Last Night's Dispatches.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Bill to Incorporate a Salt Lake Church, &c.

WASHINGTON, 7.—Logan introduced a bill to incorporate the First Presbyterian Church of Salt Lake City; referred.

Scott, from the finance committee, reported unfavorably on the bill to refund internal revenue taxes erroneously assessed and collected; the bill with the adverse report was placed on the calendar.

Hamlin introduced a bill into the Senate to day, to relieve ships from compulsory pilot fees. It provides that no ship shall be compelled by the laws of any State to take, employ or pay any pilot on entering or leaving any port of the U. S.; referred to the committee on commerce.

The house bill for the assignment of judges in the Territories was discussed, but before reaching a vote the Senate went into executive session and soon after adjourned.

EASTERN.

Railroad Officers Elected.

NEW YORK, 7.—The following is the full ticket elected by the Panama railroad directors: President, Russell Sage; Vice President, Geo. S. Scott; Treasurer, J. B. Houston; Secretary, F. W. G. Bellows.

Only Ten-Hour Men to be Employed—Another Defaulter.

A meeting of master mechanics and builders, this afternoon, resolved to employ, after May 1st, no men unwilling to work ten hours.

Oliver T. Searing, late Secretary of the Montauk Insurance Company, Brooklyn, left suddenly for California the other day; it is reported that he is a defaulter in the sum of ten thousand dollars, expended in works of art, curiosity, etc., which have been turned over to the company.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

SOUTH BETHLEHEM, 7.—An explosion of the boiler belonging to the machinery in use by the Musconeteong tunnel to-night, killed the master mechanic and two firemen.

Indorsed.

ALBANY, 7.—The Senate, with only three negatives, and the House unanimously, endorsed the anti-inflation message of Gov. Dix, and passed resolutions instructing the Senators and representatives in Congress to resist inflation, and labor for the speedy resumption of specie payment.

Confirmed—Military Promotions—Presented Credentials.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 7.—The Senate confirmed the nomination of Moses Hallet, for Chief Justice of Colorado, and the following army promotions: Lieut. Col. Chas R. Woods to be Colonel, Major Joseph M. G. Whistler to be Lieut. Col., Captains Guide, Ilges and Alfred L. Heugh to be Majors.

Bertholdy, the new French minister, presented his credentials to the President to-day with the usual formalities.

Military Re-Union.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., 7.—A great reunion of the soldiers of the 9th district was held here to-day.

WESTERN.

Supposed Murderer Arrested—A Brutal Priest Convicted—Shipwreck.

SAN FRANCISCO, 7.—Eldridge Mowry Hopkins has been arrested, charged with the murder of Michael Fahey, this morning; he has a brother employed in the mint in this city.

Rev. Father Powers, the Catholic priest, who committed the outrageous assault and battery on Mrs. Belle Brown, was convicted in the police court this afternoon; he will be sentenced to-morrow.

The British ship Durham, from this port to Queenstown, has been totally wrecked near Variatea; no lives were lost. A vessel was dispatched to the relief of the crew remaining on the vessel, Captain Hastings having brought the news of the wreck to Tahiti, in an open boat with eight of the crew.

CANADA.

Reil to be Arrested.

OTTAWA, Ont., 7.—It is not known whether Reil will take his seat to-morrow, but if he does he will be arrested, and if he chooses to stand his trial, will be sent to Manitoba for that purpose. As it is regarded as certain that the government will not pardon him, precautionary measures to prevent or quell any possible disturbance are being taken.

FOREIGN.

FRANCE.

Paid Assessment to Carlists—Carlist Custom House.

BAYONNE, 7.—The town of Gerona has paid a heavy assessment to the Carlists.

The Carlists have established a custom house at La Jungos.

BAVARIA.

Got the Cholera.

MUNICH, 7.—Rouibach, the celebrated historical painter, is very sick of cholera.

IRELAND.

Rescued at Sea.

QUEENSTOWN, 7.—The Steamer Egypt, from New York, March 28, arrived this evening; she brought the first officer and salvage and crew rescued from the French Transatlantic Company's steamer Europe, which they endeavored to save, but were compelled to abandon in a sinking condition. The first officer of the Egypt reports that she encountered the Europe on the 2nd of April in a sinking condition, and took off the passengers and crew numbering four hundred, and proceeded on her way to New York. An officer with a crew of twenty remained on the Europe. On the 4th, the Egypt took them in tow, but a heavy sea parted the hawsers, and the water constantly gained, and they concluded to abandon the Europe, and were safely taken on board the Egypt. The Europe sailed on 27th March, from Havre for New York.

WEST INDIES.

Proclamation By the New Captain General.

HAVANA, 7.—Concha has issued a proclamation to the citizens of Cuba. He says that the war is confined to sparsely populated portions of the islands, and that it may continue some time, but that the populous and wealthy portions of the islands will be protected from ravages, and the integrity of the territory preserved. He exhorts the people to maintain composure, and promises the severest policy towards the enemies of Spain, protection to her friends and justice to all. He considers the closest union of the Spaniards is imperative under the circumstances, and he went permit the existence of political parties of any kind. He declares his conviction that peace will be restored under the flag of Spain, and says he will wait more peaceful times to settle the grave question of slavery.

FEMALE INTEMPERANCE.—The New York correspondent of the Utica Herald furnishes the following "wholesale" statements: The play actresses, ballet performers, and all the female attaches of the theatre, drink—because without this stimulus they could not go through the painful and laborious performance of their parts. The work of such a performer is sufficiently exhausting in itself, and then the green-room and purlieus of a theatre are foul with gas and other poisons, so that it is often difficult to breathe. Hence strong drink is resorted to. It is said of the little fairies of the ballet that each has her drink before going on the stage. It is also said that at least a gallon of whisky is drunk by the attaches of some theatres every night. The green-room closet is always well stocked, and if a girl gives signs of fainting, the bottle is resorted to. In addition to this, it is well known that many of the sewing girls drink under the plea of necessity. They labor so hard and for such long hours, and so often in rooms deficient in ventilation, that they demand a stimulus. I am sorry to say that another class, which has no such excuse, is also addicted to drink, but not of so vulgar a character. These are the Broadway ladies, who, while out shopping, are wont to visit fashionable lunch rooms. These rooms are not showy establishments. They have, on the other hand, a modest appearance, suitable for ladies only, but at the request of the fair customers, there is, along with the slice of cake or dish of oysters, the fatal wine bottle. There is a great deal of intemperance among the ladies of the Fifth Avenue. A friend of mine mentions seeing in a first-class mansion the mistress of the house holding on to a post at the foot of the stairs, unable to advance or retreat.
