months, and reports the Church worls there in excellent condition, a spiendid work being done there the past summer. The street meetings in the larger citles being especially successful. During the past eight weeks Elder Smith has been laid up with typhoid.

Elder Nathaniel H. Felt, of Manti, Sanpete county, arrived in this city Dec. 20, from the Boutharn States mission, wither he was sent Dec. 4, 1901. He la-bored for about three months in the North Alabama conference and way then transferred to the South Carolina conference, where he has been laboring mostly in the larger cities with marked succes. The work in Spartanburg. where he was located during the past lo months, is making satisfactory prog-reas, and the prospects are very flatter-ing.

This suggests that the Nuremberg little people are careful folk and that the bump of destruction is largely developed in the little Briton across the channel. But the verse refers to the fact that in Germany, the great play-toy country, hundreds of children, boys and girls, are engaged in making toys. To be sure one would rather have the substance than the semblance thereof, but on the principle that a small loaf is better than on loaf at all, many accept the tiny Nuremberg, who could not pos-sibly find space for a real live, sweet-smelling Christmas tree from the forest primeval. Very jolly are the informal feasts spread under the glory of the twenty or so candles of the little Nuremberg tree. You may gather a few congenial spirits about you ad your trees on Christmas eve or have a late Christmas night sup-per. If you have a mahegray dining table you may brighten the effect and charm of the scene. Have the surface of the table highly polished and left uncovered, except for a small center piece and plate doilies to protect the polished wood. Let the decorations be green with plenty of yild red. Have sidelights turned very low and red shades covering them, and arrange the light and shades of the chandelier so that all the light in the apartment will be centered on the tree and the shining table. Holly thickly studded with red berries should be used in profusion. A wreath may encircle the pot holding the tree.
