A Genuine Tragedy.

NEW YORK, 1.—The pilots of Hill Gate and Long Island Sound gave a clambake at City Island yesterday, to the congressmen and other distinguished persons residing, this summer, on the Sound. Among the company was Signor Vianni, said to be of the suite of Count Corti, the Italian minister. After the clambake, and the company had enjoyed themselves making speeches and singing songs, Dr. Doremus announced that Signor Vianni would give a recitation in imitation of Ristori. Vianni took his position in the centre of the group. His voice was clear and well controlled, and his gesticulations were highly dramatical, his limbs seeming to quiver with passion, while the expression of his face was startling. He finished with the exclamation in Italian, "God, who judges all, will judge this." He then took a pistol from the pocket of his coat, and placing it to his temple fired. He fell partly on his face, perfectly motionless, and the applause commenced, when Doremus rushed forward, exclaiming, "He's killed." Many at first thought this a part of the entertainment, but in lifting the body the horrible truth became manifest. Vianni lived for half an hour, but never spoke. No cause was ascertained for the terrible act.

Election News—Bank of California.

SAN FRANCISCO, 2.—The returns to date are meagre, but they indicate that the democrats have elected the State ticket by a large majority. In the second congressional district the fight is between Page and Larkins, Tuttle, as far as heard from, being much behind.

There is reason to believe that the directors of the Bank of California are endeavoring to effect arrangements with the Oriental Bank of London, looking to assistance from that quarter in the contemplated resumption. A gentleman in confidential relations with the directors of the Bank of California, states that the examination of the accounts had not sufficiently progressed to enable the directors to make a definite statement as to the condition of the bank.

In an interview just had with the directors of the Bank of California, they stated in reply to a question—"We are trying to fix up this organization, but do not know whether we will succeed or not." As to the condition of the bank, they answered—"The nominal assets are about twenty millions, and the liabilities about fourteen millions, and we think the reliable assets will pay the debts."

Will Resume.

The Merchants' Exchange Bank will open to-morrow morning. The president states, personally, that a sufficient amount of coin has been collected in the regular way of business to enable the bank to meet all demands. A notification of resumption will appear in the evening papers.

CANADA.

The Jacques Cartier Bank.

MONTREAL, Que., 1.—At the Jacques Cartier Bank meeting, today, the report of the commissioner was adopted, to the effect that the bank would resume with the addition of $100,000 preferential stock to the capital, the old stockholders to have the privilege of subscribing to as much of the new stock at par as they wish, before the latter is offered to the public, the privilege to extend to the 10th of Oct. Colte, the ex-cashier of the bank, was arrested to-day, on a charge of false representations.
