

IN SOCIAL REALMS

SOCIAL CHAT

A most interesting event of the week was the historic ball given at the social hall on Thursday night by the Quaternary society in honor of the Kirkland pioneers, many aristocrats being present, and a number of old relics being in evidence. The event is the first of a series planned to honor the memory of early day pioneers of the L. D. S. Church.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Dunham will entertain about 25 at a family reunion at their home this afternoon in honor of Mr. Dunham's sisters, Mrs. F. L. Abbot of Kalamazoo, Mich., Mrs. J. H. Hillman of Mammoth, Utah, and Mrs. R. E. Chamberlain of Provo, Utah.

A delightful affair of the week was the reunion of Payson residents at Whitney hall on Wednesday night at which Mrs. T. G. Wimmer and Mrs. Frank Fairbanks were hostesses, the features including dancing, social games and a program of music and recitations, and about 400 being present.

Mrs. J. J. Franken entertained at a large tea on Wednesday, the decorations being artistically carried out in St. Patrick's colors, and a number of friends assisting. The hours were from 3 to 5 and about 75 guests were present.

Mrs. C. H. McLaughlin and Mrs. W. H. Binn entertained at two delightful bridge affairs this week, at the home of the latter, which was beautifully decorated in the St. Patrick color and emblems. About 15 tables were played each afternoon and prizes awarded the winners.

Miss Afton Pace was one of Wednesday's hostesses entertaining at an evening party at which about 20 were present. The decorations were entirely in green.

Mrs. Arthur C. White gave a musical and luncheon at her home on Wednesday followed by an Orpheum party in honor of Mrs. Banta of Indiana, green, white and violet being used in the decorations. Present besides the hostess and guests of honor were Mrs. J. J. Broughall, Mrs. William Pearson, Mrs. M. B. Whitney, Mrs.

Idell Lammie, Miss Elizabeth Gould and Miss Mary Fox.

A large card party was given at the home of Mrs. S. A. Loman, on Wednesday by the Women's Republican club, 15 tables being placed and prizes won by Mrs. H. C. Olive and Mrs. Powers.

Mrs. Pauline Smith entertained the Union club this week and prizes went to J. Best, Mrs. Mattie Collier, Mrs. C. C. Snyder, Mrs. W. R. Standley and Mrs. H. C. Hoffman. The next meeting will be Wednesday, March 21, with Mrs. W. R. Standley.

Mrs. J. G. Daly entertained her sewing club this week.

The Plate club was entertained by Mrs. J. S. Taylor on Thursday.

The College club met on Wednesday with Mrs. W. H. Thorne.

Mrs. G. W. Lambourn entertained her card club this week.

Mrs. Joel Nibbel was one of Wednesday's hostesses, entertaining a St. Patrick's luncheon for about 15 friends seated by her sister, Miss Taylor. The decorations were prettily carried out in green.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones will entertain at dinner Tuesday evening, March 22, at their home in Third East street.

Miss Hattie Fern was guest of honor at a bridge tea on Wednesday given by Mrs. Willard Hanson, the decorations being in shamrock and ferns and all other details being in green. Mrs. Hanson was assisted by her mother, Mrs. K. S. Moffet and Mrs. E. V. Silver. Prizes were won by Mrs. D. N. Strang, Mrs. E. D. Hammond and by the guest of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Taylor gave an elaborate dinner on Wednesday in honor of their silver wedding anniversary, the table being decorated in white roses and smiling and the other rooms in pink and red roses. Music was furnished by the Hawaiian band and Mrs. Taylor was assisted by Mrs. Ada W. Cannon and the Misses Irene and Jennie White.

Another pretty dinner of Wednesday was that given by Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Merritt, the table having a centerpiece of white carnations and ferns with silver candelabra shades in green and place cards decorated in shamrock. Covers were laid for Lieut. and Mrs. G. A. Wiser, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Seidell and Captain Garrison McCaskey.

About and Mrs. Edward Rulicher entertained in honor of Miss Garret and Miss Storm on Wednesday evening the amusement being bridge and six tables played. The decorations and all details were in green and Mrs. Walshall and Miss McCune assisted the hostess.

On Thursday night Lieut. and Mrs. Paul C. Potter entertained at a reception party in honor of Miss Storm and Miss

AN EASTER SUIT OF RESEDA MOHAIR

The silky English mohair have been taken up by Paris tailors this year and all manner of charming little suits are being turned out for early spring wear. English mohair is extremely light and cool and in the finer grades is very supple and silky in texture. Cherut, the famous French dressmaker, lines her mohair coats with chiffon of the same shade and the effect is exquisitely dainty. This suit of reseda green mohair is trimmed with pipings of green silk and cord frogs dyed in the green shade. There is a waistcoat of Persian embroidery in greens, pinks and silver and through piped slashes in the coat pass satia ties in the reseda color.

Garret the decorations being in carnations and the hostess assisted by Mrs. Byron Conrad. About 20 guests were present.

Miss Beth Colburn entertained at bridge on Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Louise Hanson, the decorations being in daffodils and a half dozen tables played. Prizes were won by Mrs. G. W. Lambourn, Miss Hollister Hancock and the guest of honor.

Mrs. Newell Beaman was hostess at a luncheon on Thursday given for her friends at No. 4 Gibson apartments, Mrs. Luther Steele of Portland, Or., and Miss Nettie Beaman, the place cards and souvenirs being suggestive of St. Patrick's day.

Mrs. George W. Paltman entertained at an informal luncheon and bridge party on Thursday.

Prof. Clark was guest of honor at a banquet at the Commercial club on Thursday given by resident alumni of the Chicago University, the table being handsomely decorated and covers laid for 15, a program of brilliant toasts being among the features.

Madames Graham, Hanford and Clawson entertained Tuesday night in honor of the national small-club, their relatives and friends about 40 being present. Throughout the rooms St. Patrick's colors, shamrock and carnations were used in profusion. In the dining room where lunch was served was an especially attractive arrangement of green and white. Games were enjoyed and a delightful program was rendered, several excellent vocal numbers being given by Miss Florence Leck, with violin accompaniment played by Mr. Cowan. Miss Leck and Mr. Cowan gave also several piano and violin duets. Mrs. F. L. Brown gave two recitations and Mr. Fairbanks gave several piano solos during the evening. After the program a delicious lunch was served.

The last meeting of the Monday afternoon tournament was held with Miss Louise Stubbfield at the home of Mrs. Russell Tracy, the prizes going to Mrs. J. J. Campbell and Miss Lorraine Leary. Miss Allen Maclean and Miss Louise Sullivan.

Mrs. Lester Eddy entertains at a luncheon today at her home.

Mrs. A. D. Cleveland entertained the members of the Tuesday bridge tournament this week.

Mrs. J. C. Hornung entertained on Thursday informally in honor of her mother Mrs. Griffin.

The Governor's club are planning two events for the near future, a musical to be given near the end of this month and a dancing party on April 2, both to take place at Ogden hall.

Mrs. W. H. Weyher entertained her card club on Tuesday night, 500 being the amusement. Mrs. Weyher was assisted by Mrs. G. W. Lambourn, Miss Ruby Lambourn and Miss Doris Raymond.

Mrs. Preston G. Hampton entertained the July Twelve club at her home on Wednesday in celebration of St. Patrick's day, and the rooms were beautifully decorated in green, the table having a Battenburg lace spread over green satin, and a mound of shamrock and smiling for a centerpiece. Large vases filled with ferns were all about the room and the refreshments were carried out in green. A feature of the afternoon was a guessing game in which Mrs. W. A. P. Blasing was prize winner. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Blasing next Thursday at the Oaks apartments on Fourth East street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Peale are visiting in California for a few weeks.

Frederick E. Ely, Nev., is here for a few days.

Mrs. W. A. Macintosh and Mrs. Kate Y. Hall, accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Mary J. Young, will leave Monday for Los Angeles and the beaches, returning by the way of San Francisco, where they will visit their daughter and sister, Mrs. Louis Switzer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Daggett have moved and are now at home in the Cummings apartments.

Mrs. J. Walcott Thompson has for her guest, her mother, Mrs. Bishop of New Haven, Conn.

Miss Townsend, who has been the guest of Miss Spaulding, left this week for Denver.

Mrs. Walter Jennings has returned from a stay of some weeks at Venice, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Stingley have returned from Smelter, Nev., and will make their home in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher of Chicago are expected here shortly to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Porter for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Edwards will leave today for a stay of 10 days or so in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dresser are in from Garfield for a short visit with friends.

Mrs. J. T. Donnell, after spending some time in Portland, is visiting in Salt Lake with her mother, Mrs. L. C. Scheid, and sister, Mrs. H. M. Myers.

Mrs. E. A. Kessler of San Francisco is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. R. Aley, in the Cummins apartments.

Mrs. A. J. Hosmer has returned from an extended eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Foster have returned from Denver and Colorado Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Franken and Miss Webber will leave shortly for New York, whence they will later be away for a year or more touring the continent.

Mrs. Samuel Newhouse left Sunday for New York and will sail from there in a few days to spend the summer in London and Paris.

Miss Joanna Sprague is at home for the present with Mrs. J. M. Bidwell, at 25 Fifth East street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Graupe have

Whitney's office, was an Omaha visitor during the week.

William Giddings has returned from a two month visit to Los Angeles and other coast cities.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Maule are spending a few weeks in Los Angeles before returning to Ogden from their trip, which included Hawaii.

Word has been received in the city that Mrs. Gosling has sailed from Manila and will be home in a few weeks.

Mrs. D. F. Deneel of Mountain Home, Ida., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McGraw.

Walter Coker of Saratoga, Wyo., is visiting relatives in Ogden for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Le Roy Snow of Salt Lake is visiting with Logan relatives and friends.

Mrs. W. W. McLaughlin and little daughter returned on Wednesday from a week's visit in Salt Lake.

Miss Ethel Thatcher has as her guest Miss Anna McBride of Ogden.

Mr. Alex Nibley of Portland, Or., spent part of the week in Logan.

Mrs. P. D. Stoops and daughter Katherine left on Wednesday for a month's stay in California.

Miss Huntsman, Miss Ruby Nebeker and Miss Blanche Cooper were visitors to Salt Lake on Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. E. W. Robinson is at home after having spent most of the winter in Salt Lake.

Prof. W. S. Langston spent Sunday in Salt Lake.

Mr. W. G. Reese arrived on Tuesday from Australia where he has been engaged in missionary work.

Mr. Junius E. Wells was a visitor from Salt Lake to the M. L. A. conference held here on Sunday last.

Mrs. J. E. Johnson and Miss Lillian Johnson left several days since for California where they will visit with relatives.

Mr. Orson Smith who has been east on business has returned home.

Mr. H. Summers and Mr. C. C. Pratt of Salt Lake spent Tuesday in Logan.

Miss Lou Thatcher returned to Treason on Monday.

Hon. David Eades also Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eccles were visitors on Monday.

Mrs. John Spaulding has returned from a visit to Provo.

Mr. and Mrs. Cy Jones entertained the Original Social club most pleasantly at their home one evening of this week.

Prof. and Mrs. W. H. Homer entertained at a delightful social at their home Saturday evening. About 20 guests enjoyed an evening of games, music and social chat. In a very interesting literary game Miss Laura Pearl Adams won the prize.

The luncheon of our city enjoyed a banquet at the Ogden city Friday. Covers were laid for 25.

Mrs. Fred Finlayson is visiting in Salt Lake with her daughter, Mrs. L. Graham.

The St. Patrick's reception and given Wednesday evening by the young ladies of the B. Y. University, was one of the social events of the season. The hall was decorated with keeping with the occasion, the shamrock and green being used to excellent effect. A short program of Irish songs and readings caused much amusement. Young ladies attired in costumes made for the occasion served refreshments.

The members of the Second ward Relief society pleasantly surprised Mrs. Croft, Friday afternoon. A pleasant social time was enjoyed. About 30 ladies enjoyed the afternoon.

Mrs. Agnes Layton delightfully entertained a number of her young friends at a candy pull at her home Monday evening.

Miss Ruth Kirkwood left the early part of the week for Salt Lake where she expects to spend about a month.

The Utah Sorosis met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. B. Irvine and listened to an excellent paper on Helen Hunt Jackson's "Ramona," given by Mrs. Pearl Yates.

The Fifth ward Relief society celebrated their fifth annual anniversary at the warehouse Wednesday afternoon. An excellent musical program was given and a dainty lunch served after which a social time was enjoyed by all.

The La Comate dancing club gave another of their very enjoyable parties at the First ward social hall Wednesday evening.

A very pleasant social was given Wednesday afternoon by the officers of the Third ward Primary association in honor of Mrs. E. H. Holt, who has been a very active worker in that association and had to resign her office on account of moving from the ward. A very pleasant time was passed and all expressed the regret that they felt in losing Mrs. Holt.

Postmaster Clevie spent a couple of days this week in Salt Lake.

The I. O. O. F. and Hebece's entertained at a social at their club rooms Friday evening. Cards, music and readings all tended to make a most enjoyable evening. Lunch was served.

The B. P. O. E. entertained their members and partners at a social and

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S
ORIENTAL TOILET POWDER
 AN IDEAL ANTISEPTIC TOILET POWDER FOR INFANTS AND ADULTS.

This is an exquisitely perfumed, antiseptic toilet powder. It is a household necessity for the nursery and toilet. It keeps the complexion clear and prevents the velvet texture of youth. It should be used freely after bathing, giving a delightful and refreshing effect.

Prepared by Felix Gouraud, Proprietor of GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM

For sale by
WILLES-HORNE DRUG CO.
 No. 1 Main St. By the Monument.
 SALT LAKE CITY.

Whitney's office, was an Omaha visitor during the week.

William Giddings has returned from a two month visit to Los Angeles and other coast cities.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Maule are spending a few weeks in Los Angeles before returning to Ogden from their trip, which included Hawaii.

Word has been received in the city that Mrs. Gosling has sailed from Manila and will be home in a few weeks.

Mrs. D. F. Deneel of Mountain Home, Ida., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McGraw.

Walter Coker of Saratoga, Wyo., is visiting relatives in Ogden for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Le Roy Snow of Salt Lake is visiting with Logan relatives and friends.

Mrs. W. W. McLaughlin and little daughter returned on Wednesday from a week's visit in Salt Lake.

Miss Ethel Thatcher has as her guest Miss Anna McBride of Ogden.

Mr. Alex Nibley of Portland, Or., spent part of the week in Logan.

Mrs. P. D. Stoops and daughter Katherine left on Wednesday for a month's stay in California.

Miss Huntsman, Miss Ruby Nebeker and Miss Blanche Cooper were visitors to Salt Lake on Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. E. W. Robinson is at home after having spent most of the winter in Salt Lake.

Prof. W. S. Langston spent Sunday in Salt Lake.

Mr. W. G. Reese arrived on Tuesday from Australia where he has been engaged in missionary work.

Mr. Junius E. Wells was a visitor from Salt Lake to the M. L. A. conference held here on Sunday last.

Mrs. J. E. Johnson and Miss Lillian Johnson left several days since for California where they will visit with relatives.

Mr. Orson Smith who has been east on business has returned home.

Mr. H. Summers and Mr. C. C. Pratt of Salt Lake spent Tuesday in Logan.

Miss Lou Thatcher returned to Treason on Monday.

Hon. David Eades also Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eccles were visitors on Monday.

Mrs. John Spaulding has returned from a visit to Provo.

Mr. and Mrs. Cy Jones entertained the Original Social club most pleasantly at their home one evening of this week.

Prof. and Mrs. W. H. Homer entertained at a delightful social at their home Saturday evening. About 20 guests enjoyed an evening of games, music and social chat. In a very interesting literary game Miss Laura Pearl Adams won the prize.

The luncheon of our city enjoyed a banquet at the Ogden city Friday. Covers were laid for 25.

Mrs. Fred Finlayson is visiting in Salt Lake with her daughter, Mrs. L. Graham.

The St. Patrick's reception and given Wednesday evening by the young ladies of the B. Y. University, was one of the social events of the season. The hall was decorated with keeping with the occasion, the shamrock and green being used to excellent effect. A short program of Irish songs and readings caused much amusement. Young ladies attired in costumes made for the occasion served refreshments.

The members of the Second ward Relief society pleasantly surprised Mrs. Croft, Friday afternoon. A pleasant social time was enjoyed. About 30 ladies enjoyed the afternoon.

Mrs. Agnes Layton delightfully entertained a number of her young friends at a candy pull at her home Monday evening.

Miss Ruth Kirkwood left the early part of the week for Salt Lake where she expects to spend about a month.

The Utah Sorosis met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. B. Irvine and listened to an excellent paper on Helen Hunt Jackson's "Ramona," given by Mrs. Pearl Yates.

The Fifth ward Relief society celebrated their fifth annual anniversary at the warehouse Wednesday afternoon. An excellent musical program was given and a dainty lunch served after which a social time was enjoyed by all.

The La Comate dancing club gave another of their very enjoyable parties at the First ward social hall Wednesday evening.

A very pleasant social was given Wednesday afternoon by the officers of the Third ward Primary association in honor of Mrs. E. H. Holt, who has been a very active worker in that association and had to resign her office on account of moving from the ward. A very pleasant time was passed and all expressed the regret that they felt in losing Mrs. Holt.

Postmaster Clevie spent a couple of days this week in Salt Lake.

The I. O. O. F. and Hebece's entertained at a social at their club rooms Friday evening. Cards, music and readings all tended to make a most enjoyable evening. Lunch was served.

The B. P. O. E. entertained their members and partners at a social and

AN EASTER DOLLY IN GALA ARRAY.

Santa Claus need not think he has a monopoly on all the doll giving, for nowadays the little girl who has been very good through Lent receives a splendid Easter dolly, all dressed in fresh Easter finery. The dainty white dress and hat on this Easter dolly might well serve as models for summer raiment to be worn by the doll's prospective mamma. Both frock and hat are of sheer French batiste trimmed with point de Paris lace. The gay parasol hung with a fringe of Easter eggs will specially delight the little girl who receives this seasonable doll.

A Skin of Beauty Is a Joy Forever

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S
Oriental Cream
 OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

FOR THE SKIN AND COMPLEXION

The only toilet preparation in America that has stood the actual test of public approval for over half a century.

GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM Purifies and Beautifies the skin. Cures Skin Diseases and relieves Sunburn. Removes Tan, Pimples, Blackheads, Moth Patches, Rash, Freckles and Vulgar Redness. Yellow and Muddy Skin, giving a delicately clear and refined complexion.

GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM is highly recommended by leading society and professional ladies, and cannot be surpassed when preparing for evening attire.

FOR SALE BY DRUGGISTS AND FANCY GOODS DEALERS
FRED. T. HOPKINS, Proprietor, 37 Great Jones Street, New York

WEDDING BELLS

A pretty wedding of the week was that of Miss Elsie Cahoon and J. S. Stewart on Wednesday night, the event taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Cahoon at Murray with Rev. P. A. Simpkins officiating. Miss Irma Cahoon acting as bridesmaid and Mr. C. E. Nicholas best man. A large reception was held after which the bridal couple left for a trip to Los Angeles. They will be at home later in Murray.

Another wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Katherine H. Houston and George M. Thackerman, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Simpkins at the home of the groom and a reception following for about 25 friends. The guests were prettily decorated with St. Patrick's colors prevailing.

An interesting marriage of the week was that of Miss Geneva Clark and Andrew M. Hixson both of this city which took place on Monday in Oakland in the presence of near relatives.

Mrs. J. Walcott Thompson has for her guest, her mother, Mrs. Bishop of New Haven, Conn.

Miss Townsend, who has been the guest of Miss Spaulding, left this week for Denver.

Mrs. Walter Jennings has returned from a stay of some weeks at Venice, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Stingley have returned from Smelter, Nev., and will make their home in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher of Chicago are expected here shortly to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Porter for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Edwards will leave today for a stay of 10 days or so in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dresser are in from Garfield for a short visit with friends.

Mrs. J. T. Donnell, after spending some time in Portland, is visiting in Salt Lake with her mother, Mrs. L. C. Scheid, and sister, Mrs. H. M. Myers.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Foster have returned from Denver and Colorado Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Franken and Miss Webber will leave shortly for New York, whence they will later be away for a year or more touring the continent.

Mrs. Samuel Newhouse left Sunday for New York and will sail from there in a few days to spend the summer in London and Paris.

Miss Joanna Sprague is at home for the present with Mrs. J. M. Bidwell, at 25 Fifth East street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Graupe have

Whitney's office, was an Omaha visitor during the week.

William Giddings has returned from a two month visit to Los Angeles and other coast cities.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Maule are spending a few weeks in Los Angeles before returning to Ogden from their trip, which included Hawaii.

Word has been received in the city that Mrs. Gosling has sailed from Manila and will be home in a few weeks.