It is suid that the organiza-tion of the Church is the most wonder-that in the sense of the organiza-tion of the Church is the most wonder-ful in the world. It was not estab-lished by Joseph Smith, but was adde kiest into because the rev-at had been mide known unto by God. Is said Elder Thomas, is the made known to alm, and says, by God. For this reason he is spoken of in the same way as the Savior was condemned by the Jews anciently. Joseph Smith is compared by some with Dowie and others. I am willing to compare every minute of his life with any man on earth. He is not an enemy to civilization. He taught the truths of the gospel of Christ and announced the same teaching as the Savior pro-mulgated anciently. Instead of teach-ing thet God was a nonentity whose in by God. This, said Eider Thomas, is the may and finane closent to the Sav-ention of those closent to the Sav-arts who he wear. The Savior's demail was always the same, that was the Son of God. FUNERAL OF JAMES LONSDALE. The funeral of James Matthew Longdate was held Sunday in the new Twelfth-Thirteenth ward meetinghouse, the services being conducted by Bishop Platt. The speakers ware Elder Ephraim Williams of Mill Creek, Bishop

Newbold and Elder Moses Thatcher of Logan and Hishop Smith of Balt Lake. All of the speakers referred to their acquaintance with Mr. Lonsdale on their missions to England. Hishop Platt in a few words testified to the readiness of Mr. Lonsdale to assist in the cause he had espoused, as was evi-denced by the interest he took in the new chapel, the seats for which were furnished by him. I furnished by him.
