

parade may be held to have been totally destroyed, it being asserted that nearly all the houses which remained standing have been so shaken that they must be pulled down. One of the travelers who arrived here today says that more than 300 persons were killed in that part of Valparaiso known as the Port and that 800 persons were injured there, but it is impossible to verify his statement.

The majority of the inhabitants of Valparaiso are camped on the hill surrounding that city, the parks and main thoroughfares near or have sought refuge on board the vessels at anchor in the bay. Martial law continues there.

AN AMBULANCE TRAIN.

An ambulance train left here today for Valparaiso with a large supply of medicines, etc., and a detachment of medical students who have volunteered to assist the earthquake sufferers. The train also took a quantity of provisions. Supplies of food and medicines have also been sent to other towns which have suffered from the earthquake.

Preparations are being made to resume trading on the Santiago stock exchange, interrupted since the earthquake and the principal financial houses are taking steps to guard against a financial panic.

A LAUGHABLE INCIDENT.

In the midst of so much distress a laughable incident occurred. A detachment of carabineers while on its way to Valparaiso made a halt for refreshments. While the carabineers were dismounted their horses bolted towards Valparaiso and the carabineers were compelled to make their way to that city on foot or in any vehicles which they were able to requisition at short notice.

The correspondent closes this dispatch with a further slight earth shock made the building in which he was writing tremble to its foundations.

SHOT HIMSELF IN PRESENCE OF WIFE

Leon Armer Committed Suicide Because Woman Refused To Return.

HE CAME HERE FROM EUREKA.

Couple Were Divorced and Husband Vainly Sought a Reconciliation—Died in Five Hours.

Because his former wife refused to return to him, Leon Armer, a Eureka, saloonkeeper, shot himself yesterday afternoon about four o'clock, and died five hours later. The shooting occurred in the presence of Mrs. Armer and her sister, Mrs. Maudie McCall, at their apartments, 128 E. Second South street.

Armer came to Salt Lake several days ago, for the purpose of seeking a reconciliation with the woman who secured a divorce from him three years ago. He called upon her repeatedly at her home, and implored her to return to him. When Mrs. Armer refused to listen to his pleas, he threatened to kill her and her sister.

Mrs. Armer succeeded once in gaining possession of her ex-husband's revolver, which he had ordered sent to him from Eureka. He found the weapon lying upon a bed in Mrs. McCall's room when Mrs. Armer entered. She saw that he had possession of the gun, and she retreated from the room. A moment later a loud report was heard, and the two women knew that Armer had carried his threat into execution. In so far as it pertained to himself.

The police were notified of the occurrence, and officers Hilton and Harris were the first persons to enter the room occupied by Armer. He lay upon the bed partly unconscious, blood oozing freely from the wound. The bullet, a 44-caliber, had entered over the heart and had passed through the body and into the mattress.

Armer was taken to the L. D. S. hospital, where he was attended by Dr. Beer. From the first it was apparent that the man could not recover, and he passed away shortly before nine o'clock.

The body was removed to the undertaking establishment of Joseph William Taylor.

LATE LOCALS.

Bank Clearings.—Today's local bank clearings amounted to $54,714.11 as against $54,119.18 for the same day last year.

Voters are Here.—The three voting machines ordered about 60 days ago for use in the coming elections have been received at the county clerk's office.

Missionary Outing.—The Swedish returned missionaries with friends are scheduled for a reunion and all-around time at Wandamere tomorrow. A fine program has been prepared, and a great time is anticipated.

Carbis Wants Help.—W. O. Carbis, county treasurer, has applied to the county commissioners for 25 extra clerks to assist in getting out the tax notices for this year. Women are to get $2.50 and the male clerks $3 a day.

Seiner in Court.—Seiner, alias James, alias several other names, who was arrested a few days ago on the charge of polygamy, was arraigned in Judge Diehl's court this morning, and the preliminary hearing set for Friday next at 10 a. m.

Funeral Tomorrow.—The funeral of Leon Armer, the Eureka saloon man, who shot himself yesterday because his divorced wife would not return to him, will be held from the funeral parlor of Joseph William Taylor, on Wednesday at 3 p. m.

Hamilton Arraigned.—F. H. Hamilton, the San Francisco attorney who was arrested several days ago on the charge of obtaining money by means of false pretenses, was arraigned before Judge C. B. Diehl this morning and the case was continued without date.

Appointments Made.—The following appointments were made this morning by Mayor Thompson and all-around time at Wandamere tomorrow. A fine program has been prepared, and a great time is anticipated.

Camille Damaged.—James A. Metcalf, and C. D. Bookbinder, of Herriman Damaged yesterday afternoon, over loaded the big canal so that it flowed over into the South Jordan canal and the combined waters then rushed into the Jordan river, carrying a great amount of debris down the stream and damaging several of the mills along the way. The pumps were made useless for the time.

More Rain Expected.—According to the weather office there is a large low barometric area, extending from above the forty-fifth parallel down into Sonora, and from the one hundred and fifth to nearly the one hundred and twentieth meridian. The area explains the continuance of the stormy weather, and it will be a day or two before this area moves east over the Rocky mountains. So rain was expected tonight and tomorrow.

WASHCUTS ON SALT LAKE ROUTE

Track Goes Out in Spots Involving Fifty Miles in Meadow Valley Wash.

BETWEEN ELGIN AND MOAPA.

If the Rain Storms Let Up the Trouble Will Soon Be Bridged Over.

The prevailing heavy rains are creating considerable anxiety in local operating and maintenance of way departments. The first road to suffer from the effects of the practically universal storm is the Salt Lake Route. Washouts are reported involving 50 miles of track between Elgin and Moapa, Nev., along the line where they were worst during the regrettable tie-up throughout the Meadow Valley Wash of three weeks last April and May.

As far as can be learned four washouts are reported at the end of the line, and it remains with Jupiter Pluvius whether or not there will be a bad tie-up. "If it quits storming we hope to have the trouble straightened out by tonight," was the optimistic answer to queries at the office of Supt. Van Housen this morning.

Supt. Van Housen, Engineer Brown, Trainmaster Smith and other officials are down at the scene and men are being rushed to the front to bridge the gap as quickly as possible. General Manager R. E. Wells is here, and is in touch with the situation.

Yesterday morning's train was the last to arrive from Los Angeles and there are two limited westbound and one eastbound held up by the trouble. It will be late this evening before it is decided one way or the other whether trains for Los Angeles will be sent out of Salt Lake tonight.

While there is plenty of material, laborers and equipment at this end to cope with the washouts the officials are handicapped at Moapa and owing to the fact that city drivers and other equipment were recently brought from off the Los Angeles division for work on this end. This makes working from both sides of the washouts practically impossible.

BLOCKADE RAISED.

Freight Tie-up at Oakland Has Now Been Cleared Up.

San Francisco, Aug. 21.—The freight blockade in Oakland is ended, and the Southern Pacific officials have removed the embargo on the five or six classes of bulky freight which has been in existence for several weeks. Any and all kinds of freight are now being shipped into Oakland. In this city, the Southern Pacific people state that the freight congestion is rapidly disappearing. Yesterday the company lifted the embargo on lime, cement and brick shipments. Freight shipments from San Francisco to Salt Lake and coast points are moving freely, showing that jobbers are doing an excellent trade with their interior customers. The Southern Pacific and Santa Fe are handling jointly out of the city about 800 cars of freight daily.

E. L. LOMAX COMING.

Union Pacific Officials Here in Interest Of New Campaign.

E. L. Lomax, general passenger and ticket agent of the Union Pacific, accompanied by Alfred Darlow, the versatile advertising man for the company, and Photographer Simpson and others, are expected to arrive in Salt Lake this evening and spend a few days here going into details in connection with the new book and advertising campaign.

A collection of advertising material aimed at close upon $50,000 was destroyed by the great San Francisco earthquake. The new campaign, in advertising the attractions of California and the "Road of a Thousand Wonders." The expense of this one campaign will be $75,000.

Simultaneously, a similar book, "The Road of a Thousand Wonders," is being printed with the same beautiful color illustrations. This book, too, will be extensively advertised so that all who travel will read it. In this book considerable space will be devoted to the scenic attractions of Utah generally and Salt Lake in particular. It is to look over the ground and see that no point has been overlooked that Mr. Lomax and his associates are coming here.

I. N. FULTON PROMOTED.

Illinois Central Man Goes to San Francisco On Sept. 1.

Effective Sept. 1, I. N. Fulton, traveling freight agent for the Illinois Central with headquarters in Salt Lake, will be promoted to contracting freight agent for the same system with headquarters in San Francisco.

Mr. Fulton is well known among local shippers and from the time he was promoted to his present position under Commercial Agent J. A. Foley he was traveling freight agent for the Oregon Short Line during the wool season.

O. S. L. WORK AT BOISE.

A force of men were out to work in the Short Line new yards this morning, digging up the turn table. The section house which was moved and is being repaired is nearly completed. Two cars of brick for the new round house arrived this morning and are being unloaded. The steam shovel which has been at Payette grade for the new depot, will be moved here this evening and start to work Monday on the west bank of the river a short distance below town taking out gravel to fill in the new yard. Twenty-six dump cars will be brought here to be used in connection with the steam shovel. Several large cranes will be at work within the next 10 days, as it is the intention to finish the new track, round house and tank and other improvements before cold weather.—Capital News, Boise.

RATES FOR LABORERS.

Portland, Ore., Aug. 21.—So urgent has become the demand for laborers in the northwest that the Northern Pacific Railway has decided to make a reduced rate from east to all points in Oregon and Washington to induce men of the working class to come to the coast. Effective today, the company will offer a rate of $25 to the two northwestern states from Missouri points.

These rates will be good only in parties of 20 or more, where one ticket

S. V. Derrah, assistant general freight agent of the Denver & Rio Grande, is expected to return from the meeting in Denver this afternoon.

AMUSEMENTS.

Orpheum.—Vaudeville of the high class, left the macadam at the Orpheum last night, cantered down the track past every quarter post, and drew up to the judges' stand amid the plaudits of its auditors, who almost packed the house. Attention was given to the kind that pleased management and patrons alike, and it was notable that the acts were clean and healthful throughout, not requiring the moral tonic allusions to which much in the vaudeville world should be plunged before it is offered to the public.

The first attraction was Charles Lederer, the "pretty little thing" with the red gutters, rubber ball bound, and wonderful balance. Charles is a very clever chap, even if he does think so himself. Modest, artistic and winsome is the young Greek violinist who handled her bow with a dexterity that buried her with applause. Rapold, juggler, athlete and giant—in strength, gave us something new in his line, and comes as near being in a class by himself as any similar artist has ever visited Salt Lake. In the acrobatic dance whirl the five Salvaggi ally themselves very close to the sensational, and leave the stage and the audience with the knowledge that they have seen something French that is not shocking. Capping the handstand king, Provo boy, by the way, demonstrated most clearly how useless are bracelets, bolts and bars, even the dreaded straight jacket, when intended to deny him his personal freedom. His escape from them all is a feat seldom seen in the feats of jugglers and acrobats. Those who were most confounded at his achievements were the officers of the law who simply shook their heads as the word "non-plussed" fairly blazed from the bulging eyes of each. There was another curious dog act which, from the favor it met with, would seem to indicate that canine shows, notwithstanding their frequency here, are still popular, as they are entitled to be, when they possess the merit that McFarland does. The midnight play is customary part. Last night's bill runs through the week.

Grand.—The Grand was crowded with an enthusiastic audience last evening, on the occasion of the second presentation of "Blue Jeans" by Misses Harper and company. The five acts of the play are replete with sensational scenes, with sufficient humor interspersed to balance the piece between melodrama and comedy. The sawmill scene at four, where the helpless as an intended victim of the swiftly revolving saw, and from which peril he is saved by June (Miss Harper), is so realistic as to almost cause people to stand up in their chairs, in sheer excitement.

"Blue Jeans" will be followed by "Magda," Thursday and Friday nights and Saturday matinee. "Frou Frou" will be presented Saturday evening, for the benefit of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees.

Lyrice-Zinn's Merry Company opened its second week's engagement in this city last night, and owing to the threatening weather was compelled to move from Casino Park to the Lyrice theatre, which was packed to capacity. It is by far the best Zinn attraction appearing, the comedy, music and costumes being way above the average. The cake walk between the chorus girls was the hit of the show, and they surely displayed a talent seldom seen in a chorus. Andy Budd and Cad Franks scored heavily as the "tough team," not overdoing it as many are prone to do. The dancing of Frances Grey and Jessie Brown was good, and the audience tried them out by cheering. Sadie Ainsley made a distinctive hit with her songs. J. W. Clifford and Gus Mortimer handled the comedy parts and kept the audience in good humor at all times. The show will be given in Casino Park tonight, if the weather is fair.

HAMMOND MADE STATE CHAIRMAN

Unanimously Chosen at Meeting Of Committee This Afternoon To Lead Republicans.

CONVENTION SEPTEMBER 27.

It Will Be Held in This City and the Campaign Be Made to Hum from This Date to Election.

Hon. James T. Hammond, ex-secretary of state, was this afternoon unanimously chosen chairman of the Republican party in Utah, to succeed United States Marshal Spry, whose resignation was accepted this morning. The selection of a successor to Secy. McRae had not been decided at press time. It is said the committee resolved to push a vigorous campaign from now until election.

The meeting of the state Republican committee was held as per schedule in the office of the state land board this morning. The gavel was wielded by United States Marshal William Spry. The morning was given up largely to a general discussion of conditions throughout the state, and the various reports are said to have been of a glowing nature. An executive session took place this afternoon, but until its conclusion it is not possible to definitely forecast the results of the meeting.

However there appears to be a generally well defined idea that J. T. Hammond will be elected chairman. Mr. Spry, the present incumbent of the office, having tendered his resignation this morning, to go into effect during the afternoon session. First Vice President W. K. Walton, occupied the chair for a few minutes following the resignation of Spry.

WILL MEET SEPT. 27.

Sept. 27 has been set for the date of the convention, to be held in the city of Theatricals at 11 o'clock in the morning. Various rumors are in the wind as to a possible surprise to be sprung during the afternoon meeting. In the shape of another candidate for the chairmanship. Secy. William McRae also tendered his resignation this morning, and the matter of his successor will be taken up this afternoon.

KUCHLER KEPT RECORD.

Chairman Spry is said to have been well in control of the situation during the entire morning session. McRae failing to put in an appearance, Rudolph Kuchler of Ogden, lately defeated candidate for the mayorality of that city was appointed secretary temporarily.

SALT LAKE CHOSEN.

Salt Lake was chosen as the place of convention, although it is understood that efforts were made to capture this by several outside cities. W. K. Walton of Rich county, and George M. Miller of Emery county, were observed in close consultation at the close of the morning meeting, and this is thought to lean color to the belief that Hammond will be in charge of the party interests during the next campaign. Hammond is said to have a strong following in the southern counties, although it has also been pointed out that Walton himself has by no means unpopularity among the party supporters to many possibly come in the shape of an effort to replace him in the chair.

The possibility of Kuchler being made permanent secretary has been mentioned.

THOSE PRESENT.

Among those present this morning were Chairman Spry; Rudolph Kuchler, Weber county; W. R. Knox, Beaver county; H. Bullen, Jr., Cache county; J. M. Seelie, Davis county; George M. Miller, Emery county; Henry Adams, Juab county; Milan Day, Mil county; W. K. Walton, Rich county; M. H. Myton, Salt Lake county; W. D. Livingston, Sanpete county; J. H. Erickson, Sevier county; L. L.
