FRAGMENTS.

An immense bill to-morrow night at the Salt Lake Theatre.

Two men were arrested by the police last night for being drunk and disorderly.

JOSEPH JACKSON was yesterday assessed $10 by Justice Spiers, for disorderly conduct.

A sudden change in the temperature. Melting snow and muddy crossings once more.

A man named Ben Knight was arrested last evening for destroying property and for vagrancy.

SEVERAL Ogden ladies visited the Legislature this morning, among them were Mrs. F. S. Richards and Mrs. Joseph A. West.

Be careful of the children. The present weather is favorable to measles, chicken-pox, whooping-cough and diphtheria.

REV. LILLY will deliver the anniversary address to the members of the order of the Knights of Pythias, on the evening of the 19th inst.

THE young ladies of Saint Mark's School give a leap year ball at their hall this evening. None but students at this school are invited.

A bill passed the House of Representatives to-day, empowering the University of Deseret to confer degrees and diplomas on its graduates.

The grand ball in honor of the Wyoming Legislature, this evening, at the Salt Lake Theatre will, no doubt, be the most dazzling affair of the season.

A little child of Mr. Flowers, of the Eleventh Ward, was badly scalded Wednesday evening, with hot water and lye. At last accounts the child was improving.

A man and his son, engaged in shipping coal on the Alleghany river, are the champion short-hand writers. The father sent up by this empty bag a note which read: "John, put it in."

John, at the shipping point, wrote back, "Father, it is."

Yesterday we had the pleasure of a call from Messrs. Johnson, Matthews and Turner, of Cheyenne. They are with the Wyoming Legislative party.

The first named gentleman is connected with the editorial department of the Cheyenne Sun.

LOCAL NEWS.

United.—Yesterday Mr. William N. Anderson of the 6th Ward and Mrs. Martha Hodges, of the 10th Ward, were united in marriage. The young couple were amiable intelligent and worthy. They have our best wishes for their welfare.

Third District Court.—Proceedings before Chief Justice Hunter on Friday, Feb. 15, 1884.

People, et al. vs. James McKnight, assault, etc. do bodily harm; defendant arraigned and pleads not guilty. Allowed to go on the preliminary bond filed.

Chas. F. Blandin vs. Mason M. Hill, motion of plaintiff to strike out motion withdrawn, and comes on to be heard on motion to strike out parts of amended complaint.

A Musical and Literary Treat.—The musical and literary entertainment to be given at the Salt Lake Music Hall next Monday evening, promises to be a genuine treat. Mrs. M. C. Hill, Mrs. Nellie Dugan, Miss Nellie Penrose Jones, Miss Nellie Colebrook, Mr. P. T. Tibbs and many other well-known artists of Salt Lake will take part in the entertainment and to say that it will be first-class will only state what is already known to the devotees of music and literature in this city.

Wool-Growers' Convention.—From our dispatches we learn that Charles Brown, the Denver chairman of the Wool-Growers' Association, has secured a hall to the wool growers of Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, Utah, Wyoming and New Mexico, to meet in convention at Denver, March 12th, for the purpose of forming State organizations and combinations to prevent further reduction of the tariff, which is threatening the wool growing industry of the West. The movement is strongly endorsed by all prominent citizens in Colorado.

The "Instructor."—The contents of the Juvenile Instructor for February 14th, are as follows:

The Star-Fish, (illustrated), by Hesperia; A Thrilling Adventure, by John Nicholson; History of the Church; Lord Nelson; Our Theological Class; By Trial; Night Scenes in a Great City; By Kenyon; To the State Superintendent of Sunday Schools; Life of John, T. and Mary, words by J. H. Wallis, Music R. V. Parry; Travels in India, (illustrated); Scientific Proofs of Spiritual Life, by J. H. W.; Topics of the Times, by the Editor; Chapter for the Little Ones; Interesting Incidents; Easy Science Lessons; by Sunny; What is the Gospel? by J. C. Editorial Thoughts; Desires.

More Mischievous Shooting.—Not long ago we had occasion to call attention to some reckless shooting on the Eighteenth Ward bench, and today a gentleman living on a street near the bench, complained of three boys whose names he gave us, but whom we refrained from reporting to Justice Spiers, out of regard for their parents.

In returning last Wednesday from the bench, where they had been hunting, one of them shot at the gentleman's valuable dog that appeared to be within range, wounding the dog, which bled profusely over the floor on coming home. The dog being licensed there was still less ground for attempting to kill him.

The gentleman says if the police would favor the tax-payer of that locality with an occasional visit, it would be appreciated by persons whose dogs, cats, chickens, pigeons and even children are in frequent danger from reckless shooting.

Holland's Benefit.—An immense bill is in preparation for the benefit of Mr. George Holland at the Theatre to-morrow night. It is safe to presume that an audience of corresponding dimensions will display by their presence that appreciation of the benefactor and his confederates which their talents merit.

The program will open with "Our American Cousin" in which Mr. Holland as "Dandery" is so deservedly popular. This will be followed by the old-time farce of the "Spectre Bridegroom" in which Messrs. Bridges, McKenzie, and Miss A. Adams, of local fame, will appear.

Mr. Holland, as well as Miss Marjette, and Mr. Holland, of the Holland troupe. Mr. Marjette is immense as "Dickory" in this piece. Mr. H. will take the part of "Paul."

The evening's entertainment will wind up with "Robert Macaire" in which Mr. John R. Lindsay assumes the title role, with Mr. Holland as "Jacques Strop." Seats are now selling and should be secured at once. It's a mammoth bill and there should be a big house.

OUR VISITORS.

WHAT THEY ARE DOING ABOUT TOWN AND ITS VICINITY.

We have stated in another place that the Wyoming Legislative party, together with the Utah Assembly, attended the Theatre last evening to witness "Skipped by the Light of the Moon," by the Harrison-Gourlay combination.

This morning a number of the visitors from our sister Territory, accompanied by the City Council committee, called on President John Taylor at his office and remained, while, passing the time pleasantly conversing with the President on different topics of the times.

Others visited the Z.C.M.I. Shoe Factory and other places of interest in the city and at about a quarter to 3 o'clock this afternoon, the entire party, together with Governor Murray, Secretary Thomas, both houses of the Utah Legislature, and numbers of prominent citizens, took carriages for Fort Douglas.

They arrived there at about 2:30 o'clock, and at the McCook Opera House were cordially received by the Commanding Officer, staff officers, and other officers and ladies. After music by the regimental band, Gen. McCook, in well chosen words and in the name of the officers and ladies of the Post, welcomed the Governor and both Legislative parties. He good-humoredly said that to-day the officers and ladies had nothing to do but make a complete surrender, and he hoped that all would feel entirely at home.

President Holladay, Speaker Jones and members of the Wyoming Legislature were then called forward and informally introduced to the officers and their ladies, after which Governor Murray, President Cluff, Speaker Jones and the Utah Legislators were called forward and introduced in like manner. General handshaking followed. There was no song program; music, speeches, "canning," etc., were to be the order of the afternoon. Governor Murray, Secretary Thomas, and members of both Legislatures would be among the speakers. The officers and regimental band were all in full dress and presented a fine appearance.

The news is indebted to General McCook for courtesy extended to its reporter, who accompanied the visiting party and telephoned the above particulars at half-past 3 p.m. At that hour the seats were being taken out of the Opera House and everything in preparation for a dance. The party from this city will return, accompanied by General McCook and the officers and ladies from the Fort, in time for the Grand Civic Ball in the Theatre this evening.

Harrison and Gourlay.—An audience of almost equal dimensions to that which thronged the Theatre on Wednesday night, witnessed the second appearance of the Harrison-Gourlay combination last evening. Of course a great portion of the audience were members of the Utah and Wyoming Legislatures, but it is safe to say, from the multitude that remained standing and many others who would have attended but for the crowd they anticipated would be there, that leaving out the Legislators entirely, there would still have been a large house.

Owing to some misunderstanding in regard to seats, it took some time for the crowd to get settled, which somewhat marred the first act of the piece, not only for the lookers-on but evidently for the actors as well. Anyhow, they did not play with the same spirit as the night before, though this would not be the fairest to show who was "skipped" for the first time. To such it was as funny as it could be, and the way they enjoyed it was abundantly proven by their uproarious laughter and applause. Last night closed the engagement, and the company left for St. Louis at 2 a.m. to-day.

Don't be "Deceived."—A gentleman of our acquaintance informs us that this morning Brother Benjamin Blake, of the Seventh Ward, told him a tall tale man about 50 years of age, called on him last evening and solicited money and clothing to forward to a company of immigrants on the plains of Colorado, two-thirds of whom were "Mormons," in a state of starvation.

Brother Blake gave him a little money. The man said the old clothes could be sent to a house near the Theatre. He represented that the Colorado immigrants were there by counsel of the Church, and that they were all "going back" in the spring. The man did not give his name but said he came here in 1880. He had many names on his list of persons who had paid him money—men women and children. He said the people here were "deceived."

Our informant, supposing the man to be a fraud, intimates that a word of caution through the News might not be out of place. All we have to say to the people already "deceived," is this: Don't be any more so by humbugs who go about abusing the Church of which you are Members, in order to get their names into print and gain a little cheap notoriety, under pretense of a charitable sentiment.

Professor P. Cassimiro, of New York City, has been the red sunset of the theory that a Saturn-like ring is forming around the earth.

It is a theory that the ring is to blame and our vegetation will turn red. Quoted as follows.

Seven South will begin in Boston, Feb. 15.

A CARD.

In behalf of the City Council we wish to extend our thanks to the Home Dramatic Club, for their generous response to our request for a performance on Friday evening as a completion to the Wyoming and Utah Legislatures.

The fact that a change in the program became necessary only afforded another opportunity for the Home Club to exhibit its characteristic amiability, which we take this occasion to publicly recognize.

Choir Party at Moroni.—On Saturday evening, the 9th inst., about 7:30 o'clock, while the Moroni choir was at practice in the meeting house at that place, the hall doors were suddenly opened by the deacon, and about 40 couples entered, some dancing and others carrying baskets of picnic, followed by the brass band under the leadership of Brother George Simpson.

The whole thing was under the supervision of Bishop John W. Irons, who apologized for the unceremonious intrusion, by stating that they had come to manifest their appreciation of the services of the choir.

Brother Nathan Faux, choir leader, replied in a neat little speech, thanking them for their encouragement and kindly feelings in behalf of the members of the choir. Dancing then ensued until 10 o'clock, when picnic was handed round. Songs, dancing, speeches and sociability made up the rest of the evening's enjoyment. At 11:30 o'clock the party was dismissed with benediction by Brother Niels Christensen.

The committee of arrangements of this pleasant surprise party were Sisters Leonora Bradley, Ann D. Cahoon and Susan Christensen.

Salina.—R. M. Humphrey, of Salina, Sevier County, states that the people of that place have donated within the last few months $3,000 for a new meeting house. This is a good showing as there are but few families there. The weather, at writing, was very cold, but general health good. Only a few more working settlers are needed to make a beautiful town of Salina.

ABOUT one hundred couple attended the leap year "ho!" at the Salt Lake Music Hall last night. The ladies presented the "gallant" in good style and the evening passed away very pleasantly.

The final session of the educational convention opened this morning. After the discussion of several papers the association took a recess to call upon the President and the Secretary of the Interior.
