District Court Adjourned to Dec. 4-Public Offices Closed for Thanksgiving-Briefs and Personals,

-The sorrowful news of the death of Mrs. Albert Sadd, one of Ogden's most prominent ladies, cast a gloom over the entire community yesterday. Few of Mrs. Sadd's friends were aware of her illness, and the announcement of her death came as a great shock. She had not enoyed the best of health for a long time past. Two weeks ago she consulted a physician and was urged upon to undergo an operation in the hopes of relieving her of her suffering and restore her health, accordingly she went to the Ogden general hospital where the operation was performed two weeks ago by some of the most skilled surgeons of Ogden. She rallied from the operation and gradually improved, until blood poisoning set in a few days ago, when she took a relapse and gradually sank until the end came. Mrs. Sadd was the wife of Albert Sadd and a lady of refinement and no-Sadd and a lady of refinement and no-ble character, possessing those charms which endeared her to all who knew her. Her name before marrying Mr. Sadd was Bowers. She came to Ogden from Colorado and opened up a dress-making business a number of years ago, marrying Mr. Sadd about seven years ago. She was but 39 years of age at the time of her death. No ar-rangements for the funeral have as yet ents for the funeral have as yet number, the rest bing sick and on on furlough. Much excitement has prevailed here all day. The old familiar picture, "The Sol-dier's Farewell," was witnessed in real-ity. Some mothers, wives and sweet-hearts have shed the silent tear in part-ing with their loved ones. Heretofore the soldier's life has been fun, but now it is a reality, but they are anxious to do their duty.

Provo, Utah Co., Nov. 25.—Charles Beard was required to give a $500 bond to keep the peace, or in default to be imprisoned in the county jail for three months, by Justice Noon yesterday, after a hearing on a charge of threat-ening to kill Will Boshard, a young Provo man. Mr. Beard was given till Friday to furnish the bond and per-mitted to go on his own recognizance

The charge grew out of an objection on the part of defendant to have young Boshard pay attention to defendant's 15-year-old daughter, and the evidence for the state was to the effect that on Monday defendant met Boshard in the Grier hotel, and then told him that next ime he (Boshard) crossed his path he would kill him (Boshard), that Beard struck him and called him a vile name, and that immediately afterwards deurchased a pistol and some cart-idges. DEFENDED A WOMAN.

Maj. McClung Was Shot to Save Mrs. Lillie H. Coit from Harm.

San Francisco, Nov. 26 .- The police have not yet succeeded in arresting Alexander Garnett, who shot down Maj. J. W. McClung while defending Mis. Lillie H. Coit from a murderous attack by Garnett. Garnett is a romote cousin of Mrs. Coit, who is over 50 years of age. He is a native of Virginia and fought through the elvil way in the confederate army. Maj, McClung, whom he shot, and who is now believed to be in a dying condition, also served in the confed-crate army during the war. Garneit has been on the coast for the last 25 years and has been engaged in mining.

May Extradite F. B. Poor.

Seattle, Nov. 26.-Detective A. A. Carey arrived here yesterday with ex-tradition papers for Frank B. Poor, president of the Citizen's Gas & Power company, who is charged in New York with grand larceny in the first degree, who capers were taken to Gov. Mcwith grand larceny in the first degree. The papers were taken to Gov. Mc-Bride, who refused to honor them until he had looked into the case. Poor's attorneys will resist the attempt to ex-tradite him upon the ground that Poor is wanted in New York simply to col-lect a debt and that there is no ground for a criminal action. It is expected that the governor will give his decision some day this week.
