STAR MINING COMPANY CASE

Mrs. Moffat Sues for Her Husband's Salary.

NO DAMAGES FOR F. M. OREM

Jury Decides That He Cannot Recover From Edward McCarrick-Other Court Items.

Trial of the case in which Hannah G. Moffatt seeks to recover $2,427.52 with interest and costs of action from the Star Gold and Silver Mining company was commenced before Judge Stewart and a jury this morning.

Plaintiff alleges that her husband, James Monfatt, acted as manager of the mining company from May 10 to Des. 31, 1897, for which service he was entitled to $250 a month, or a total sum of $1,916.66, no part of which was ever paid to him by the company. Mrs. Moffat alleges that on Feb. 1, 1900, her husband assigned this claim to her to recover which, with interest at 8 per cent per annum from Dec. 31, 1897, abe has brought this suit. As a second cause of action, Mrs. Moffat seeks to recover $510.86 with 8 per cent interest from April 4, 1900, which she claims is the balance due on sums amounting to $3,500, loaned to the defendant on various occasions between Oct. 28, 1898 and April 4, 1900. The defendant company's answer is a general denial of the allogations made in the complaint. By the way of counter cialm the company ciaims that in cember, 1898, it placed in the hands C. B. Durst for sale a large amount of its treasury stock, which he sold for 1540. Another block of stock placed in Durst's hands in Jan. 1899, the comany claims brought $175, a total of 15, which Durst paid over to Moffat, nd which he turned over to his wife, The defendant further alleges that on Dec. 29, 1899, it levied an assessment Dec. 29, 1899, it levied an assessment of three cents per share on all outstanding stock, including 28,065 shares controlled by the plaintiff which assessment became delinquent on Feb. 15, 1990. The plaintiff, according to defendant's pleading paid one-half of this assessment and agreed to pay the other half amount to $420.97 within sixty days from Japuary 29, 1900, which sum days from January 29, 1900, which sum the company claims is still unpaid. On these grounds the defendant com-pany asks for judgment against Mrs. Moffat for the sum of $1,155.97 and

AMUSEMENTS.

Col. Ellery, of the Royal Italian Band, is nothing, if not courageous, He ays he feels sure that the light business the band has done in Sait Lake, is due to the bad weather, and as he does not wish to leave the city without giving all our people a chance to hear superb organization, he has cided to play a return engagement to norrow and Saturday evenings, with a Saturday matines. For these concerts the prices will be reduced to 25 cents and 50 cents, a concession which certainly ought to be sufficient to crowd

The attendance picked up somewhat at last night's concert, though it was still lamentably below what the band and the choir deserved. The French seections, especially the "Faust" an 'Carmen" numbers, went with whire inds of applause. The harpist, Mis-Heintzen, also scored another hit, and the choir did some grand work, being encored after each of its numbers.

WARD ENTERTAINMENTS.

norrow evening under the auspices of the Bishopric of the Twentleth ward, an entertainment will be given in the meeting house of that ward for the benefit of the poor. Every winter the Hishopric gets a carlead of coal, which hey distribute among the needy Hving n the ward. It is for this purpose that this entertainment is gotten up. An excellent pragram has been arranged, in which Phillip Markets will take the leading part. The evening's entertainment will commence at 8 o'clock. The fair and bazar in the Seventeenth ward opened last evening under bril-liant auspices. The attendance was large, the attractions excellent and the refreshments delicious. No one went away who was not more than pleased and who is sure to return this evening and tomorrow evening. The affair was interspersed with a burlesque solo by Morris Young, and dainty songs by Nellie Howarth, and little Millie Williams. There was also a string quartette that added very much to the pleasure of the occasion. There were a number of articles knocked down at sacrifice prices under the hammer of Auctioneer George A. Smith. It doesn't say whose sacrifice—the seller's or buyer's. But Mr. Smith is an adept and only sells those things that the people want, and he can prove it to them. Booths of most artistic style are placed about the hall and the most gracious and lovely girls in the ward, a ward that is famed for its beautiful maidens, reside over them with the air and grace of queens. There are the refresh-ment booth, Misses Page; chinaware, Mrs. George A. Smith and Miss Amy Smith; leather goods, Mrs. George S. ## BOOKS BY THE CARLOAD.

National Publishers' Association Throws Books Away—Hundreds Crowding The Auction Sale. sale that is more of a donation party than a genuine selling affair is ouzzling Salt Lakers. There is an auctioneer in town who is selling books at unheard-of prices, and when no buyer can be found is giving them away with money on the side as an inucement to the lucky receiver to not backward in accepting the gift. S. A. Thomas, representing the National Publishers' association, is conducting the sale at No. 11 E. First So The crowds at the sale which began ast Saturday are gaining in size daily, and oftentimes stretch out into th street, and the way that popular books are being absorbed by the people is a wonder—simply thousands of books are ally going into the hands of the read-

Another full car of choice books is xpected daily, and then the wants of the people will be fully satisfied. All latest books Century dictionaries, Funk & Wagnail's Standard dictionaries, Dudley Warner's library of the at literature, Spofford's university of literature, rare art books, all the poets, and everything in the new copyrighted books. We still have many choice things left, and everyone should rest assured that our new car of the hoicest things of the land will be here in ample time for Christmas presents.

Today books will still go at the ridiculously low prices, and the promoters expect to leave a carload of choice literature in Salt Lake. The stock includes hundreds of volumes suitable for Christmas presents, and any number that would be useful acquisitions to any library. It's a real book sensa-

NEW YOKE OVERCOATS,

$13.50, JUST IN.

This adds to the variety in our Overcoat stock, which was somewhat broken up by the brisk selling of the last two weeks. There's two styles in this new lot, one an Oxford Gray and the other a very dark Mixture. Both rich looking Coats and both skilfully cut and put together. They're as good values as any $15.00 grades, but their late arrival prompted us to put a get-'em-out-quick price on them, $13.50. Men's and
