BEAUTY!

OR, THE

Secret of Fair Face

An Item of Interest to Every Lady who Desires to be More Beautiful than she now is.

Unquestionably not one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American husband, escapes that hair and starting point of real beauty—a pure and clear complexion.

Without medicine, hair dyes, or any other artificial means, but by the use of a simple and safe preparation, the complexion can be made as fair as the complexion of a child.

It is a fact that the complexion of a woman is the result of the condition of her blood.

It is a fact that the complexion of a woman is the result of the condition of her blood.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Last Night's Dispatches.

NEW YORK, 22.—A rumor was spread to-day, in this city, that the books and papers of the late Commodore Vanderbilt had been sent to the city of New York.

Washington, 22.—The Secretary of the Treasury, to-day, received an anonymous communication from Boston, enclosing a letter of the Commodore Vanderbilt, dated at New York, Sept. 21, 1878.

General M. G. M. in response to a telegram from some gentleman in this city interested in the matter, sends the following as his opinion of the contents of the letter:

Persons entering a household after they have been asked to leave, and who are not known to the family, are not to be admitted.
